

the corridors, hiding in the shadows, coming out only at campaign time, when now, under the campaign rules, they can pour unlimited amounts of secret corporate money into their favorite candidate, and they decide that we haven't had enough process on this issue.

Let me tell you, it took 10 years to get a small provision added through the Ways and Means Committee to simply say you can't go out and do a transaction simply for the purpose of dodging taxes; it has to have some actual "economic substance." Ten years in which some avoided paying their fair share because of an unjustified loophole.

My little company down there in San Antonio that changes tires all day, they've probably never been to Switzerland, much less considered hiring a bank in Switzerland to help them hide their revenues that they worked so hard to earn and which some of these companies involved in these abusive transactions just consider to be rather routine.

You say, well, this is just academic; surely people can't get away with this stuff. Let me tell you what they're getting away with.

I pointed out already that with regard to one bank in Switzerland, UBS, they finally had to disclose $18 billion—that's billion with a B—$18 billion of assets of United States citizens sitting there in hidden accounts in that bank. There were some 50,000 such accounts that UBS had to disclose. Eventually, they had to pay over $700 million in fines. But they're not the only bank that is involved. Currently, the Treasury has under investigation 11 Swiss banks. There's one bank that is under Federal indictment.

This is not an academic problem. It's academic only to those who talk about process instead of solutions. We have a serious problem that undermines the confidence in our government and in our system of tax collection.

Why should somebody who's out there struggling at that tire rim company or that tech startup or just a working family that's out there trying to make ends meet with two people, some working overtime, some working the night shift in order to provide the food and fiber that their family needs to survive, why should they have to comply with our tax laws when you have these kind of companies that could afford the special treatment, that can afford the lobbyists to block measures like this engaged in abuse?

So today I would say to you that there is an opportunity for this House to make itself clear on this issue. Yes, we want to move a transportation bill. And while Republicans have told us we can have transportation without really paying for it, we have a measure adopted by the U.S. Senate on a bipartisan basis, that will provide us a billion dollars more of the transportation we need.

But we not only get that additional transportation, we have an opportunity today to make our position clear to all of the people of America:

Do you stand on the side of preventing abuse, do you stand on the side of equity and fairness to all American taxpayers, or do you want special treatment? Do you want the few, the privileged, to continue to enjoy the privilege of the connivance that goes on between some of these folks and their lobbyists and their accountants and their high-powered lawyers to get advantages that most Americans don't have or want?

□ 1620

As far as I'm concerned, almost no matter what the topic is on this floor of this House, that's the basic issue involved: whether there will be equity and fairness that gives Americans confidence in this system of government, in this democracy, or whether it again and again will be subverted—and in this case, with one Member coming to offer an objection to the motion, not because the matter doesn't have merit, but because it hadn't been studied enough. We have studied this problem to death. It cries out for an answer today, and this motion is a narrow way of answering it.

It won't solve all of the problems. There will still be ways that these special interests will find to dodge and avoid their fair share of taxes. But it will close one abuse. It will give our law enforcement authorities one more tool to deal with criminal tax evasion. I believe we ought to adopt this very narrow measure and write it into the laws of the United States. Send this bill that has been lingering for so long to the President to be signed, and include in it the fact that this Congress did at least one little thing to address the inequities, the special privileges and advantages that the few enjoy here in Washington. Say "no" to unjustified privileges, and "yes" to prompt action on this transportation bill, and include that $1 billion of additional transportation revenues.

I urge my colleagues to adopt this motion to instruct and to do it promptly today, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. All time for debate has expired.

Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to instruct.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to instruct.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question will be postponed.

ENERGY AND WATER DEVELOPMENT AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2013

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 667 and rule XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill, H.R. 5325.

Will the gentleman from New York (Mr. GRIMM) kindly take the chair.

□ 1622

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 5325) making appropriations for energy and water development and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2013, and for other purposes, with Mr. GRIMM (Acting Chair) in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The Acting CHAIR. When the Committee of the Whole rose earlier today, the amendment offered by the gentleman from Texas (Ms. JACKSON LEE) had been disposed of, and the bill had been read through page 56, line 24.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE ACTING CHAIR

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, proceedings will now resume on those amendments on which further proceedings were postponed, in the following order:

An amendment by Mr. FORTENBERRY of Nebraska.

An amendment by Ms. JACKSON LEE of Texas.

An amendment by Mr. CONNOLLY of Virginia.

An amendment by Mr. KUCINICH of Ohio.

Amendment No. 9 by Mr. BURGESS of Texas.

An amendment by Mr. REED of New York.

An amendment by Ms. LORETTA SANCHEZ of California.

An amendment by Mr. POLIS of Colorado.

An amendment by Mr. LUJÁN of New Mexico.

An amendment by Mr. CHABOT of Ohio.

An amendment by Mrs. BLACKBURN of Tennessee.

An amendment by Mr. MULVANEY of South Carolina.

An amendment by Mr. FLAKE of Arizona.

An amendment by Mr. KING of Iowa.

An amendment by Mrs. LUMMIS of Wyoming.

The Chair will reduce to 2 minutes the time for any electronic vote after the first vote in this series.

AMENDMENT OFFERED BY MR. FORTENBERRY OF NEBRASKA

The Acting CHAIR. The unfinished business is the demand for a recorded vote on the first amendment offered by the gentleman from Nebraska (Mr. FORTENBERRY) on which further proceedings were postponed and on which the ayes prevailed by voice vote.

The Clerk will redesignate the amendment.

The Clerk redesignated the amendment.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE ACTING CHAIR

The Acting CHAIR (during the vote).
There is 1 minute remaining.

□ 1721

So the amendment was rejected.
The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Stated for:
Mr. FILER. Mr. Chair, on rollcall 333, I was away from the Capitol due to prior commitments to my constituents. Had I been present, I would have voted “aye.”

(By unanimous consent, Mr. CANTOR was allowed to speak out of order.)

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Chairman, I would advise the House that at the end of the amendment series is the Lummis amendment. After that amendment, we will be revoting the Connolly amendment. So don't leave. We will need to be revoting the gentleman from Virginia's amendment.

Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that proceedings on rollcall No.
327 be vacated to the end that the request for a recorded vote on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. CONNOLLY) remain as unfinished business and, further, that the Chair may reduce the time for any electronic vote on that amendment to not less than 2 minutes.

The Acting CHAIR. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Virginia?

There was no objection.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE ACTING CHAIR

The Acting CHAIR. The Chair appreciates the motion and will state that the Chair didn't recognize individuals in the well.

Without objection, 2-minute voting will proceed.

There was no objection.

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, proceedings will now resume on amendments on which further proceedings were postponed, in the following order:

An amendment by Mr. CHABOT of Ohio.

An amendment by Mrs. BLACKBURN of Tennessee.

An amendment by Mr. MULVANEY of South Carolina.

An amendment by Mr. FLAKE of Arizona.

An amendment by Mr. KING of Iowa.

An amendment by Mrs. LUMMIS of Wyoming.

An amendment by Mr. CONNOLLY of Virginia.

The Chair would reiterate that he will reduce to 2 minutes the minimum time for all remaining electronic votes in this series.

AMENDMENT OFFERED BY MR. CHABOT

The Acting CHAIR. The unfinished business is the demand for a recorded vote on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. CHABOT) on which further proceedings were postponed and on which the noes prevailed by voice vote.

The Clerk will redesignate the amendment.

The Clerk redesignated the amendment.

RECORDED VOTE

The Acting CHAIR. A recorded vote has been demanded.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The Acting CHAIR. This is a 2-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 141, noes 276, not voting 14, as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE ACTING CHAIR

The Acting CHAIR (during the vote). There are 50 seconds remaining.

□ 1745

Mr. LABRADOR changed his vote from "aye" to "no."

Ms. BROWN of Florida changed her vote from "no" to "aye."

So the amendment was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Stated for:

Mr. FILNER. Mr. Chair, on rollcall 340, I was away from the Capitol due to prior commitments to my constituents. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

The Acting CHAIR. The Clerk will read.

The Clerk read as follows:

This Act may be cited as the "Energy and Water Development and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2013".

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Chairman, I move that the committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with sundry amendments, with the recommendation that the amendments be agreed to and that the bill, as amended, do pass.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. WOODALL) having assumed the chair, Mr. PRICE of Georgia, Acting Chair of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 5325) making appropriations for energy and water development and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2013, and for other purposes, and, directed him to report the bill back to the House with sundry amendments adopted in the Committee of the Whole, with the recommendation that the amendments be agreed to and that the bill, as amended, do pass.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the rule, the previous question is ordered.

Is a separate vote demanded on any amendment reported from the Committee of the Whole? If not, the Chair will put them en gros.

The amendments were agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

□ 1750

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. BOSWELL. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

Mr. BOSWELL. I am.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Boswell moves to recommit the bill H.R. 5325 to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Page 6, line 18, after the dollar amount, insert "(increased by $31,600,000)".

Page 7, line 4, after the dollar amount, insert "(reduced by $31,600,000)".

Page 20, line 15, after the dollar amount, insert "(reduced by $1,000,000) (increased by $1,000,000)".

Page 20, line 16, after the dollar amount, insert "(reduced by $1,000,000)".

Mr. BOSWELL (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that we dispense with the reading.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Iowa?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Iowa is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. BOSWELL. Mr. Speaker, I want to say, at the onset, that this, again, is perhaps considered the final amendment to the bill, will not kill the bill. If we pass it, it will send it back to committee. If not, the bill will immediately proceed to final passage, as amended.

What this amendment will do is provide $31 million in increased resources for disaster flood protections, as well as $1 million in targeted resources towards nonmilitary energy cooperation assistance with our closest ally in the Middle East, and one of the closest allies across the globe that we have, Israel.

I've noticed, and I've said before, and I think I'll say it again, for more than a year I've waited patiently for the majority to stop the slash-and-burn legislation and revitalize the Nation and empower employers to create jobs. Well, we're still waiting on those millionaire job creators to show us the jobs, and we're still waiting for the majority to pass an actual jobs bill.

But while we sit here and wait, Mother Nature does not. In fact, Mother Nature waits for no one. Mother Nature did not wait for the majority to pass a bill to send massive amounts of snow and rain to parts of Montana, triggering the Missouri River flood of 2011, leaving homes, businesses, farms, and towns devastated.

Mother Nature did not wait for the majority to pass the jobs bill to send Hurricane Irene barreling across the Eastern Seaboard, causing billions of dollars in damage.

The additional $31 million in funding that my amendment provides for funds planning, training, and other measures that ensure the readiness of the Corps of Engineers to respond to floods, hurricanes, and other natural disasters, and to support emergency operations in response to such disasters, including but not limited to advance measures, flood fighting, and emergency operations.

These additional resources may not seem significant to some people, but to the family farm that is saved because of adequate farm protection relief, or to the small business which is saved, or to the family home that's saved, or the community that is saved, these additional resources are not only significant, but they can mean the difference between living a dream or living in desolation. But these additional resources of flood protection are only but one reason why you should support this amendment.

Another reason that you should support this amendment is that, in supporting this amendment, you vote to support greater cooperation efforts on energy efficiency and renewable energy with Israel.

Israel is our strongest ally in the Middle East, without question, and one of our strongest allies across the globe. And, as such, our ability to work together to advance the interests of both our nations is crucial. One area where I believe we can work even closer together is the realm of energy efficiency and renewable energy.

Coming from my State of Iowa, I know a little bit about renewable energy. Iowa is a national leader in the production of wind power, biodiesel, ethanol, and we take great pride in our ability to advance technology that leads to cleaner, more sustainable energy production.

However, in order to reduce our reliance on foreign oil, we must take an all-of-the-above approach to energy, including greater domestic production of fossil fuels, and yes, renewable, clean green sources of energy. With greater cooperation with our ally, Israel, we can advance the energy security needs of both of our nations, which are vital to greater economic prosperity and growth for years to come.

So therefore, I urge, Mr. Speaker, all my colleagues to vote "yes."

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Chairman, I rise to claim the time in opposition to the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from New Jersey is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Speaker, let me reassure my colleague that I share his concern for fixing the infrastructure that was damaged in last year's flood events. In fact, we provided, through our committee, $1.7 billion in additional funding to the Corps of Engineers last year for that very purpose.

The bill before us now already funds the Flood Control and Coastal Emergencies account at the President's request of $30 million.

In addition, the motion would increase funding for the U.S.-Israeli cooperative agreement to 50 percent above last year's level. This is a completely unwarranted increase, considering our bill already maintains funding for this very important program at last year's level, even while we've cut so many programs in our bill to stay within the budget.

Mr. Speaker, we put together a strong bipartisan bill which supports a comprehensive energy policy. It maintains a strong national defense, and it maintains the fact that we keep America competitive and keep America open for business.

In that regard, Mr. Speaker, in case there is any question, if Members care about the Harbor Maintenance Trust Fund Project, this bill is your best option. It is $158 million above the President's request, and more than $120 million above the Senate. If you want higher funding levels for these important projects, you must vote for our bill.

Mr. Speaker, again, our bill is a commitment to national security, reduced spending, and keeping America open for business.

I urge Members to vote against the motion to recommit and vote for final passage of the bill.

I yield back the balance of my time. The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. BOSWELL. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 and clause 9 of rule XX, this 15-minute vote on the motion to recommit will be followed by 5-minute votes on final passage of the bill and motions to instruct conferees on H.R. 4348 offered by Mr. FLAKE and Mr. DOGGETT.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 185, noes 233, not voting 13, as follows:
