Over the years, Mr. Leonard has dedicated himself to countless charitable causes.

TRIBUTE TO THE TIBBITS OPERA HOUSE

HON. TIM WALBERG

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Mr. WALBERG. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Tibbits Opera House in Coldwater, Michigan, a cultural icon in my district that has excelled in arts and entertainment for 130 years. Having recently completed a stunning restoration of the building's facade, the community will be holding a celebration this weekend to dedicate the restoration and tell the story of the people that preserved it.

Built in 1882, Tibbits is the second oldest operating theater in Michigan. The 499 seat venue operates year round, enriching the area with professional and community theater programs, community events, concerts and youth theater productions. Strategically located on the primary thoroughfare between Chicago and Detroit, it has hosted many notable performers and acts over the years, ranging from P.T. Barnum and John Philip Sousa to Mickey Rooney and Jeff Daniels. From early vaudeville performances to a spell as a movie house, Tibbits has served as the cultural center of the area.

As early as the 1950s, locals recognized the need to safeguard this treasure for future generations and formed a group committed to the preservation of the theater. After falling into disrepair and facing the threat of demolition, a group raised funds to pay off owed taxes. Further updates and improvements have taken place over the years, the most impressive being the authentic restoration of the building's facade. Using photographic and field evidence, craftsmen meticulously restored the theater to its original French Second Empire design using locally selected materials. The effort has certainly paid off, earning a 2013 Governor's Award for Historic Preservation. But even more important than the accolades, the project ignited an enthusiasm among the residents, businesses and other area organizations, who gave of their time and finances to support the restoration. The renewed sense of pride displayed by the community has been apparent, and I'm heartened by their appreciation for the past and hard work to ensure its preservation for future generations.

Today, Tibbits Opera House continues to be a landmark that has drawn visitors to Coldwater for many generations and I suspect, Mr. Speaker, will continue to do so. With an annual attendance of nearly 30,000, there is rarely an evening when the stage is not in use. I commend my colleagues to take a trip to Coldwater if ever possible and enjoy a show, and I look forward to joining the Tibbits community at this weekend's festivities to celebrate this testament to preservation.

HONORING ROBERT EARL HOLDING

HON. MICHAEL K. SIMPSON

OF IDAHO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to take a moment today to recognize and honor Robert Earl Holding, a man who throughout his life influenced Idaho and the West significantly. He was a veteran, a civil engineer, a businessman, a husband of 64 years, and a father of three. He passed away on April 19th, at age 86, after a long and rewarding life.

Among his many accomplishments, Earl Holding turned a struggling motel into a hugely successful chain of ski resorts and hotels, and owned Sinclair Oil Corporation. He acquired Idaho's Sun Valley Resort, and turned it into a world-class destination and a pillar in Idaho. He also was a key figure in attracting the 2002 Winter Olympics to Salt Lake City. Most of all, however, he loved the West.

Perhaps his most positive impact in Idaho began in 1977 when he bought the Sun Valley ski resort in central Idaho. He invested millions of dollars into Sun Valley, making it one of the most famous ski resorts in the United States. Today Sun Valley remains one of the most popular destinations in Idaho and a first-class resort for all seasons.

Mr. Holding is a true example of the American dream, rising from the hardships of the Great Depression to become one of the most successful business people in the world. Although we have lost a famous entrepreneur, a family man, and an American, we won't forget Robert Earl Holding, nor his many contributions to Idaho and the West.

IN MEMORY OF KRYSTLE
CAMPBELL

HON. EDWARD J. MARKEY

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Mr. MARKEY. Mr. Speaker, Krystle Campbell, a resident of Arlington and graduate of Medford High School, lost her life at the Boston Marathon finish line doing what she loved to do: support other people. She was 29 years old, just a few weeks from her 30th birthday, with a lifetime of helping more people ahead of her.

Krystle's annual pilgrimage to the marathon finish represented who she was, says her family. When people needed support, Krystle was there. When her grandmother needed help following surgery, Krystle moved in with her for two years to help her recover.

Krystle's smile, hard work, and constant happy demeanor is what her family and friends will miss. But most of all, they will miss what she was always known for: being there when you needed her, being a joyful, active participant in the lives of her family and friends.

In our grief, we know that Krystle is still there, still cheering all of us on, still there in our hearts. Today we honor her memory and the joy she brought to so many lives.

THE OCCASION OF THE DEDICA-TION OF GABRIEL ZIMMERMAN
ROOM

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor the legacy of Gabriel "Gabe" Zimmerman, a young man devoted to community service, and the great democratic principles upon which our government stands.

Gabriel Zimmerman was murdered on January 8, 2011, struck down in the prime of life at the young age of 31. He was one of several persons killed or wounded during the mass shooting in Arizona that so seriously injured our colleague, former U.S. Congresswoman Gabby Giffords. Gabe Zimmerman is the first congressional staffer to be killed in the line of duty.

As the Community Outreach Director for Congresswoman Giffords, Gabe organized the "Congress at Your Corner," at a supermarket in Tucson, Arizona, where the mass shooting took place.

Colleagues remember him as someone who would go out of his way to help people in trouble, who attentively listened to the concerns of constituents, and who had a real gift for working with people.

I rise today not only to commemorate Gabe Zimmerman but to speak out against the scourge of gun violence our nation faces.

We have all been shaken by tragic events in recent days and years involving gun violence.

Whether these events occurred in Newtown, Connecticut; Aurora, Colorado; Tucson, Arizona; or on the streets of Chicago, gun violence is a critical issue that we need to effectively address immediately. Urban, suburban, or rural—no region or community is immune to danger of gun violence.

While the nation's attention has often been drawn toward some of the more high-profile events, the broader statistics are disturbing, demonstrating a real need to address how we protect our nation's children from gun violence. Consider these facts:

Every 30 minutes, a child or teenager in America dies or is injured by a gun.

Every 3 hours and 15 minutes, a child or teenager loses their life to a firearm.

In 2010, 82 children under 5 years of age lost their lives due to guns.

To put that in perspective, 58 law enforcement officers died in the line of duty that year.

In light of recent tragedies, the American people are demanding action. One thing we can do immediately to reduce the incidence of gun violence is to pass H.R. 65, the Child Gun Safety and Gun Access Prevention Act of 2013, legislation I introduced to protect our nation's children from gun violence and accidents.

H.R. 65 will prohibit persons under the age of 21 from possessing semiautomatic assault weapons or large capacity magazines.

Moreover, H.R. 65 increases penalties on individuals who knowingly transfer a handgun, ammunition, semiautomatic assault weapon, or large capacity ammunition feeding device to a person under age 21.

In addition, H.R. 65 will also prohibit importers, manufacturers, and dealers from transferring firearms without providing the purchaser with a gun storage or safety device.

Finally, H.R. 65 authorizes the U.S. Attorney General to provide grants to enable local law enforcement agencies to develop and sponsor gun safety classes for parents and children.

These provisions, and others, can go a long way toward making our homes, schools, and streets safer for children across this country.

Mr. Speaker, we may not be able to prevent every gun-related tragedy from occurring in the future, but we have a responsibility to implement reasonable standards that will prevent the loss of innocent lives.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF STEPHEN COATS

HON. JANICE D. SCHAKOWSKY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the life of Stephen Coats, a great friend, tremendous leader, and tireless champion for working people throughout the world.

From his years as political advocacy director for Bread for the World, where he fought global poverty, to his work at the US/Guatemala Education Project (US/GLEP) in the 1990s, where he worked to insert language to protect worker rights, Stephen's work emphasized our common humanity and international solidarity.

After US/GLEP broadened to become the U.S. Labor Education in the Americas Project
