

“Islam” and “jihad” and “radical.” These were words used commonly in the 9/11 report. But since then, since we had a new President and new regime and new Justice Department under Attorney General Eric Holder, and since the FBI had partnered with CAIR, one of the two known, as the Federal Court in Dallas and in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals had said, the two largest Muslim Brotherhood front organizations, CAIR, the Council of American-Islamic Relations, and ISNA, the Islamic Society in North America, those are the two largest front organizations for Muslim Brotherhood, and this administration had embraced them and responds to them regularly and has the president of ISNA to the White House and even to the State Department and gets his input on things of importance.

So we have Muslim Brotherhood front organization members leading, guiding, directing this administration. They kept telling the President apparently, from what we’ve seen, because certainly that’s what the President and Secretary of State Clinton said, hey, they don’t dislike the administration, don’t watch them burn the President in effigy, no, they love him, but it’s just they’re mad about a video. Or they’re mad about perceptions of the U.S. They love our President.

Well, read the polls overseas and you’ll find out that’s not the case.

But for those who say: Look, the lesson from Boston ought to be that we need to rush through at least 11 million—some think it may be as high as 20 million—people who are in this country legally—or illegally and make them legal as quickly as possible because that will allow us a complete and thorough report on these people, but I would only submit, if the FBI is still using the purged lexicon where they can’t talk about jihad or can’t talk about all of the things that were removed from their training manuals and FBI agents were told they can’t use anymore, how do you go question a proponent of killing Americans, a proponent of radical jihadist jihad without talking about jihad, without talking about the words that radical Islamists use?

That must have been quite an interrogation of the now-deceased Tamerlan since they couldn’t use the words that would have told him what he really believed in. And now, FBI agents who are so overworked they couldn’t even do a proper investigation of a guy after Russia gives them a heads-up and gives them information, and now the solution, we’re told, is to bring in 11 million more, rush them by the FBI, and then we’ll know whether they’re terrorists? You think?

□ 2130

Or are we going to come down here and repeatedly have to express truthfully and honestly how our heart breaks for Americans that were killed because we never learned our lesson, because we had people that thought, what difference does it make?

America deserves better. We have a pledge that we take to protect this country, this blessed country, from all enemies, foreign and domestic; and I hope and pray we’ll begin to better live up to that oath.

At the same time as I pray and mourn for those who’ve lost, who are suffering, it is my prayer that God Almighty will wrap His protective hands around this country, and that this country will give the Good Lord reason to do so.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.
