

The Texas Revolution proved the bonds of freedom are stronger than ethnicity, as many Tejanos sacrificed their lives for Texas' freedom at the battles of Gonzalez, Bexar, Goliad, the Alamo, and San Jacinto. The war was not between Anglos and Hispanics, it was a struggle between all Texans and the military dictatorship in Mexico City.

Texans and Tejanos knew then what we know now—freedom requires sacrifice. Texas culture places high honors on heroes willing to sacrifice their lives for a better life for their fellow man, and Texans are known around the world as an honorable people who respond to the call of duty.

In that spirit, I want to highlight the work by the San Jacinto Chapter of the Daughters of the Texas Republic, who made the preservation of the San Jacinto Battleground possible by petitioning the Legislature to purchase the acreage and by donating their treasury to complete the sale in 1900.

The San Jacinto Chapter of Daughters and the Texans Veterans Association did extraordinary work to ensure that the legacy lived on, and the importance of the park has only expanded since then.

I am very proud to have formerly represented the site of the Battle of San Jacinto commemorated by the San Jacinto Monument.

This park not only has the San Jacinto Monument to recognize the brave men that defeated the military dictator General Santa Anna, it also home to the Battleship Texas, which is a symbol of sacrifices in World War I and World War II.

With the understanding of where they came from, Texans and Americans will continue to respond to calls of service, thereby continuing their legacy of respect and admiration throughout the world.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF JOSEPH L. WYATT

HON. NANCY PELOSI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 19, 2013

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a great statesman, a great Democrat and a great American, Joseph L. Wyatt, Jr. who passed away on April 15, 2013, in Pasadena, California.

California Democratic Party Chairman John Burton put it best in describing Joe's essence and contribution, his commitment to our state and his work as the California Democratic Party Parliamentarian, our gratitude for his service and our fond memories of his extraordinary life, saying in a statement:

California Democrats lost one of the closest members of our Democratic family in California. Joe Wyatt, Jr. who served as our Party's parliamentarian since 1970 passed at the age of eighty-nine.

To know Joe was to know first and foremost a kind and wonderful human being. He was also a committed husband, father, grandfather, and Democratic activist.

Joe was a founder of the California Democratic Council (CDC), a federation of local volunteer Democratic clubs that helped rein-vigorate statewide Democratic politics in California and was instrumental in the election of Pat Brown as California governor in the election of 1958. He was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention on numerous occasions.

He was a committed activist in the truest sense of the word, tirelessly serving our state party and always offering sage and fair counsel on the rules and procedures needed to advance party business. For over 50 years he practiced trust and estate law for three law firms, most recently as Senior of Counsel to Morrison/Forster LLP, since 1995.

It was a privilege to know and work with such a deeply principled, humble, accomplished, and exemplary human being. All of us will always remember his signature bow-tie, his wonderful wit, his kind heart and unwavering spirit. His life has been a gift to all who knew him; his memory will be a blessing for all who remember him.

I only hope it is a comfort to his wife Marjorie, his sons Jonathan, Daniel and Lawrence, his daughter Linn, his daughter-in-law Tamara, and his grandchildren Jack and Taryn, that so many share in their grief at this sad time.

HONORING SEMIFINALISTS IN THE INTEL SCIENCE TALENT SEARCH

HON. STEVE ISRAEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 19, 2013

Mr. ISRAEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a number of talented and dedicated high school students from my Congressional District who were chosen to be Semifinalists in the Intel Science Talent Search (STS) as well as one who was named as a Finalist. These students are the future of our nation's research and I am so proud to recognize them today.

Mayuri Sridhar attends Kings Park High School in Kings Park, NY in my district and Intel has recognized her as a finalist in this year's competition. Mayuri is being recognized for her research project entitled "Computational Analysis of the DNA-Binding Mechanism of the p53 Tumor Suppressor and its Inactivation through the R249S Mutation." In March, Mayuri traveled to Washington D.C. to participate in the final round of the competition and compete for the top award of $100,000. While in the nation's capital, she was one of only forty finalists to display her work to the public as well as meet with notable American scientists. This extraordinary honor reflects Mayuri's commitment and dedication to her academic work and I know Mayuri will be successful in her future endeavors.

Additionally, I want to recognize the Intel Semifinalists that I have the honor to represent here in Congress. Long Island and Queens are fortunate to have so many top notch schools with dedicated teachers guiding these talented young students to success. The Semifinalists were selected from among more than 1,700 entrants to receive a $1,000 award for their outstanding research. In addition, their schools receive $1,000 to support further excellence in science and technology education. I am impressed not just by their scientific knowledge but also by their profound commitment to the scientific process and making discoveries that will help our country. The following names of the Intel Semifinalists represent the young students with bright futures ahead of them and the next generation of American innovation, science, and research:

Amanda Elyssa Ruiz of Bronx High School of Science; Puja Bansal, Rohan Goyal,

Tammy Jin, Jonathon Kim, Abhinav Patil, Robert Tannenbaum of Half Hollow Hills High School East; Deriam Chirinos, Menglu Dong, Julia Zhuang of John L. Miller Great Neck North High School; Yonatan David of North Shore Hebrew Academy; David Kim, Cyrus Zhou of William A. Shine Great Neck South High School; Jacob Gary Wax of Harborfields High School; Sonia Joshi, Samuel Lam, Brendan Liu, Michael Shen, Raymond Wu of Jericho Senior High School; Wesley Cox, Kenan Mutlu of Kings Park High School; Nick Fiocco of Manhasset High School; Meenakshi Krishna, Benjamin Isaac Pleat of Herricks High School; Jongyoon Lee, Carolyn Yao of Stuyvesant High School; James Shamul, Sunny Zheng Plainview-Old Bethpage John F. Kennedy High School; Drew Feldman, Minah Kim of Paul D. Schreiber High School; Arshia Aalami, Arvind Kumar, Ethan Levine, Alian Emil Sherman of Roslyn High School; Michelle Jiang Long, Jared Brandon Weiss of Syosset High School,

In closing, I again want to applaud the families, teachers and students that make all of these achievements possible. I commend you for all of your successes and I look forward to hearing more from all of you in the future. You will keep Americans globally competitive and at the forefront of innovation.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. GWEN MOORE

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 19, 2013

Ms. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I unexpectedly missed rollcall vote 110 on April 17, 2013. Had I been able to vote, I would have voted in favor of rollcall vote 110.

ACKNOWLEDGING COACH BOB SHAFFER'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE TRUCKEE HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL PROGRAM

HON. TOM McCLINTOCK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 19, 2013

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize High School Football Coach and legend Bob Shaffer for his tremendous contributions to the community of Truckee, the Truckee Football Program and the many players he has influenced over the years.

Since taking over the head coaching position in 1995, Coach Shaffer has had an overall record of 170 to 32, becoming the 3rd most winning football coach in the Nevada Interscholastic Activities Association history. Throughout his eighteen year career, Shaffer has led the Truckee High School Wolverines to win nine state titles, including back-to-back championships in the past four years.

Shaffer has set a standard for excellence on and off the field and has been a role model for his players, teaching them that hard work and perseverance are part of being a champion. A former player describes Shaffer's ability "to take many kids who didn't think they had what it takes to play football and make them believe they were champions."

The success of his football program is not only shown in the number of wins, but also in the great team of coaches he has assembled. These coaches help instill in their players lifelong skills for success with many graduating with high honors, playing college football, and becoming leaders in their communities.

Shaffer will spend his retirement from coaching watching his two youngest sons' college athletics and continuing to teach Physical Education at Truckee High School.

It is my privilege to rise today in recognition of Coach Shaffer's accomplishments in the continuation of the Truckee Football tradition.

A TRIBUTE TO PASTOR AND FIRST LADY BOBBY YOUNG

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 19, 2013

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and honor Pastor Bobby Young and First Lady Eva Young of the Mount Hebron Missionary Baptist Church in Des Moines, Iowa as the congregation celebrates the 11th

Pastoral Anniversary of the couple's driven and selfless leadership next month.

Pastor Young and his wife were both born in Batesville, Mississippi. The couple married in 1963 and began fulfilling their purpose in life as a team. Together, they moved to Iowa at just 19 years of age, started a family, and at age 30, Bobby accepted his call to the ministry, never looking back.

At Mount Hebron, Pastor and First Lady Young have immersed themselves in serving their congregation and local community. Pastor Young is involved with numerous initiatives to change lives for the better, including feeding programs and continuing education with teenagers in the area to decrease dropout rates and help forge stronger lives. Pastor Young's uncompromising commitment to his brothers and sisters is continually on display, often meeting with local leaders of all political persuasions to help find solutions to problems facing the community. Pastor Young is currently building his own house from the ground up, as he has also built up an entire spiritual community. It is his hands-on approach that has helped improve the lives of Iowans around him.

Much like her husband, First Lady Young plays an enormously important role in her church and community, and has touched countless lives through her work as an instructor and a mentor. A former teacher, Eva has taught a weekly children's Bible study open to any child for many years. She also uses her gifts as a leader to advocate for a safer world for others, working in the community to address problems facing women and help women receive relevant information and assistance. First Lady Young's all-inclusive approach to this work has brought together women of all ages and races to help strengthen the community.

So selfless is this couple that they are known to pay the bills of those who cannot afford it and feed those who cannot find food. Bobby and Eva are truly committed to helping their neighbors.

Throughout the past 11 years at Mount Hebron, Pastor and First Lady Young have provided immeasurable guidance and comfort to a grateful community. I am honored to represent this amazing couple, Mount Hebron Missionary Baptist Church, and the city of Des Moines in the United States Congress. I invite my colleagues in the House to join me in congratulating and thanking Pastor and First Lady Young for all they do, and I wish them a truly memorable Pastoral Anniversary.
