NOT VOTING—2

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CHALLENGE CUP

(Mr. CRENSHAW asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Speaker and Members of the House, I've been asked to report the results of a competition that took place on Monday at the Columbia Country Club.

The competition is called the Congressional Challenge Cup. It's an event where a team of golfers from the Democratic side of the House plays a team of golfers from the Republican side of the House. I wanted to report to the House that this year's winner of the Congressional Challenge Cup is the Republican team.

Very briefly, I want to thank my teammates: TREY GOWDY, MICK MULVANEY, JEFF DUNCAN, DUNCAN HUNTER, TOM ROONEY, REID RIBBLE, and STEVE SOUTHERLAND. I want to thank them for their dedication, their hard work, and, most of all, for just showing up.

The big winner, Madam Speaker, is an organization called the First Tee. Over the last 11 years that we've had this competition, over $1.5 million has been raised for the First Tee. This is an organization that works with young people to try to touch their lives through educational programs that deal with character, honesty, integrity. They work in all 50 States. They've touched the lives of 4.5 million people over the years, and they do a lot of work in the inner cities and for the less fortunate.

So it was a great day, and I want to thank everybody for their involvement.

Certainly, I want to yield time to my Democratic counterpart, to the captain of the Democratic team, Mr. YARMUTH.

Mr. YARMUTH. I thank my good friend from Florida.

I want to congratulate the Republicans on their victory.

All good things must come to an end. Our 5-year winning streak was broken through, largely, superior play, although I do question some of the strategy that was invoked by the Republican team, notably Mr. MULVANEY and Mr. GOWDY wearing matching plaid Bermuda shorts, which distracted all of my team members.

But seriously, this is a great event, and it was conducted very much in accordance with the nine core values that the First Tee espouses, particularly sportsmanship, honesty, integrity, and courtesy. I think all of us enjoyed the day and left the event much closer than when we started. There was a great spirit of collegiality as well as competition.

Once again, I want to thank all of my fellow team members on the Democratic side. I congratulate the Republicans. Once again, I congratulate and thank the First Tee for all they do to promote high qualities among our youth in America.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 4402, NATIONAL STRATEGIC AND CRITICAL MINERALS PRODUCTION ACT OF 2012

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, 5-minute voting will continue.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the vote on adoption of the resolution (H. Res. 726) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 4402) to require the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture to more efficiently develop domestic sources of the minerals and mineral materials of strategic and critical importance to United States economic and national security and manufacturing competitiveness, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the resolution.

This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 245, nays 180, not voting 6, as follows:
