

However, H.R. 4348 does not make changes to the financial reporting requirements known as Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) to allow companies to reflect the reforms on their balance sheets. The end result of this is that many company balance sheets will be required to show inflated pension liabilities that the reforms seek to address.

There is also no guidance provided to the overseeing entities of GAAP on how to conform these reforms and accounting requirements.

The pension stabilization language is meant to allow companies to calculate their pension funding status through a more stable, long-term method. There should be consistency between the law and how pension obligations are reported on companies' financial statements.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE ACTING CHAIR

The Acting CHAIR (during the vote). There is 1 minute remaining.

□ 1221

Mr. DOLD changed his vote from “aye” to “no.”

So the amendment was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Stated against:

Mr. FILNER. Mr. Chair, on rollcall 446, I was away from the Capitol due to prior commitments to my constituents. Had I been present, I would have voted “no.”

(By unanimous consent, Mr. DOYLE was allowed to speak out of order.)

CHARITIES REAL WINNERS FROM CONGRESSIONAL BASEBALL GAME

Mr. DOYLE. Mr. Chairman, you all know that last night was the 51st annual Congressional Quarterly-Roll Call baseball game for charity, and I'm pleased to inform the House this morning that the Democratic team won 18-5 last night.

Mr. Chairman, there are 21 outs in the game we play because we only play seven innings. Cedric Richmond struck out 16 batters, so he didn't leave much work for our infield. It's my understanding that if the Republicans should win the Presidency, that Cedric is going to be offered a Cabinet position just to get him out of here. Other notables, Cedric also came within about 3 feet of hitting one out of the park at National Field, too. BEN CHANDLER also had a fantastic game for our team as co-MVP.

But, Mr. Chairman, the real winner last night was the Boys and Girls Club of Washington, D.C. and the Washington Literacy Council. This was a record year for the congressional baseball game. We came close to raising, for the first time ever, almost a quarter of a million dollars for the charities.

I want to congratulate my good friend and Republican manager, JOE BARTON, on a hard-fought game. I can tell you, as someone who has played in the game for 18 years now, I've been part of the highs and part of the lows. I know what it's like to be on both ends of a winning and losing ball game. But the Republicans were game opponents. They came out there, and they did their best last night; but we were just a little bit better than them. And now I yield to my good friend, JOE BARTON.

Mr. BARTON of Texas. Thank you, Congressman DOYLE. There are a few things you said, like most Democrats, stretching the truth a little bit. You know, you said that there are only 21 outs in the game. Well, we being very generous and open-hearted Republicans, we play a game where you got about 31 outs because we were so friendly with the way we didn't catch the ball.

For my Republican colleagues, there is good news and bad news. The good news is we got nine times as many hits this year. We got 500 percent more runs this year. So in some ways, we did a lot better. But the bad news is that the Democrats doubled the number of runs. And as my 6-year-old son Jack told me on the way home after the game—he's a T-ball expert—he said, Those guys didn't let up on you.

Mr. DOYLE. It's not in my nature, Joe.

Mr. BARTON of Texas. As some of you who actually went to the game noticed, at about the fourth inning, PETE SESSIONS, our first base coach, and TIM SCOTT, one of our pitchers, who are both on the Rules Committee, had to leave to go back to Rules. Now, there's no truth to the rumor that I had asked for an emergency rule asking CEDRIC RICHMOND be declared ineligible for that game. There is no truth to that rumor.

Our guys played well. Our MVP, PAT MEEHAN of Pennsylvania, pitched in relief real well. JOHN SHIMKUS got two hits. JEFF FLAKE got a double and knocked in two runs. SAM GRAVES stole several bases and played very well out in the field. So as my 6-year-old son Jack also said, Mr. DOYLE, enjoy it while you can because it won't last forever; you can't win every game.

But congratulations, and a job well done on both sides.

Mr. DOYLE. I think it is also notable that our House Chaplain, Father Conroy, did get a chance to play in the game last night. We put him in as a pinch runner. I think it's notable to say Father Conroy stole home.

Mr. BARTON of Texas. He did, but that means that God owes us one. Congratulations.

Mr. DOYLE. We want to give a round of applause to our Chaplain, too, for playing in the game.

One final look: here's the trophy, guys.

□ 1240

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Arizona is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, I'm offering this final amendment to assist our veterans.

Mr. Speaker and my colleagues, I came before you last week to be sworn in, and I spoke then about working together, working across the aisle to ensure that my constituents and all of our constituents are served by our very best work, rather than our partisan ambitions.

So I rise today in that same spirit. I rise today to ask that we come together on an amendment to help those who most deserve our gratitude and our assistance, the veterans who have bravely served to defend our homeland. Today, we have an opportunity to take care of the veterans of our military who, much to our collective shame, are homeless.

I remember the Vietnam War, and I remember how it divided our Nation. But most of all, I remember the men and women who were sent to fight in Vietnam, who often bore the brunt of the anger over the war itself. Derision that should have been directed towards policymakers was, instead, directed to those who had put their lives on the line for the country we love. And we let them down.

We failed them when they came home, and now they, and other veterans, a total estimated 70,000 of our Nation's homeless population—70,000. That is, I'm sure we all agree, completely unacceptable. I don't believe that anyone on either side of the aisle thinks that we should allow 70,000 men and woman who wore our Nation's uniform to continue to go without a home.

With my amendment, we will ensure that we have enough housing vouchers to assist every one of those veterans. I submit, Mr. Speaker, and esteemed colleagues, that this is the least we owe to our veterans.

There are over 100,000 veterans in my southern Arizona district. Let me tell you about one of them. Christopher Murray, a disabled Operation Desert Storm medic and combat veteran, came to our office to seek our help when I served as Congresswoman Gifford's district director. A bank was foreclosing on his home, and he had recently been diagnosed with terminal cancer. Our staff was able to work to rescind the foreclosure and allow Mr. Murray to stay in his own home. The simple dignity of being in your own home during your final days is something we all too often take for granted. We must not deny that dignity to those who have, like Mr. Murray, served our country so well.

My amendment offers every one of us a chance to do what our office did then: to ensure that our veterans get our help and have the simple dignity of a roof above their heads. And my amendment does that while reducing the deficit.

The passage of this amendment will not prevent passage of this underlying bill. If the amendment is adopted, it will be incorporated into the bill, and the bill will be immediately voted upon. And so, though we may disagree on parts of the bill today, we have the opportunity to speak up for the men and women who have fought for our country.

And let us all be able to go home and look every veteran we represent in the eye and know that we did the right thing by them and by their homeless brothers and sisters.

I urge everyone to vote “yes” on this final amendment.

I yield back the balance of my time. Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Iowa is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion to recommit.

The veterans homeless program is a very good program. We all understand that. In this bill—and everybody should listen—we provide $75 million for 10,000 new vouchers already. So there's no question that we are meeting the need. This is the same as last year, and what we have in the bill is the President's request. Let me say that again. What we have in the bill for veterans vouchers is what the President asked for.

I will also say, it's interesting at this time to bring this motion. We have been through subcommittee markup, we have gone through full committee markup, we have been on the floor of this House for 2 days, and no one's ever raised this issue because everyone understood that we had fully met the funding requirements for the veterans homeless vouchers. So now it's an interesting time to bring this amendment or this motion.

And I will tell the folks, if, in fact, we find out there is an additional need before we get to conference, there isn't anybody in this House that won't support it. But we have fully funded the needs. This has been a full vetting process, and now, at the last moment you come up with a motion that is not necessary because everyone supports these vouchers.

This is a good, balanced bill, and I urge a “no” vote on the motion to recommit.

I yield back the balance of my time. The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. BARBER. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 and clause 9 of rule XX, this 15-minute vote on the motion to recommit will be followed by 5-minute votes on passage of H.R. 5972 and adoption of the conference report on H.R. 4348.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 188, noes 233, not voting 11, as follows:

STUDENT LOAN INTEREST RATES

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, today, the House passed a bipartisan 1-year extension of the current interest rate for Federally subsidized student loans. This is a good thing for students across the country. But as we celebrate this accomplishment, let's keep our eye on the larger picture. We wouldn't be worried about these interest rates if not for the fact that the economy is so weak and the cost of education is so high. According to the Department of Education, the savings will be $7 a month for the average Stafford loan borrower. While that might not seem like a lot, each dollar counts for a college graduate still searching for a good-paying job.

We can have a larger effect for students by working to repeal Federal unfunded mandates that drive up the cost of college tuition and by working to put the wheels back on the economy. As a member of the Subcommittee for Higher Education and Workforce Training, I'm committed to making that happen. Let's work together to ensure that students can achieve a quality education at a reasonable cost and get great jobs when they graduate. There's no better social program than a good-paying job.

LET'S CONTINUE THE GREAT WORK

(Mr. COURTNEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COURTNEY. Mr. Speaker, with a few minutes to spare, we just voted to make sure that the interest rate for the Stafford student loan program was going to stay at 3.4 and avoid the doubling of rates, which would have happened Saturday night if we had not acted. This is an issue which took months to get to. President Obama challenged Congress back at the State of the Union in January, telling us that we must act. It took months to get any response. And I want to congratulate the 130,000 college students all across America who submitted a petition to the Speaker's office saying it was time to get moving.

We started the countdown clock on that day at Day 110, and now we are officially defusing the time bomb that would have exploded with a higher interest rate if we had not acted. We have a lot more work to do with the high cost of college and student loan debt, which now exceeds credit card debt and consumer loan debt. But having said that, we saw today an honest
