

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

According to Article I, Section 5, paragraph 2 that "Each House may determine Rules of its proceedings;" further, in Section 8, Congress has the power to "pay the debts and provide for the common defence and general welfare of the United States."

This legislation is within the powers of Congress because it provides transparent accounting of travels by Members of Congress, thereby reducing the debts incurred to pay for said travels. Moreover, this legislation will promote the "general welfare" by promoting the trust in which citizens place in their government to be good stewards of their money.
