

park, a wilderness area, a national forest, a Wild and Scenic River, a National Heritage Area or a National Conservation Area; construct a Bureau of Reclamation Water Recycling project; modify the Coastal Barrier Resources System; or remove property from the National Wildlife Refuge System. The House Natural Resources Committee routinely considers dozens of these types of bills each year.

It is also important to note that Congress has legislatively created more than 60 national wildlife refuges throughout the United States. In my own Congressional District, the Red River National Wildlife Refuge was established by an Act of Congress. In fact, including public hearings, Committee markups and action in both the House and the Senate, it took exactly six months to get this legislation to President Bill Clinton, who signed the bill into law on October 13, 2000. Even by the standards articulated by the Fish and Wildlife Service, this period of time demonstrated that the Congress can act swiftly when there is public support for the establishment of a specific refuge.

Under my bill, all new national wildlife refuges established after January 3, 2013 would require a Congressional authorization. This bill does not affect the existing 560 refuges, nor does it require that additions to these units obtain Congressional approval. This is a modest and commonsense solution. It is past time for the Congress to exercise its oversight responsibility before the Fish and Wildlife Service creates huge new financial burdens on taxpayers.

As the Chairman of the Natural Resources Subcommittee on Fisheries, Wildlife, Oceans and Insular Affairs, I can assure my colleagues that there is nothing inherently unique or urgent about the establishment of a new refuge that requires the Fish and Wildlife Service to unilaterally act on its own, while putting our taxpayers on the financial hook for billions in land acquisition costs.

I urge my colleagues to join in this important effort to protect the taxpayers of the United States by cosponsoring the National Wildlife Refuge Review Act.

IN HONOR OF TROOP 127

HON. MICHAEL G. FITZPATRICK

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 13, 2013

Mr. FITZPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the outstanding community service efforts of Boy Scout Troop 127 of the Riegelsville, Bucks County Council, Pennsylvania.

As a father of three boys who are involved in Scouting and as an Eagle Scout myself, I understand the principles and values that scouting has to offer. In 2012 alone, Troop 127 has accomplished a number of activities that embody that embody what it means to be a Scout.

Some notable examples of service in the last year include: Reaching out to help others during the hardship that took place after Hurricane Sandy by assisting the American Red Cross for two days at Palisades High School shelter. They honored their country by assisting with the Eagle Scout project of Brandon Youpa, a project that was two years in planning and resulted in the honoring of veterans both past and present within their community. They even worked to preserve the environment by cleaning up a staggering eight miles of the Delaware Canal.

The members of Troop 127 are prime examples of what it means to be a Boy Scout. They are conscious of country, the values of their country, those less fortunate than themselves, and of their faith. The members of Troop 127 have shown maturity and are valued members of our community. Becoming a Boy Scout bestows a great level of responsibility on the young men who are willing to take up Scouting's values. The community looks to the young men of Troop 127 as leaders now and in the years to come.

I sincerely hope that the scouts of Troop 127 continue down the challenging and rewarding path that the Boy Scouts has to offer. The Scouts commitment to the betterment of oneself and the pursuit of something greater are something any young man can benefit from. I applaud them on their service accomplishments this past year, extend my best wishes for their continued success and service.

TRIBUTE TO ROBERT L. CORBIN

HON. MICHAEL R. TURNER

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 13, 2013

Mr. TURNER of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I am honored to pay tribute to a respected community leader and a dear friend from my congressional district, Mr. Robert L. Corbin. He is part of our "Greatest Generation" who fought in the Second World War—an ordinary American who did extraordinary things to serve our country and protect the freedom we cherish today.

As a young man, Bob answered his country's call to duty, at a time when his fellow countrymen needed him the most. He enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1942, and was deployed to Europe, assigned to the 84th Infantry Division. Bob was a 22-year-old Army second lieutenant when he was captured by the Germans and sent to a POW camp for American officers in Poland. After escaping during a botched rescue attempt from the Stalag 13 POW camp, Bob and two other officers endured nine harsh winter nights on the run, to avoid recapture. He wrote a novel chronicling his experiences as a prisoner of war titled, "Captured! The POW Saga of Frank Battle." Looking back on this experience, Bob said: "I absolutely believe that a number of times God, or a divine being, was looking over our shoulders because the difference between life and death was whether we took the left trail in the woods or the right trail in the woods."

After his return home, Bob contributed generous amounts of his time and energy to better our community. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Otterbein College, and entered the food service industry. He became CEO of Foodcraft Management Company, and served as president of the Ohio Restaurant Association and the Miami Valley Restaurant Association. He served for 24 years in the Ohio State House of Representatives, from 1977 to 2001. As chair of both the Commerce Committee and the Labor and Finance Committee, Bob earned a reputation as a voice of reason and fairness.

After retiring from the legislature, Bob served a four-year term as a member of the Centerville City Council, where he applied his wisdom and guidance to help make the city a better place to live and raise a family. Bob's career in public service set an example for all of us who work to serve our communities and our nation. At age 90, he recently retired as a member of the Board of Trustees at Sinclair Community College. Bob and his wife Ede have been married for 62 years, and he is the father of two daughters, Lynn and Carol.

Bob Corbin is one of the most honorable men it has been my privilege to know. I ask my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to a truly outstanding citizen for his lifetime of service to our country and to the people of Ohio.

BOB ALLEN—A KTRK LEGENDHON. TED POE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 13, 2013

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, today I'm honored to recognize a Houston legend, Bob Allen who recently signed off from the sports desk at KTRK Channel 13 after nearly forty years. Bob's last broadcast was Thursday, January 17th after the Houston Texans' closed their electric 2012 season. The timing of his exit was no coincidence; he had high hopes of a Super bowl for the Texans just like the rest of us. Bob has brought sports into our homes for decades. His outstanding career at KTRK may have come to an end but for many of us Houston sports will always be synonymous with Bob Allen.

KTRK hired Bob as a weekend sportscaster all the way back in 1974, but his passion for sports and the news began long before that. Legend has it that when he was just ten years old, Bob took off on his bike from his West University house to the KTRK studios just to get a peek at the newsroom. In those days Guy Savage was the sportscaster. Young Bob was shown the exit that day, but little did they know that this bright eyed young boy would be the future face of sports in Houston.

After Bob joined KTRK it took just six months for him to be named sports director. And the rest is history. Bob has been in our living rooms through some of the greatest sports moments of the last half century; the Rockets championships in the '90s and the Love Ya blue oilers in the 70s just to name a few. I spent many nights after supper watching his sports casts after the Oilers and Astros games with my son Kurt. Bob has told the story of sports to generations of Houstonians. He has interviewed some of the greatest sports legends, including Nolan Ryan, Stan "the Man" Musial and George Foreman. Bob even tested out his acting skills with roles in the ABC TV movie Murder at the World Series in 1977, and another sports mystery thriller, Night Game, in '89. He played a sportscaster and an announcer for the Houston Astros, of course.

Bob has also given back to the Houston community in other ways through his charitable work with the Special Olympics and the Sunshine Kids, which helps children struggling with cancer. His commitment to service earned him recognition from the Special Olympics, who awarded him the Spirit of Special Olympics award.

Bob's departure from KTRK marks the end of an era for Houston but it also marks a new beginning for Bob. He dedicated forty years to a fantastic career in sports broadcasting. Now that this chapter is over, he's looking forward to pursuing new projects. He insists that he is resigning, not retiring. He won't stop, that's just the kind of guy he is. When asked about his future he said "I'll probably end up being busier than I was at 13." I don't doubt that one bit. He plans to start a media company that includes public speaking engagements and radio, and he will write a book about working on TV with some of the world's greatest athletes. Bob is a credit to the broadcasting profession and a credit to Texas. We will miss him in our homes but wish him well on his next adventure. Congratulations, Bob, on a fantastic career. And that's just the way it is.
