

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

RECOGNIZING THE VAN DUZER
FOUNDATION AND SCOTT VAN
DUZER

HON. PATRICK MURPHY

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 6, 2013

Mr. MURPHY of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the work of the Van Duzer Foundation and its founder, Mr. Scott Van Duzer of Port Saint Lucie, Florida, in honor of his philanthropic efforts, which have touched many lives across the Treasure Coast.

Scott started the Van Duzer Foundation in 2008 to help families and individuals impacted by tragic and often unforeseen circumstances. Since its inception, the foundation has organized blood drives garnering more than 7,000 pints of blood and raising over $800,000 for families and individuals in need. The Foundation's family-friendly fundraising events are well attended by many in the community and positively serve as a model of civic engagement.

A few years ago, Scott learned about two boys who were in desperate need of a blood transfusion. Because of a shortage, one of the boys waited nine hours for life-saving blood to arrive. Rising to the call of activism, Scott collaborated with his board of directors to partner with Florida's Blood Centers to host a blood drive where initially over 300 pints of blood were collected. The Foundation later hosted their inaugural Be a Hero Day where 1,000 pints of blood were donated. Having hosted several blood drives since, the 7,000 pints of blood collected by the Van Duzer Foundation have impacted over 21,000 lives, a figure of three lives per donation of blood. In recognition of the work of the Van Duzer Foundation, last year Scott was honored by a visit from President Obama at his local pizza shop where he gave the President a much-publicized bear hug. Mr. Speaker, I am honored to recognize the great work of the Van Duzer Foundation and to call Scott not only a constituent, but a friend. In today's busy, complex world we must recognize the depth of philanthropy and its impact. We better ourselves by improving our communities and being our neighbor's keeper. As evidenced through Scott Van Duzer and the Van Duzer Foundation, it is through these means in which all Americans can participate in perpetuating a prosperous pathway for our Nation.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF RUTH ASAWA

HON. NANCY PELOSI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 6, 2013

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, on August 6th San Francisco lost a visionary artist, educator, community activist, civic leader and beloved friend. Ruth Asawa was an internationally recognized sculptor who will be long remembered for her public works of art, her extraordinary wire sculptures, and her commitment to the people of San Francisco, especially our children. Her memory will embolden future generations to devote their passions to the freedom of self-expression and public betterment.

The story of Ruth Asawa is the story of America, of great patriotism and ethnic pride, as reflected in her life and work. She earned the recognition she deserved, conquering discrimination as a female in a male-dominated discipline, and during and after World War II when our government incarcerated Ruth, then 16 years old, her family, and about 110,000 fellow Japanese Americans in internment camps throughout the United States.

Ruth and her family were first sent to Santa Anita Race Track in Los Angeles, California, housed in horse stables for six months before being transferred to a barbed wire enclosed camp in Rohwer, Arkansas. After the war, lingering ill will against Japanese Americans prevented her from securing a teaching position and completing her degree. She decided to study art at Black Mountain College in North Carolina where she studied with painter Josef Albers, dancer Merce Cunningham and architect/inventor Buckminster Fuller and met her husband Albert Lanier. They decided to live in San Francisco because of its vibrant arts community and respect for diversity as the Laniers were an interracial couple. In Noe Valley, one of many neighborhoods in San Francisco, they raised their six children.

As a trustee of the San Francisco Fine Arts Museums, Ruth influenced the evolution of the new de Young museum and was a strong supporter of the museum's innovative architecture. More than 150 of her works are preserved at the de Young where her gorgeous hanging wire sculptures are permanently displayed.

Ruth's public works include such recognizable San Francisco landmarks as the Andrea Mermaid Fountain at Ghirardelli Square, the Hyatt on Union Square Fountain, the Buchanan Mall Fountains in Japan town, the Aurora Fountain at Bayside Plaza and the Garden of Remembrance at San Francisco State. Other great works in the San Francisco Bay Area include the Japanese American Internment Memorial in front of the Federal Building in San Jose, California.

Ruth will be forever remembered for her dedication to our children and her loving work to make our schools and City more joyful learning environments. Her legacy will live on in the young artists who attend Ruth Asawa School of the Arts which she founded. She also founded the Alvarado Arts Workshop which established the artist-in-residence model of public arts education. It is a national model. Ruth helped organize the Music, Dance, Drama and Science (MADDS) Festival, now an annual city-wide youth event sponsored by schools, civic leaders, neighborhood groups, and museums.

It was a great honor for me to be asked to say a few words at the celebration of Ruth's life on August 27th in San Francisco's beautiful Golden Gate Park. I spoke about our City's great love for Ruth and her tremendous impact on the Bay Area, and I learned about talents beyond Ruth's art, her love of gardening and sharing her bounty, most particularly her famous ginger garlic salad dressing, with her friends and loved ones. To Ruth's children Xavier, Aiko, Hudson, Addie and Paul, her ten grandchildren, and four great grandchildren I extend my deepest sympathy. I hope it is a comfort to them that Ruth will forever be remembered, not only for her work that so lovingly adorns our City, but also for her activism and leadership that showed us how to mentor generations to come.

CELEBRATING 30 YEARS OF FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN HENDER-SONVILLE, TENNESSEE AND TSURU, JAPAN

HON. DIANE BLACK

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 6, 2013

Mrs. BLACK. Mr. Speaker, this year, Hendersonville, Tennessee celebrates thirty years of friendship with its sister city, Tsuru, Japan. At a time when news headlines each day remind us of discord among other nations, the lasting relationship between these two cities stands as a reminder that when individuals and communities reach out across cultural boundaries, they can build meaningful bonds that stand the test of time.

First established on May 18, 1983 by former Hendersonville mayor T.W. Patterson and former Tsuru mayor Michimasa Tahabe, this relationship has truly lived up to its original purpose: "To serve as a perpetual symbol for mutual hospitality for the exchange of ideas and visitors between the cities of Tsuru and Hendersonville, and as a welcoming beacon to travelers from both communities."

The Tsuru-Hendersonville relationship has yielded many years of student exchange trips and delegation visits from parents, teachers, and community leaders that have enhanced the lives of our cities' people. Host families in both countries have generously opened up their homes to visitors and learned from their unique experiences.

Later this month, city officials, civic group representatives, local students, and members of the Tsuru-Hendersonville Friendship Committee will travel to Tsuru, Japan, to commemorate this special anniversary. As they join together with the Tsuru people to celebrate three decades of honor and goodwill, I join them in wishing for a prosperous future for both communities and many years of continued friendship.

HONORING THE ROCKWALL WOMEN'S LEAGUE FOR 40 YEARS OF SERVICEHON. RALPH M. HALL

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 6, 2013

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor an invaluable group of selfless women, the Rockwall Women's League, for their 40 years of charitable service in the Rockwall community.

This non-profit organization was chartered in Rockwall, Texas, on November 27, 1973, with a group of 50 women volunteers. The bold vision of these women now is being cultivated with over 125 active and associate members.

The Rockwall Women's League is committed to unite and promote the Rockwall area through community service and through the initiation and support of civic, educational, and social events. Funds for these service projects are raised largely through an annual Charity Ball, which has to-date raised almost 3 million dollars and has become a gala fundraiser due to generous community support.

The League contributes greatly to educational initiatives through its monthly programs, including serving over 35 charitable organizations and awarding scholarships to graduating seniors at all three Rockwall County high schools. Bolstering civic and social life, the Rockwall Women's League has graciously supported and initiated programs such as the Helping Hands Children's Clinic for low income children, arts in the Rockwall school system, and the annual tree lighting event, co-hosted with the city of Rockwall. These women also provide hands-on service in a myriad of ways from providing hot meals for senior citizens and volunteering in nursing homes, to selling pumpkins in the local pumpkin patch.

The work of this league has not only strengthened the community of Rockwall for the past 40 years, but has also developed enduring friendships among its members. Mr. Speaker, I commend the Rockwall Women's League for their dedicated service to their community and ask my colleagues to join me in honoring these remarkable women on the occasion of their 40th anniversary.

COMMENDING MARTIN COUNTY NORTH LITTLE LEAGUE ALL-STARS 2013 FLORIDA STATE LITTLE LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIPHON. PATRICK MURPHY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 6, 2013

Mr. MURPHY of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend the Martin County North Little League All-Stars and their accomplishment in winning the 2013 Florida State Little League Championship.

As a baseball player and former Little Leaguer myself, I am very proud to that my district is home to this year's state champions. Not only did these athletes compete to make it to the Florida State Tournament; but once there, they bested seven other teams, which is no easy feat. After four rounds of competition, Martin County North made it to the title game on July 29th where they defeated Sarasota American, in a 7-1 victory.

I would like to take this moment to also reflect on the inspiring nature of the team's manager, Mark Rodgers. Coach Rodgers successfully led his team to victory through hard work and dedication as well as a love of the game. He was able to instill in these twelve year-olds that with a supportive community, the goal of winning the Florida State Little League Championship was more than possible. He taught them "pride, passion, and purpose." As the mentors of my youth also did, Coach Rodgers laid the foundation in understanding how these are essential elements of success and how to always go after your dreams.

Mr. Speaker, I am privileged today to have this opportunity to recognize Coach Tom Galinis, Blaine Kilbreth, Zach Galinis, Cam Provines, Payton McIntosh, Hunter Wentworth, Tibur Rivero, Richie Pfluger, Wyatt Menendez, Jacob Rader, Dominick Thompson, Justin Altieri, Taylor Higgins, Marcus Mastellone, Coach Andrew Rodgers, and Manager Mark Rodgers on being the Sunshine State's 2013 Little League champions. I am proud that they represent my district and wish them continued success both on and off the field.
