

So make a difference with it all,
and so ever carry with you the heart of a child!

The only thing Little about this man, is his great name which rhymes with Kittles like that candy man!

For he is The King!

The King of Impersonator's In Comedy, as this is so said without any hesitation so indeed!

And Arnold would say,
"you pump me up . . . Rich you complete me"!

Some say he's an Impersonator . . . a fake!
Yes he is, but he's the good kind of which is great!

And he's served more terms as President you see,

than anyone in history!

As a Man for all seasons,
for so many wonderful reasons he can claim!
He's so big he needs to have citizenship in two countries,
just to maintain!

And every President but so remembers his name!

Rich, one of the giants of Hollywood, and him and Frank did it their way the same!

So President Obama,
if in the White House there is any drama and you need help!

Call him up,
an he'll come over in his Honda, and get you some results!

Born a Canadian, one America's greatest friends, as one of America's greatest import's for years he would stand!

And even better now my friend,
we are all so proud to so call him an true
AMERICAN!

And if Elvis was here today he'd say,
"Thank you, thank you very much . . .
for all of those GI's you took home on all those holidays that you so touched"

He's on so many Walks of Fame, you'd have to walk around and around the world,

and back again just to so see all of his names!

But his greatest love,
his wife Marie who passed away . . .
and he has founded a foundation all in her name for what she gave!

And one day up in Heaven him and her,
and Jimmy Stewart and Harvey and Ron will all be together again!

The Rich and Marie Foundation was so founded,

to so help children and the homeless and animals in every way!

But perhaps his greatest love, is for all our Men and Women of the Armed Forces he holds so very high above!

As over the years with Bob Hope here, into harms way He and Rich would so appear!

And in hospital beds,
across the country, has so said to them what must be said!

Making them smile,
and so raise their spirits and lift their heads!
Bringing tears to all of our wounded women and men who deploy!

And that is why one thing is so,
he's GOT TO BE MR. USO!

And I would give you a long list of all the people that he can so impersonate, but you need to be home for Christmas with your loved ones they can't wait!

Rich In Patriotism,
that really so describes him to a T,
because he's one fine Yankee Doodle Dandy!
But the one thing about this man that which you can not so impersonate, is but his huge heart inside of him which is so very warm and great!

And if Ronald were here today,
he'd say, "well there you go again Rich, you are a great American in every way"!

Make them laugh!

Make them smile!

For we will only be here for just awhile!

Rich In Laughter,
don't you so wish the world could all so be the while?

THANKING JAMES P. D. FLEET II FOR HIS SERVICE TO THE U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

HON. ROBERT A. BRADY

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

Mr. BRADY of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the entire House of Representatives, today I pay tribute to James Fleet, the Democratic Staff Director of the Committee on House Administration. Jamie, as he is known by friends and colleagues, has served in this role since 2009, and his impact has been felt by every Member, staffer, and visitor to the House.

Jamie has been responsible for coordinating and overseeing the back-office operations of the House, including human resources, finance, technology, security and legislative institutions such as the Library of Congress, Government Printing Office, Architect of the Capitol and Officers of the House, as well as the Smithsonian Institution.

Jamie has played a critical role in the Committee's oversight of federal elections, including such pertinent issues as campaign finance, voter registration, military and overseas voting, voter identification, and preventing voter suppression. His leadership was instrumental in the House's passage of the DISCLOSE Act, requiring full disclosure of political contributions.

Jamie's life in politics began at the age of 18, when he waged a successful write-in campaign to serve on the Gettysburg Borough Council. He went on to work for Pennsylvania Governor Ed Rendell. He formed his own successful campaign consulting firm, providing guidance for both state and national campaigns. He also served as a Senior Advisor to City of Philadelphia Controller Jonathan Sidel.

While Jamie should be proud of all of his accomplishments, they pale in comparison to the pride for his young daughter Rory.

Jamie will be missed throughout the institution. It has been a pleasure to work with him for the last seven years. Please join me in commending his outstanding service and wishing him continued success as he takes on new challenges in the Senate.

RECOGNIZING THE PRINCE WIL- LIAM COUNTY VOLUNTEERS FOR MOTHERS AGAINST DRUNK DRIVING

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

Mr. CONNOLLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Prince William County volunteers for Mothers Against Drunk Driving.

Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) is the largest nonprofit working to protect families from drunk driving and underage drinking. MADD volunteers in Prince William County, Virginia have increased public awareness of the dangers of drunk driving and the assistance families need to persevere through such tragedies. Volunteers in the county organize annual programs and initiatives in tribute to local victims and survivors. To establish a safer future for all, MADD volunteers campaign to eliminate drunk driving, host the PowerTalk21™, the national day for parents to talk with their kids about alcohol and provide literature to area residents and drivers. These volunteers work tirelessly to prevent families from experiencing the pain of losing a loved one to drunk driving.

It is my honor to enter into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD the names of the Prince William County volunteers for Mothers Against Drunk Driving: Laura Dawson, Debbie Sausville.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in commending the Prince William County volunteers for Mothers Against Drunk Driving for their service and in thanking them for their dedication to ending drunk driving. These volunteers provide education, advocacy, and victim assistance to reduce the painful impact drunk driving has on our community.

OUR UNCONSCIONABLE NATIONAL DEBT

HON. MIKE COFFMAN

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

Mr. COFFMAN. Mr. Speaker, on January 20, 2009, the day President Obama took office, the national debt was $10,626,877,048,913.08.

Today, it is $16,738,602,543,527.17. We've added $6,111,725,494,614.09 to our debt in 4.5 years. This is $6 trillion in debt our nation, our economy, and our children could have avoided with a balanced budget amendment.

THE OCCASION OF THE RETIRE- MENT OF CARLA R. HULTBERG

HON. JOHN D. DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, today, Wednesday, June 24, 2013, I, along with my good friend Congressman ELIJAH E. CUMMINGS, the Ranking Member of the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, would like to honor the contributions of Carla R. Hultberg on the occasion of her retirement from the House of Representatives after more than 24 years of exemplary service to Congress and the nation.

Carla began her career in the House of Representatives in 1989 as Assistant Clerk for the Committee on Energy and Commerce, helping to implement a demanding legislative agenda set by then-Chairman JOHN DINGELL.

In 1995, after receiving recognition for her exceptional work, Carla was asked to begin serving in two roles, conducting the Committee's exacting clerking responsibilities while also incorporating new online technologies that had never been used before on Capitol Hill.

In 2007, Carla was promoted to Deputy Clerk of Technology and Administration and supervised a team of staffers managing and maintaining the office's networks and equipment and representing the Committee's administrative interests before the full House.

In 2009, Carla took on perhaps her most significant challenge when she was promoted to Chief Clerk of the Oversight Committee under then-Chairman Edolphus Towns, where she helped build a new majority office from the ground up and took the lead on all Committee operations.

For the past three years, Carla has served as Chief Clerk for the minority staff of the Oversight Committee under Ranking Member ELIJAH E. CUMMINGS, managing all legislative and investigative records, all clerking responsibilities, and all administrative and personnel operations.

Throughout her career, Carla has been an anchor for Committee operations, and she has never sought credit or attention, although it is most certainly due.

Carla is defined by her dedication, work ethic, and selflessness. She is the type of staffer that every Member of Congress seeks—and desperately wants to keep.

Carla has touched the lives of countless Members of Congress who rely on her, congressional staffers who look up to her, and members of the American public whom she has served for more than two decades.

Author Marianne Williamson said: "Nothing liberates our greatness like the desire to help, the desire to serve."

No one embodies this quote better than Carla Hultberg. She has been a true servant of the American public, and she will be missed dearly in the halls of Congress.

RECOGNIZING THE VOLUNTEERS FOR THE MAKE A CHANGE GANG TATTOO REMOVAL PROGRAM

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

Mr. CONNOLLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the volunteers for the Make a Change Gang Tattoo Removal Program.

The Make a Change (M.A.C.) Gang Tattoo Removal Program is a collaborative effort by the Prince William Area Gang Response Intervention Team, the Prince William County Bar Foundation, Inc. and the Greater Prince William Community Health Center. The program provides free removal of gang tattoos for young adults who would like to leave gang life and remove all visible remnants of that life through tattoo removal. The names and organizations that are mentioned below have provided service to the M.A.C. Program, and helped members of the community who seek a new start at a life free from gang affiliation.

As former Chairman of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, I was proud to lead efforts to reduce gang involvement and violence.

Through the creation of the Northern Virginia Regional Gang Task Force, we were able to implement a number of initiatives including tattoo removal. These initiatives resulted in a significant reduction in gang activity in Fairfax County. Since being elected to Congress, I have continued to support efforts to address gang violence and joined with several of my colleagues to provide additional funding to the Task Force.

It is my honor to enter into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD the names of the volunteers for the Make a Change (M.A.C.) Gang Tattoo Removal Program: Amir Bajoghli, MD; Jane Keady, RN; Saeed Marefat, MD; Judy Merring, RN; Carol Shapiro, MD.

Additionally, I would like to enter into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD the names of the following organizations that have collaborated with the Make a Change (M.A.C.) Gang Tattoo Removal Program: Prince William Area Gang Response Intervention Team, Prince William County Bar Foundation, Greater Prince William Community Health Center, Sentara Northern Virginia Medical Center, Novant Health Prince William Medical Center.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in commending and thanking the volunteers for the Make a Change Gang Tattoo Removal Program. These volunteers have worked diligently to integrate former gang members who would genuinely like to follow a more productive and fulfilling path in life.

THANKING JAMIE P.D. FLEET, II
FOR HIS SERVICE TO THE U.S.
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

HON. JUAN VARGAS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 26, 2013

Mr. VARGAS. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the U.S. House of Representatives, today I pay tribute to Mr. Jamie P.D. Fleet, II, Democratic Staff Director for the Committee on House Administration. In this role, Mr. Fleet is responsible for coordinating and overseeing the operations of the House, including human resources, finance, technology, security, and other areas of operations. His guidance, mentorship, and leadership have been invaluable assets to his staff and colleagues, and to all Congressional offices.

The Committee provides oversight of the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution, Government Printing Office, and the appointed House Officers including the Clerk of the House, Sergeant at Arms and Chief Administrative Officer, Inspector General. Mr. Fleet played a central role in the oversight of federal elections, which is one of the most important responsibilities of the Committee. During the 111th Congress, the Committee, under Mr. Fleet's management, reviewed issues pertaining to voter registration, guidelines, military and overseas voting, use of technology in facilitating expanded voting, robocalls and other campaign outreach tools.

Mr. Fleet's introduction into the political arena was at the age of 18, when he waged a successful write-in campaign and was elected to the Gettysburg Borough Council. He
