STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. BAUCUS (for himself, Mr. KERRY, Ms. COLLINS, Mr. CARDIN, Mrs. SHAHEEN, Ms. SNOWE, and Mr. CONRAD):

S. 3705. A bill to establish a commission to develop a national strategy and recommendations for reducing fatalities resulting from child abuse and neglect; to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, Nelson Mandela, the former president of South Africa, once said "Safety and security don't just happen; they are the result of collective consensus and public investment. We owe our children, the most vulnerable citizens in our society, a life free of violence and fear."

Today, I echo that call to protect our most vulnerable citizens as I join Senators KERRY, COLLINS, CARDIN, SHAHEEN, SNOWE, and CONRAD to introduce the Protect Our Kids Act.

This important legislation establishes a special task force dedicated to reducing child abuse and neglect in America. Comprised of our Nation's top child welfare administrators and researchers, law enforcement officers, and other dedicated experts, this task force would study and evaluate federal, state, and private child welfare systems and develop a comprehensive national strategy to prevent and reduce these tragic acts of violence.

Since 2002, more than 15,000 children have died due to abuse and neglect. This number is based on state-reported Child Protection Services data. But advocates predict the true number is far greater.

We don't have clear facts because currently, there is no national standard for collecting data on these young victims. Many state child protection agencies do not share vital data and statistics with other agencies, officials, or law enforcement.

Clearly, more must be done to better protect our Nation's children. More must be done to protect them from the fear and terror of abuse, especially when the threat to their safety often comes from those that should cherish them the most.

We need to bring this issue out of the shadows. It starts by learning more about the tragic deaths of these children, so that we can prevent the senseless murders from happening again. That is what this task force will do. They will study the issue and develop a national strategy and recommendations for improvements throughout the child welfare system.

According to Child Protection Services data, in Montana we reported zero fatalities from child abuse and neglect last year. While that of course sounds like good news, the story is more complicated. We have heard of at least three child deaths related to abuse or neglect. Some abuse is going unreported. And there are clear gaps in data between the agencies and in the reporting. So I am urging my state to elevate the standards of protective services even higher.

Child Protection Services needs to coordinate with other agencies. They need to share data so we can have a clear picture of the full scope of the problem. Everyone needs to work together to make sure that all Montana kids are safe.

Our Nation must tackle this issue head on. We must embrace our responsibility to protect our children. We need to provide them with safe, nurturing environments and the support they need to thrive and succeed in our society.

We need to make sure that kids have access to physical and mental health services, so they can grow into happy, productive adults. We need to help children with mental illnesses by reducing the stigma surrounding mental health services and ensuring that these young people know there is a strong support network backing them up.

We should look at programs like home visits, which currently provide professional assistance, right at home, for more than 50,000 families across our Nation, and see how they can be improved to do an even better job supporting vulnerable families.

We are blessed to live in the richest, most powerful country in the world. We have to use every resource at our disposal to strengthen our laws to ensure that all children are given a chance to succeed in life.

This bipartisan legislation we are introducing today is a step in the right direction to protect our kids.

I commend my colleagues Senators KERRY and COLLINS for their years of tireless work, fighting for the rights of our children. The House of Representatives has already acted on this legislation. Let us now join together and create a life free of violence and fear for our most vulnerable citizens.

Let us pass the Protect Our Kids Act.

By Mr. KYL:

S. 3708. A bill to encourage reporting of child abuse; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. KYL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the text of the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 3708
