COMMERCE, JUSTICE, SCIENCE, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPRO-PRIATIONS ACT, 2013

SPEECH OF

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 10, 2012

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 5326) making appropriations for the Departments of Commerce and Justice, Science, and Related Agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2013, and for other purposes:

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Chair, because of limited funding resources, the Subcommittee was not able to provide funding, as requested by the Office of Juvenile Justice, for a needed evidence-based competitive juvenile justice demonstration grant program. This type of a program would allow for new, innovative practices that may well lead to comprehensive change which, in turn, would likely produce better outcomes in treating at-risk juveniles.

A number of Members requested that the Subcommittee consider amending the Administration request to provide, within existing levels of funding in this bill, competitive grant program funding for qualified non-profit, private youth and family service organizations that can provide an Integrated Continuum of treatment services and programs for at-risk youth and their families.

We believe this approach is still important because it is estimated that 70 percent of youth in the juvenile justice system suffer from mental health issues, substance abuse, and/or learning disabilities. Most of these juveniles require an integrated, comprehensive treatment in order to allow them to succeed within their peer groups and families, in school, on jobs, or in their communities. Just as important, the families of most at-risk juveniles also require services and treatment programs to ensure that a juvenile's home environment is addressed.

There is a wide range of existing national, regional and state-wide, nonprofit qualified youth and family serving organizations that can provide evidenced-based, integrated continuum treatment services and programs for at-risk juveniles and their families. However most, if not all, of the existing program funding opportunities only provide funding for limited services and treatments for at-risk juveniles. They do not allow, where necessary, services and treatment programs for the families of juveniles.

Using an integrated continuum is critical to providing programs and services (including mental health and drug treatment), for both juveniles and their families, that will result in juveniles being permanently returned to improved home environments and becoming productive citizens. Early evidence suggests that an integrated approach is preferable to isolated and limited programs, because the integrated approach shows more promising potential for keeping youth out of the juvenile justice system and avoiding further arrest and recidivism.

Mr. Chair, I hope we can work with you, through the process, as your bill moves forward, to see if we can find a way to dedicate some resources to this integrated continuum of comprehensive services and treatment programs for both at-risk juveniles and their families.

From out of that darkness of most evil war!
From out of that pain and such heartache that one must endure!

From out of that death and destruction,
and oh such suffering of all the more!
As from out of this most dreadful of gores!
Come, all of those and their loved ones . . .
whose daily lives are but filled with such anguish for sure!

And from out of all of this,
must now all somehow, somehow so endure!
To find the strength and the courage, to rebuild with not much more!

Then Hope to insure!
As comes their most swollen of tears so for sure!

That which their Mothers and Fathers, their so Sisters and Brothers,
and their Husbands and Wives,
and all of their most precious of all Children whose eyes must now pour!

And just when all so seems lost!
All out of this darkness of war, with its most tragic of all costs!

With but nothing so left,
but to so cling to Hope to so bless!
To so give us the strength to take just one more most courageous of steps!

But, comes only our very best of the best!
Our most brightest of all lights, as are you
Mark so yes!

So shining above all of the rest!
Such brilliance, to all of our souls to caress!
That with all of your courage Mark,
our Nation you have so blessed!
Bringing Hope, from out of your most magnificent heart's breath!

So splendid and pure, so very special for sure!

Giving us Hope!
With something which so reaches so deep down inside all of our souls!

To have and to hold, which so helped you to so somehow endure!

While, against all the odds Mark . . . your victory it now so insured!

With that kind of Hope, that which so let's one so march off to war!

And come back home from a battlefields of honor so injured,

and still somehow to give more!
With Such New Hope!

All In Your Profiles In Courage!
All in what you so bore!

Teaching us all, what Heaven is for!
And Heather, your most magnificent wife!

all in her devotion and love, and so selfless sacrifice!

Standing by her Man!
Bringing tears to even our Lord eyes!

Yes Mark, with all of your Hope and fine faith . . .

You have, to all of us so shown us the way!
Because, no matter the cost . . .

your fine heart would never so wave!
As we've so watched you Mark,

so heroically moving onward day after day!
To So Teach Us!

To So Reach Us!
To So Beseech Us!

All in what your fine heart has all to say!
All in your Most Splendid Shades of Green

Ooo . . . Rah, Jar Head!
 For you are but a Marine's Marine!
 Because, all in you . . .
 There Is New Hope for all human beings!
 And you and your family,
 are some of the best things that this county has ever seen!
 Coming back without an arm and both of your legs . . .
 Teaching us all about,
 what the word selfless sacrifice all so conveys!
 As on that morning when you so awoke . . .
 All there in that darkness,
 as it was there somehow that you so found such Hope!
 That so gave you the strength,
 all in what your fine heart so meant . . .
 but to so help your fine soul to somehow to cope!
 Showing us all,
 the very meaning of the word Hope!
 And as we look into your eyes,
 it's the tears we now find . . .
 As so easily you could of so given up,
 or so given in and so died!
 And yet instead,
 you so chose all in your most gallant heart
 to so keep Hope alive!
 Because, just in a few short month's my son
 Marine . . . already, look what you've done!
 And look at all of what you've so begun!
 As you've climbed mountains!
 Took beaches!
 Won major battles, to so beseech us!
 So Fearless! So Brave!
 For Mark, you are one of America's greatest of all son's!
 And you and your fine wife,
 shining there ever so bright . . .
 have so shone us all how so to behave!
 As you've come so far and so fast,

all from that grave of a past!
 Shining like a Star,
 to so carry our heart's far!
 Yea Mark . . . That's who you are, A Shining Star!
 A Star of Hope!
 And as long as one finds, so very deep down inside . . .
 That kind of courage and strength!
 From all of that Hope and what it so meant!
 Then, so surely, there is no mountain that we can not so climb!
 With New Hope we will find!
