

Welch and other friends vowed to “keep it lit” for Melson, meaning to exact retribution on rival neighborhoods they blamed for his death.

Welch was shot three more times, in both ankles, the buttocks and the hip. He declines to get into specifics but admits he has been involved in “shootouts.”

“I have a chance at a peaceful life; I just don’t want to die or go to jail when I am so close.”

Welch said that in Richmond’s toughest neighborhoods, violent deaths of relatives and friends, shootouts and close calls “hang over everything.”

THE FUTURE

The mere notion of a future is a far cry from where Welch has been.

“Eric was on his way to prison or death, for sure,” said Sam Vaughn, an Office of Neighborhood Safety neighborhood change agent who has worked closely with Welch. “Where he is now, about to go to college, is a miracle given what he’s been through.”

Welch spends little time in the old neighborhood, knowing he could lose it all in an instant.

He plans to attend Tallahassee Community College in Florida in the fall, and he hopes to transfer to Florida A&M University. But first, he’s on his way to the Capitol.

“I am really looking forward to a new start, a place where I can be by myself and focus and not worry about my past catching up with me,” Welch said. “I feel alone here, in my neighborhood. My friends are mostly dead or incarcerated.”

OUR UNCONSCIONABLE NATIONAL DEBT

HON. MIKE COFFMAN

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

Mr. COFFMAN. Mr. Speaker, on January 20, 2009, the day President Obama took office, the national debt was $10,626,877,048,913.08.

Today, it is $16,787,282,992,090.73. We’ve added $6,160,405,943,177.65 to our debt in 4 years. This is $6 trillion in debt our nation, our economy, and our children could have avoided with a balanced budget amendment.

SANDY MATA

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Sandy Mata for receiving the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. Sandy Mata is a 12th grader at Jefferson High School and received this award because her determination and hard work have allowed her to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Sandy Mata is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Sandy Mata for winning the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. I have no doubt she will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of her future accomplishments.

HONORING MINNESOTA STATE REPRESENTATIVE KAREN CLARK

HON. BETTY McCOLLUM

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

Ms. McCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, I had the honor of serving as a member of the Minnesota House of Representatives for eight years prior to being elected to Congress in 2000. One of my Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party colleagues from Minneapolis, State Rep. Karen Clark, was a constant and vocal champion for social justice, economic opportunity, environmental sustainability, and human rights. State Rep. Clark continues to serve in the Minnesota House, having just completed her thirty-third legislative session. Karen’s passion, determination, and commitment as a legislator were recently displayed for the entire nation to admire as she authored legislation and lead the push for marriage equality. That legislation passed the legislature, was signed into law, and now Minnesota is the twelfth state in the union to legalize same sex marriage.

Today, the White House is recognizing the achievements and contributions of ten openly lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) public officials from across the United States. One of those officials being honored is State Rep. Karen Clark, who will join a distinguished group of leaders named “Harvey Milk Champions of Change.” This is a tremendous honor for Karen and I want to extend my heartfelt congratulations on this well deserved recognition.

Throughout her career, Karen Clark has advocated and given voice to the issues and hopes of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender Minnesotans. As the longest serving openly lesbian state legislator in the country, Karen has battled against discrimination, hate-crimes, and intolerance faced by LGBT Americans, yet she has always conducted herself with a spirit of openness, kindness, and courage. Karen has dedicated three decades to improving the lives of LGBT Minnesotans, but also all families in her South Minneapolis district. From LGBT youth to new African or Latino immigrants, low-income families to Native American women, Karen Clark has always been on the side of making government work for people to improve their lives.

Again, I would like to extend my congratulations and the shared sense of pride many friends, colleagues, and constituents of Karen feel as she is recognized by President Obama for her leadership. State Rep. Karen Clark is truly a national leader for LGBT Americans and a champion for all Minnesotans.

TRIBUTE TO BENTON AND SANDI MARKS

HON. TODD ROKITA

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

Mr. ROKITA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an exceptional Hoosier couple, Mr. Benton and Mrs. Sandi Marks, who are being honored with the 2013 HAI-Life Distinguished Service Award by Hasten Hebrew Academy of Indianapolis. This honor is well-deserved because of their many years of philanthropic service to the Indianapolis Jewish community, as well as to the broader community.

Mr. Marks joined the Hasten Hebrew Academy Board of Directors in 1997 and has served in a number of leadership positions, including as president of the school. In the 1990s, he was president of the Bureau of Jewish Education and is the only person in the Indianapolis Jewish community to serve as president of both educational institutions. Mr. Marks also served as the president of the Jewish Federation and as Campaign Chair a record five times. He also was chairman of State of Israel Bonds for three years. Mr. Marks has served as a member of the Indiana Judicial Nominating Commission, and has donated his time locally to United Cerebral Palsy, Indiana Building Owners and Managers Association, and the Indiana Chapter of the Brown University National Secondary School Committee.

Mrs. Marks has devoted her life to education, serving on the Hasten Hebrew Academy Education Committee and as a board member of the school. She recently retired from Washington Township Schools but continues to serve the district as a school psychologist. She is a member of several women’s organizations in our community and works with the Great American Songbook Initiative at the Center for the Performing Arts in Carmel. Mrs. Marks is also a trusted friend and confidant of mine on education issues in my capacity as chairman of the Subcommittee on Early Childhood, Elementary, and Secondary Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Marks are wonderful entrepreneurs, philanthropists, and friends. I am honored to know them and look forward to our continued friendship. I know they will continue to serve as leaders in our community for many years to come.

IN RECOGNITION OF LUZERNE COUNTY HEAD START, INC. FOR DEDICATED AND SELFLESS SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY

HON. MATT CARTWRIGHT

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

Mr. CARTWRIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Luzerne County Head Start, Inc. for recently celebrating its 48th Anniversary on Monday, May 20, 2013. For nearly half a century, the program has been serving Luzerne County and Wyoming County by providing quality prekindergarten education to children who come from low-income families. Head Start teachers work with children, and their families, to help them set the foundations for success in school and in later life.

Head Start is unique in its comprehensive approach to the needs of children and families. Currently Luzerne County Head Start provides 1,037 children with early learning education. In addition to creating an environment for early academic development, Head Start also provides an environment for healthy early physical development. Children that attend Head Start receive health checkups, oral screenings and nutritious meals. The Head Start faculty also teaches their students about comprehensive health and nutrition, giving them the knowledge they will need to make the right choices about the food they eat.

Head Start also focuses on the whole family unit, not just the child. One primary goal of the program is to move preschool children and their families toward self-sufficiency. Parents are assisted with a wide range of family needs including housing and employment, as well as adult education. Head Start offers assistance to parents interested in obtaining a high school General Equivalency Diploma or other adult education and employment opportunities.

Head Start works with children at a critical learning age. The children begin to socialize with others, solve problems, and have other experiences that help them to become self-confident. I commend the Luzerne County Head Start program for their continuing service to the community. I thank them for being a valuable educational asset to the community these past 48 years, and I wish them all the best in the future.

ROSELINE MUGARUKA

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Roseline Mugaruka for receiving the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. Roseline Mugaruka is an 11th grader at Standley Lake High School and received this award because her determination and hard work have allowed her to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Roseline Mugaruka is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Roseline Mugaruka for winning the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. I have no doubt she will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of her future accomplishments.

PENNY FREDERICK RETIRES
AFTER 25+ YEARS OF PUBLIC SERVICE

HON. CHARLES W. BOUSTANY, JR.

OF LOUISIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

Mr. BOUSTANY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the service and career of Penny Angelle Frederick. For the last 25 years, she has served the people of South Louisiana for three Members of Congress as a dedicated Congressional staffer.

Penny began her career in public service working as a legislative assistant for Louisiana State Representative Harry L. Benoit. She then worked with U.S. Representatives James "Jimmy" Hayes and Chris John of South Louisiana. In January of 2005, Penny joined my staff as a constituent service representative. From Day One, Penny has been a great resource to the Third Congressional District of Louisiana. Her knowledge and guidance provided my office with a strong foundation to build on. Her personality and reputation have forged many bonds across South Louisiana. I will miss her ability to provide help and insight to constituents and most importantly, to me.

As Penny enters retirement, I would like to thank her for the work she's done as a public servant. However, I am positive her husband, Kendall, and daughters, Abbey and Lindsey, will be happy to have her around a little more. Penny, I wish you nothing but the best as you enter this next phase of your life and hope you know how grateful I am for all of your hard work over the course of these many years.

IN HONOR OF COLORADO STATE
SENATOR PAT STEADMAN

HON. DIANA DeGETTE

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

Ms. DeGETTE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Colorado State Senator Pat Steadman, who today was honored by the White House as a "Harvey Milk Champion of Change" for his commitment to equality and public service.

Pat has championed equality for LGBT Coloradans for over 20 years. While studying at the University of Colorado School of Law, Pat fought against ballot issues that targeted gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender communities. After law school, Pat worked to oppose Amendment 2 on the 1992 Colorado general election ballot. When that anti-gay amendment passed, Pat co-founded the non-profit organization that spearheaded the lawsuit to challenge the constitutionality of Amendment 2; the case eventually went all the way to the Supreme Court. This landmark case Romer v. Evans declared Amendment 2 unconstitutional and established the first major court precedent protecting the equal rights of LGBT Americans.

In 2009, Pat was selected to fill the vacant Colorado Senate seat in the 31st District. Since that time, he has worked hard to protect and defend the rights of all his constituents and continue his fight for equality. Last year, his partner of many years Dave Misner was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer and died in September after a brief battle. Dave was also a champion for equality, and I know he would have been so proud when this year Pat introduced for the third time the Colorado Civil Unions Act, which legalized civil unions for any two unmarried adults, regardless of gender. This landmark was signed into law by Governor John Hickenlooper on March 21, 2013. I was honored to be able to perform some of the first civil union ceremonies in Denver earlier this month. The joyful celebrations reinforced the fact that Pat has achieved extraordinary things that empower and inspire his fellow Coloradoans. And I know Dave would be even more proud of Pat today.

Yesterday, Pat visited the Jefferson Memorial in Washington, D.C. and shared online his favorite inscription at the Memorial. On the southeast interior panel, he was moved by an inscription from an 1816 letter by Jefferson to a friend that reads: "I am not an advocate for frequent changes in laws and constitutions. But laws and institutions must go hand in hand with the progress of the human mind. As that becomes more developed, more enlightened, as new discoveries are made, new truths discovered and manners and opinions change, with the change of circumstances, institutions must advance to keep pace with the times. We might as well require a man to wear still the coat which fitted him when a boy as civilized society to remain ever under the regimen of their barbarous ancestors."

Pat, your service to Colorado has embodied this quote, as you work to keep our laws and institutions moving hand in hand with progress. On behalf of a grateful state, thank you.

IN HONOR OF SECOND
LIEUTENANT LUTHER McILWAIN

HON. NIKI TSONGAS

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

Ms. TSONGAS. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to recognize and pay tribute to Second Lieutenant Luther McIlwain, of the United States Army Air Corps' famed Tuskegee Airmen. Mr. McIlwain recently passed away at the age of 91 and I seek to honor him for his dedicated service to the United States as an airman escorting bombers during World War II.

Lieutenant McIlwain was born in Blaine, South Carolina. His family moved to Lawrence, Massachusetts when he was two and he lived there until his graduation from Methuen High School in 1939. He attended college at Allen University in Columbia, South Carolina. Upon graduation, he sought to join the military in order to serve his country at a momentous time. On his first attempt, military recruiters ridiculed him for his desire to become a pilot. He was repeatedly told that he would not be able to fly because of his race. Undeterred, Luther enlisted in the Army Air Corps in 1943 and ultimately became an aviator with the famed Tuskegee Airmen.

The Tuskegee Airmen were a group of soldiers who continuously placed their country's needs above their own, often in the face of extreme adversity. Due to the segregation of the military at the time, the Tuskegee Airmen were routinely subjected to racial discrimination from their fellow service members and civilians alike. This never dissuaded their devotion to their duty or their Nation. They chose to pursue difficult training, knowing it would ultimately place them in direct confrontation with enemy combatants. Luther McIlwain proudly stood as a member of this elite unit.

Luther McIlwain fought in the skies above Europe and North Africa with bravery and distinction. He continued to place others first by serving as an instructor during the war, training nearly one thousand aviators in his unit.
