ANNOUNCEMENT REGARDING CLASSIFIED SCHEDULE OF AUTHORIZATIONS AND CLASSIFIED ANNEX ACCOMPANYING INTELLIGENCE AUTHORIZATION BILL FOR FY 2013

(Mr. ROGERS of Michigan asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ROGERS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, in light of anticipated House consideration of S. 3454, the Intelligence Authorization Act for FY 2013, tomorrow, I wish to announce to all Members of the House that the Classified Schedule of Authorizations and the Classified Annex accompanying S. 3454 will be available for review by Members at the offices of the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence in room HVC-304 of the Capitol Visitor Center beginning tomorrow morning at 8:30 a.m.

I recommend that all Members wishing to review the Classified Annex contact the committee's director of security to arrange a time for that viewing. This will assure the availability of committee staff to assist Members who desire assistance during their review of these classified materials.

I urge interested Members to review these materials in order to better understand the committee's recommendations. The Classified Annex to S. 3454 contains the committee's recommendations on the intelligence budget for fiscal year 2013 and related classified information that cannot be disclosed publicly.

It is important that Members keep in mind the requirements of clause 13 of House rule XXIII, which only permits access to classified information by those Members of the House who have signed the oath and met the requirements provided for in the rule.

DIGNIFIED BURIAL AND OTHER VETERANS' BENEFITS IMPROVEMENT ACT OF 2012

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, 5-minute voting will continue.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Florida (Mr. MILLER) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. REED. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This will be a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 393, nays 0, not voting 38, as follows:

□ 1910

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet tomorrow at 9 a.m. for morning-hour debate and 10 a.m. for legislative business.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker, I am grateful for the opportunity to recognize Eric Dell, chief of staff for the Second District of South Carolina. Eric has accepted to serve as senior vice president for the National Automatic Merchandising Association. This is a tremendous vote of confidence in his competence, dedication, and integrity.

There are no words to express the amount of appreciation I have had for Eric and for his service to South Carolina's Second Congressional District over the last 11 years. Throughout my years in public service, whether it be deciding to run for office, serving in the South Carolina Senate, or representing constituents in Congress, I can always count on Eric to offer his support to me, my family, or any constituent in need. He is devoted to serving the people of South Carolina.

It is with mixed feelings but with great happiness that I bid Eric farewell. He and his wife, Torry, will always be cherished by me and my wife, Roxanne, and our sons for their friendship. Godspeed.

Happy anniversary to my wife, Roxanne—the love of my life—whom I married 35 years ago this moment at Columbia's First Presbyterian Church in a ceremony conducted by the Reverend Dr. Hugh McClure.

In conclusion, God bless our troops, and we will never forget September the 11th in the global war on terrorism.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Accordingly (at 7 o'clock and 15 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess.

□ 2020

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Ms. FOXF) at 8 o'clock and 20 minutes p.m.

Mr. SESSIONS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 112-734) on the resolution (H. Res. 843) waiving a requirement of clause 6(a) of rule XIII with respect to consideration of certain resolutions reported from the Committee on Rules, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following resignation from the House of Representatives:

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, December 30, 2012.

Hon. JOHN BOEHNER,
Speaker, House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR SPEAKER BOEHNER: I am writing to inform you that I have notified the Governor of South Carolina of my resignation from the U.S. House of Representatives effective January 2, 2013. A copy of that letter is attached. I do not intend to take the office of Representative for the First Congressional District of South Carolina in the 113th Congress.

It has truly been an honor to serve the First District of South Carolina, and I look forward to continuing that service in my new role as United States Senator. I have enjoyed working with you, Majority Leader Cantor, and all of our colleagues in the House, and wish you the best of luck in the future.

Sincerely,

TIM SCOTT,
Member of Congress.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, December 28, 2012.

Hon. NIKKI HALEY,
Governor, State of South Carolina, Statehouse,
Columbia, SC.

DEAR GOVERNOR HALEY: I am writing to resign my position as United States Representative from the First Congressional District of South Carolina, effective January 2, 2013. It has been a tremendous honor to represent the First District, and I look forward to continuing that service in my new role as the junior United States Senator for our great state.

I look forward to working with you, as well as Senator Graham and my friends in our state's U.S. House delegation, to build not only a better South Carolina, but a stronger America. Our nation finds itself at a crossroads, and through strong, principled leadership we can ensure a brighter future for our children and grandchildren.

I also want to thank the people of the First District, from Myrtle Beach to Hilton Head Island, for the opportunity to serve our great state in the U.S. House of Representatives. Together we have stood up for our principles, and worked hard every day to lower federal spending and create the right environment for job creation. While the challenges before us may look daunting, I am certain we will look back on them as a positive turning point for our nation.

Sincerely,

TIM SCOTT,
Member of Congress.

By unanimous consent, leave of absence was granted to:

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD (at the request of Ms. PELOSI) for today and through January 2 on account of death in family.

A bill of the Senate of the following title was taken from the Speaker's table and, under the rule, referred as follows:

S. 3667. An act to rename section 219(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as the Kay Bailey Hutchison Spousal IRA; to the Committee on Ways and Means.
