

countries that can tap other financing resources.

The World Bank is at a critical juncture. The Bank needs to pursue serious reforms, especially in the areas of corruption and transparency. It must not be used to push social agendas and political priorities to the detriment of poor nations, or to use donor funds in a manner that is not cost-effective. The United States representative must be a strong advocate for reform and accountability. I do not believe that Sara Aviel is the person to get that job done.

It is for these reasons that I oppose the nomination of Sara Aviel.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is, Will the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of Sara Margalit Aviel to be United States Alternate Executive Director of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development?

The nomination was confirmed.

INTERNATIONAL PROTECTING GIRLS BY PREVENTING CHILD MARRIAGE ACT OF 2011

Mr. REID. I ask unanimous consent the Senate proceed to consideration of Calendar No. 412, S. 414.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the bill by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 414) to protect girls in developing countries through the prevention of child marriage, and for other purposes.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill.

Ms. SNOWE. Mr. President, I rise today to urge that the Senate pass S. 414, the "Protecting Girls by Preventing Child Marriage Act." As the Senate prepares to approve this bipartisan measure, we should take a moment to acknowledge and reflect upon the critical impact this legislation will have on the estimated 100 million girls in developing countries who are at risk of being married as children over the next decade.

The harmful practice of forced child marriage often exacerbates social, economic, and political instability in the developing world, and can prohibit smooth economic and political transition.

For example, Afghanistan's high female illiteracy rates and maternal mortality rates are among the most significant obstacles standing in the way of long-term progress and stability. Without ending child marriage, which remains one of the many underlying catalysts of these poor outcomes, the road ahead for women in Afghanistan will be all the more grueling. And women in Afghanistan are by no means alone in the struggle the discriminatory norms that perpetuate child marriage also prohibit full participation of women in the economic and political life in many other regions of the world.

According to the United Nations Children's Fund—UNICEF—an estimated 60,000,000 girls between the ages of 20 through 24 were married before they turned 18. The Population Council estimates that the number will increase by 100 million over the next decade if current trends continue. In addition to denying these tens of millions of women and girls their dignity, child marriage continues to endanger their health. Marriage at an early age puts girls at greater risk of dying as a result of childbirth. Pregnancy and childbirth complications are the leading cause of death for women 15 to 19 years old in most Third World countries.

Furthermore, women and girls are the world's greatest untapped resources. Studies conducted by the Food and Agricultural Organization—FAO—have confirmed that women are the mainstay of small scale agriculture, farm labor, and day-to-day family subsistence accounting for half of the world's food production.

However, child marriage continues to be a barrier to the improvement of society and the development of these young women. And, unfortunately, early marriages continue to pull girls out of school and prohibit them from gaining vital skills to engage in income generating activities, actively participate in efforts to shape their communities, and often block their ability to achieve food security.

I am heartened to see the United States Senate affirm the United States' commitment to promote the basic human rights of all individuals and through this small step improve the lives of millions of girls by passing this bill today.

Before closing, let me briefly commend my friend and colleague, Senator DURBIN of Illinois. He has been a leader on this topic for a number of years and
