RECOGNIZING COMMUNITY POWERED REVITALIZATION

HON. KENNY MARCHANT

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 27, 2012

Mr. MARCHANT. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I recognize 6 Stones Mission Network and the cities of Hurst, Euless and Bedford for their philanthropic project, Community Powered Revitalization (CPR).

In the midst of celebrating its 100th anniversary, First Baptist Church of Euless found itself on the brink of insolvency and without a leader. The massive debt and red ink on day-to-day expenses left little hope for repayment. Instead of closing its doors, the church began reverently praying for a miracle.

Within 27 months, six million dollars of debt was paid off and all other IOUs fulfilled—a miracle indeed. Overcoming this significant internal trial shifted the church's financial perspective towards helping others. Their newfound surplus of resources allowed the church to readily respond when the City of Euless needed assistance with a home revitalization project in 2008. After finishing their first home renovation, the church gained vision for a new non-profit, 6 Stones Mission Network. Launched in January 2009, 6 Stones is a coalition of cities, local churches and businesses collaborating to meet the needs of those throughout Tarrant County.

CPR actually began in 2008 when Gary McKamie, City Manager of Euless, presented two churches the opportunity to help two families that required substantial assistance in maintaining their homes. They both were in great need, but just did not have the resources, expertise or wherewithal to keep the homes up to code. The City of Euless had established a Leadership Team of employees representing every department of the city to not just lead, but to create and develop the program. This was done in partnership with area churches, businesses and other organizations that wanted to impact the community. That program was called Euless Revitalization. The First Baptist Church of Euless, realizing the many other growing needs in the community, launched a non-profit called 6 Stones Mission Network. Its purpose was to renovate homes, as well as try to help meet needs throughout Hurst, Euless and Bedford.

Then in the summer of 2010, the invitation was extended to Bedford and Hurst to partner with 6 Stones and the City of Euless, to help homeowners in their cities as well. That was the birth of CPR.

The CPR project uses effective partnerships with the cities of Euless, Bedford and Hurst to help struggling homeowners with costly, necessary improvements. In the spring of 2011, the project surpassed the benchmark of assisting 100 homeowners in despair. While their services are offered year-round, two CPR "Blitz" events take place annually, which involve a large volunteer base working together to impact several homes within two days. The product of one community's victory over financial woes is now breathing life into struggling communities across the 24th Congressional District of Texas.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the 24th Congressional District of Texas, I ask all my distinguished colleagues to join me in thanking 6 Stones Mission Network and the cities of Hurst, Euless, and Bedford for their selfless service to our communities. I am honored to represent these great cities and to share their story with my colleagues in Congress.

HONORING THE POLICE UNITY TOUR'S FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY

HON. RODNEY P. FRELINGHUYSEN

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 27, 2012

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Police Unity Tour and its riders as they mark their Fifteenth Anniversary.

In May of 1997, the Police Unity Tour was organized to raise awareness of law enforcement officers who have died in the line of duty and to honor their sacrifices. The Tour, the inspiration of Florham Park, New Jersey Police Officer Patrick P. Montuore, currently Florham Park Police Chief, has grown significantly since its first year. New chapters have formed in many states, including New York, Florida, Delaware and California.

During National Police Week, participants in the Police Unity Tour travel 300 miles by bicycle from New Jersey to the National Law Enforcement Officer's Memorial in Washington DC. The tour culminates in a candlelight vigil held in Washington DC at the Memorial where the names of newly added officers are read aloud and officially dedicated on the monument. This ceremony reminds the participants that their important work is never done.

To honor fallen officers who have fallen in the line of duty, the ride helps raise funds for the National Law Enforcement Officer's Memorial Fund. Since 1997, the Police Unity Tour has raised $10 million for the Fund, going towards the task of adding officers' names to the Memorial's Hall of Remembrance and providing for renovations to the facility.

From 18 participants raising $18,000 for the Fund in its first year, the Police Unity Tour has grown to over 1,200 riders who raised $1.325 million in 2011 alone. Inspired by its motto, "We Ride for Those Who Died", participants come from over 40 states as well as a number of countries such as Australia, Israel and India. However different the backgrounds of these officers may be, they all share in the common purpose of honoring and remembering their fellow fallen officers.

The National Law Enforcement Officer's Memorial contains the names of 19,000 officers who have sacrificed their lives to keep our communities safe and the contributions of the Police Unity Tour have helped preserve their memory. In 2006, The Police Unity Tour pledged to raise $5 million to restore the Memorial and in 2009 the restoration was completed, ensuring that the names and legacies of these officers will never be forgotten.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my colleagues to join me in congratulating the Police Unity Tour and the law enforcement officers who participate in it, as they mark 15 years of devotion to the law enforcement community.

RECOGNIZING MARK ZHAO ON BEING NAMED THE U.S. SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION'S MINORITY SMALL BUSINESS CHAMPION OF YEAR FOR 2012

HON. MADELEINE Z. BORDALLO

OF GUAM

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 27, 2012

Ms. BORDALLO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Mr. Mark M. Y. Zhao for receiving the U.S. Small Business Administration's 2012 Minority Small Business Champion of the Year Award. Mark is the Executive Director of the Westpac Institute of Management on Guam, and has a strong background in banking and finance.

Mark graduated from the University of Guam in 1986 and soon became a banking officer for the Bank of Hawaii. In this capacity, he worked hard to develop and grow Guam's access to the Chinese market. Mark worked to meet the needs of small business owners by eliminating language and cultural barriers that existed between the bank and its customers of Chinese descent. These efforts earned him the position of Vice President for Corporate Lending at the Bank of Hawaii, which he held until 2001.

Following his banking career, Mark used his financial and entrepreneurial expertise to establish the Westpac Institute on Guam. This institute has helped hundreds of entrepreneurs in the local community, especially the minority segments on Guam, by providing them with the education and resources needed to develop their skills.

Further, Mark is an active member of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce on Guam, where he serves as the Chairman of the Real Estate and Education Committees. He also uses his expertise to promote programs that support the education of our young people and the development of Guam's economy. Additionally, Mark is a member of the Governor's Council of Economic Advisers and a Life Member of the Navy League of the United States.

I commend Mr. Mark M. Y. Zhao for his work in addressing the needs of Guam's small business community, and for being named the SBA's Minority Small Business Champion of the Year for 2012. I join our island in thanking him for his contributions to our community, and I wish him continued success with the Westpac Institute.
