

just how much Paul meant to the people of Colorado.

He was perhaps most proud of this crowning achievement: being a tamale maker. He left an indelible impact on the culinary landscape of the State. I won't be the first or last to say this, but Paul's tamale shop, La Casita, makes the best tamales in Denver. People flocked to his restaurant, a landmark in north Denver, not only because of his delicious "mile high traditional" tamales but because of the community he created for all who visited. For the past four decades, anyone seeking fresh tamales and stimulating conversation about politics made a visit to Paul's restaurant.

The consummate public servant, Paul was often called the godfather of Colorado politics. He served the State faithfully as a State senator, a member of the Denver school board, and an adviser to elected officials at the local, State and Federal levels. I often relied on Paul's guidance, and I feel the loss of his counsel and friendship deeply.

I admire Paul because he never let partisanship get in the way of a good idea. As a supporter of Democrats, Republicans, and Independents, he valued a person's character and integrity, not party affiliation. Good people make the call to public service worth heeding, and Paul was one of the best. He embodied the Colorado principle that when you work together, things get done for the good of Colorado's families. Paul's example inspires my approach to bipartisanship and collaboration in the Senate today.

Paul's hard-working, entrepreneurial spirit stems from his early life and experiences. He started selling the Denver Post at the age of 6 and was delivering groceries for a local market by the eighth grade. At that young age he even tracked down a customer who owed him for a newspaper, then negotiated with the man to pay interest for holding out. His early training in negotiation paid off for Colorado because Paul became one of our State's talented bridge-builders: he formulated commonsense public policy and then brought people together to achieve it.

The son of the founder of a meatpacking union, Paul had politics in his blood and was elected to the Colorado State Senate in 1974. In the Senate, Paul was a champion of many issues, but education issues held a special place in his heart and on his agenda. His leadership ensured the passage of Colorado's first bilingual education bill, and he cofounded the Chicano Education Project to implement bilingual curricula across the State. Paul furthered his commitment to educating Colorado's future leaders by later joining the Denver school board, and he personally set up scholarship funds to support undergraduate and graduate students.

For all of his work and in recognition of his leadership throughout the State, Paul received awards too numerous to recount here. Most recently, he was awarded the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Metro Denver's Lifetime Achievement Award. In addition, at this year's Jefferson Jackson Day Dinner, the Colorado Democratic Party honored him with its Lifetime Achievement Award.

My thoughts and prayers are with Paul's beloved wife Paula, his children, and his family, and I share their profound grief at the loss of my dear friend and confidant. But Paul's legacy will endure through the family he cherished, the generations of public servants he mentored, and the gift of inspiration he imparted to all of us.

I can think of no better way to describe Paul than as authentic, a real believer in what people could do through a good education and hard work, and a man who nourished a better political system the same way he nourished us with the best tamales in Denver. Paul Sandoval will be deeply missed but always remembered, for his extraordinary spirit.●

MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Messages from the President of the United States were communicated to the Senate by Mr. Pate, one of his secretaries.

EXECUTIVE MESSAGES REFERRED

As in executive session the Presiding Officer laid before the Senate messages from the President of the United States submitting sundry nominations and withdrawals which were referred to the appropriate committees.

(The nominations received today are printed at the end of the Senate proceedings.)

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

At 10:35 a.m., a message from the House of Representatives, delivered by Mrs. Cole, one of its reading clerks, announced that the House has passed the following bills, in which it requests the concurrence of the Senate:

H.R. 1038. An act to authorize the conveyance of two small parcels of land within the boundaries of the Coconino National Forest containing private improvements that were developed based upon the reliance of the landowners in an erroneous survey conducted in May 1960.
