The abandoned mine land fund is a tax on coal produced, in part, on federal lands. Both the tax, and its distribution were created pursuant to the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977, presumably with the Constitutional authority to tax, raise revenue, and spend that revenue under Article I, Section 8, Clause 1. This legislation seeks to repeal a section of that bill dealing with the distribution of AML funds. While the Constitution gives no explicit authority to repeal, it can be inferred that what Congress has the Constitutional authority to create, it can also repeal.
