HONORING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF PARK TOOL

HON. BETTY MCCOLLUM

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2013

Ms. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to pay tribute to Park Tool in Oakdale, Minnesota, on the occasion of the company's 50th anniversary. Park Tool is a Minnesota success story, growing from a small family owned company to the world's leading manufacturer of bicycle tools exporting American made products around the globe.

Necessity breeds invention, and the need for good and reliable bicycle repair tools forged the beginnings of Park Tool. In 1963, two bike shop owners, Howard Hawkins and Art Engstrom, lacked adequate equipment to make repairs in their shop so they started inventing their own tools. Their creativity and innovation produced the tools that helped to transform the bicycle repair industry. One of their first inventions was a stand to allow easier access to complete repairs, which was awarded a patent in 1976. Park Tool quickly expanded, and many patents later, began building wheel truing stands, repair stands and consumer tools. By the early 1980's the retail shops that started the company were sold to concentrate on manufacturing tools. Park Tool continues to help define the industry and its success has led to the opening of its new factory and headquarters, which is opening this month in Oakdale, Minnesota.

It is fitting that Minnesota is home of Park Tool, because it is one of the most bike friendly states in the nation. The American Trails organization named Minnesota the "Best Trails State," because of our state's leadership in development of a major system of bike trails, paths and commuter routes on roads—not to mention our abundance of beautiful lakes, rivers and parks. As more Minnesotans and more Americans rely on bikes for transportation to work and for enjoyment, many in our community and across our state and country depend on Park Tool to produce the high quality tools that keep their bikes in top shape.

Park Tool is a company that shares its success by giving back to people and communities. The company has supported "Ride 2 Recovery" which helps veterans with cycling based rehabilitation programs, as well as with programs that promote safe and fun cycling around the United States. The "Earn-A-Bike" program and "Bike Shop at School" teaches students the mechanical fundamentals of bicycle assembly and repair while fostering environmental stewardship and healthy living. The company has also partnered with "Trips for Kids" which helps at-risk youth by organizing mountain bike rides in their 80 chapter communities around the United States, Canada, and Israel.

Mr. Speaker, it is my great pleasure to in honor the dedicated employees of Park Tool in celebration of 50 years of commitment to providing high quality tools and equipment for cyclists around the world.

ON SONJA NESBIT MOVING TO HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

HON. JIM McDERMOTT

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2013

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, today I would like to recognize one of the finest committee staff members to have worked for me, the Ways and Means Committee and the U.S. House of Representatives. Sonja Nesbit joined the House staff over 11 years ago and has made an enormous difference for millions of Americans since the day she arrived. Now she is moving on to the Department of Health and Human Services to continue her work on behalf of the nation's poor, and I want to thank her for her accomplishments, her ongoing dedication to this institution, and for her service to the American people.

In Congress Sonja was at the center of our efforts to restructure the national foster care system, a reform that has helped innumerable young people get a better shot at finding a good family and personal and professional success. Sonja also worked tirelessly on the creation of the home visitation program in the Affordable Care Act that promotes home visits for at-risk children.

Sonja is a leading expert in her field and is, really, the ideal public servant. She gave thoughtful advice and counsel, helping myself and other members do the right thing for the poor and needy in this country. She was patient, helpful, and always looking for policy that would reflect the values of justice and equality. This is what the American people need in a public servant and in congressional staff.

Now Sonja is moving on to work in the Department of Health and Human Services where she'll continue her work on making the country's social safety net just and strong.

We will all miss her. I congratulate Sonja on her new position, thank her for her good work, and wish her the best of luck at HHS.

FEAR THE RAVEN, SOMETHING TO RAVE ABOUT!

HON. JOHN P. SARBANES

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2013

Mr. SARBANES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to submit this poem on behalf of a constituent in my district honoring the Baltimore Ravens for their Super Bowl XLVII win.

FEAR THE RAVEN, SOMETHING TO RAVE ABOUT!

(By Albert Carey Caswell)

The . . . The Fire . . . The Unforgettable Fire!

When, hearts and souls, and bodies and minds, so meet for but one desire!

But, for one goal to so take them all higher! For no other team sport, has such passion and such fire!

Or so depends upon their Band of Brothers, to so fashion victory from within themselves to be so inspired!

Well, maybe when a great leader says he's going to retire!

Feel The Fire!

As a child a time ago, stepping out upon those fields of green as so . . .

As a dream few of us will know!

To play in The Super Bowl!

And to stand on that National stage, as all around you this war is waged!

Is but Something To Rave About!

For it was in those long hot days of summer, that this great bond was so formed as they encumbered!

As against all odds they fought on, young and old, the rookies and Pros . . .

As all around them, the smell of fear in the air stood close!

For only a few on opening day, in that uniform shall so be clothed!

As its competition at its very height, that which so makes their great hearts shine so bright!

And now as it all so comes down to this, 60 minutes, either heartache or bliss!

To wear that Super Bowl ring, and hold that Lombardi Trophy up high and sing!

"And shine bright like a diamond, shine bright like a diamond in the sky," with but tears in your eyes . . .

And to be one of football's aluminate, one of its highest of all society!

Is But Something To Rave About, as down upon you the confetti flies . . .

As you want to "scream and shout," and "let it all out," singing "oh we oh" we are Super Bowl Champs, now That's Something To Rave About!

For this is HARBAUGH, and this is WAR!

As it's Brother VS Brother as so for sure!

Going Coastal, East meets West!

Who Will Be The Best?

As it was but only a year ago, when in that end zone our dreams died so!

But, The Ravens took that memory . . . and built upon it and would not let go!

Something like "remember The Alamo"! UNFINISHED BUSINESS, YO . . . HUNT IT . . . HUNT IT!!!

But, the word on the street, was that Baltimore could not so compete!

Surely, Peyton would have his way . . . and Brady in the Super Bowl was meant to play!

And how could Baltimore stake a claim, and beat the 'Niners on this day?

But, this is a team of destiny and faith, whether it's Ray Ray or General Brigrance leading the way!

Or a guy up in Heaven named Art who was with them on every play . . .

And the Big "B" Bisciotti, because excellence is his way!

FEAR THE RAVENS . . .

IT'S JUDGEMENT DAY!

And now they were ready to make the 'Niners pay, and show em how the west was lost this day!

Prospecting for more Super Bowl gold, The Forty-Niners came into town looking for number 6 to hold, but the Steelers said woeeeee!

Armed with a Pistol O so profound, making even Dirty Harry say WOW!

And the Ravens, These Mighty Birds of Prey, with their Beastie Boys on defense leading the way!

That would even make Edgar Allen Poe, so shuttle and whence in his grave!

Led by their leader T4 Ray Ray with his Tell Tale Heart, instilling such fire and faith his work of art!

As Mr. Bisciotti said,

"'Niners you're going to Fear The Raven today!"

Just look at what my coaches, and front office put together, THEY!

The Wizard of Ozzie Neusome, he's real who's whosome!

Because, he knows how to choose 'em!

And Pollard who will put the collar on you every play!

And Suggs who likes you to mugs, and sizzles any one in his way!

And Ayanbadejo, who acts so crazed so!
