The Clerk read as follows:

Page 2, line 17, after the dollar amount, insert "(reduced by $3,000,000)".

Page 37, line 7, after the dollar amount, insert "(increased by $7,500,000)".

Page 39, line 21, after the dollar amount, insert "(increased by $7,500,000)".

Page 49, line 19, after the dollar amount, insert "(increased by $2,500,000)".

Mr. MURPHY of Florida (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to suspend the reading.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. MURPHY of Florida. Mr. Speaker, this is the final amendment to the bill, which will not kill the bill or send it back to committee. If adopted, the bill will be amended and immediately proceed to final passage.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank Chairman CARTER and Ranking Member PRICE for working together in a truly bipartisan manner on the underlying legislation. With this bill, we have shown that we can put partisanship aside and do what's right for the American people—providing the necessary funding to the Department of Homeland Security to keep our Nation safe from attacks as well as responding to national disasters. But just as we have the responsibility to support the important work that Homeland Security does, we also have the responsibility to make sure we are spending smartly by allocating funds where they are most needed.

After witnessing the tragedies caused by the recent tornado in Moore, Oklahoma, wildfires in California and New Mexico, and the Northeast still recovering from Superstorm Sandy, we are reminded that disasters can strike in any community. Having lived in Florida my entire life, I have experienced firsthand the impact these disasters can have, especially when local and State governments are not on the same page as the Federal Government in adequately preparing for and responding to extreme weather.

As we debate today, Florida and the eastern coast is preparing to deal with the potentially devastating effects of Tropical Storm Andrea. With the start of what is predicted to be an active tornado and hurricane season, it is especially important for Congress to act. That is why this week I announced the formation of a bipartisan Disaster Relief Caucus to work toward improving the effectiveness of disaster preparedness and response efforts. It is vital that we work to make disaster preparedness efforts more efficient across all levels of government.

My amendment would take $2.5 million from the Department's administrative operating expenses to put towards the Pre-Disaster Mitigation program. This important program will assist State and local governments in better preparing for natural disasters, saving American lives and communities. Furthermore, better preparedness efforts reduce the costs of disaster response and cleanup efforts, ultimately saving American taxpayer dollars.

Additionally, with less than 2 months having passed since the tragedy of the bombings at the Boston Marathon, we must also recommit ourselves to funding antiterrorism efforts. My amendment would provide a 5 percent increase in funding to train emergency responders on the Federal, State, and local level so they can be better prepared to prevent and respond to domestic attacks. Again, this funding is actually fully offset from the Department's administrative operating expenses.

My amendment should have the full support of the House, and I once again want to point out that it will not kill the underlying legislation. It would simply shift spending from administrative operations to invest in natural disaster preparedness and antiterrorism efforts. As we continue to tighten our belts in Washington, I think we can all agree that these programs are a more vital use of resources than administrative expenses.

Natural disasters impact all Americans, as do acts of terrorism. These are two areas that should never get caught up in partisan bickering. We must stand united to prevent future tragedies caused by both natural disasters and acts of terrorism, which know no party affiliation. Anyone who supports the underlying legislation has no reason not to also support this amendment to spend smarter to better protect our Nation.

Mr. Speaker, my amendment is an opportunity to show the American people that Congress is willing to work together to put the safety and well-being of the American people first. I hope to see the same bipartisan support for my amendment as we have seen for the underlying legislation. I urge my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to vote in support of this amendment.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. CARTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Texas is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. CARTER. Mr. Speaker, this is a good bill. It's a strong bill. This bill focuses on securing the homeland, protecting our citizens against terrorist acts like the one that we experienced in Boston, and we've talked about it for the last 3 days.

Mr. Speaker, this motion is unnecessary. This bill specifically addresses the events in Boston by the following:

Adding an additional 1,600 CBP officers, increasing the funding for watch-listing for the 3rd year in a row, increasing visa enforcement; increasing first responder grants by $400 million for a total of $2.5 billion—more than adequate funding to help equip and train first responders, and doubling the amount for bomb prevention. And the bill already has more than $30 million in pre-disaster mitigation grants.

This bill was constructed in a bipartisan fashion, garnering unanimous support at the subcommittee and full committee levels, and has earned praise from both sides of the aisle and here on the House floor.

This bill is not contentious. It fulfills one of the most basic duties of the Members of Congress: keeping our Nation safe.

Let's not focus on politics today. Let's focus on constitutional responsibility to provide for the safety for all who live in our wonderful country.

Mr. Speaker, it's time to apply the lessons learned from recent terrorist attacks, reject this flawed motion, and vote on this important bill. Vote "yes" on the important bill.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. MURPHY of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

NOT VOTING—7

Becerra	McCarthy (NY)	Whitfield
Campbell	Pittenger
Conyers	Thompson (CA)

□ 1112

Ms. BROWNLEY of California and Ms. SHEA-PORTER changed their vote from "yea" to "nay."

Mr. NEUGEBAUER changed his vote from "nay" to "yea."

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated against:

Mr. CONYERS. Mr. Speaker, I was absent for rollcall vote 211, as I had stepped away from the House Floor momentarily. If I had been present for this vote, on final passage of H.R. 2217, Department of Homeland Security Appropriations Act of 2014, I would have voted "nay."

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 211, I inadvertently voted "aye" when I intended to vote "no" on final passage of H.R. 2217, the Department of Homeland Security Appropriations Act.

The addition of the Amendment to H.R. 2217 offered by Mr. KING altered the true intent of the bill. Mr. KING's Amendment would prohibit the use of prosecutorial discretion by Immigration and Customs Enforcement, preventing Immigration and Customs Enforcement from focusing its limited enforcement resources on those who pose a real threat to public safety and national security.

Mr. BECERRA. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained and missed rollcall votes 207, 208, 209, 210 and 211. If present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall 207, "no" on rollcall 208, "no" on rollcall 209, "yea" on rollcall 210, and "no" on rollcall 211.

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF H.R. 1249

Mrs. McMORRIS RODGERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. BLUMENAUER) be removed as a cosponsor from H.R. 1249.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RADEL). Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Washington?

There was no objection.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. HOYER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, before yielding to my friend for next week's schedule, I would like to join, I know, with all of our colleagues in wishing him a happy birthday. It is the majority leader's birthday today, and because I don't want him to retaliate, I'm not going to mention which birthday it is, but I want to congratulate him and wish him the very best. We'll have a birthday colloquy today.

I thank him for his leadership, and I yield to him to explain our schedule for the week to come.

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman, my friend from Maryland, for those kind birthday wishes.

Yes, it is my 50th birthday. I've been saying all day that my wife, Diana, and I are empty nesters now, so it's about time I'm 50. But I do thank the gentleman. Mr. Speaker, I would tell the gentleman that I'll be glad to take him up on a kinder and gentler colloquy for the birthday.

Mr. Speaker, on Monday, the House will meet in pro forma session at 3 p.m., and no votes are expected. On Tuesday, the House will meet at noon for morning hour and at 2 p.m. for legislative business. Votes will be postponed until 6:30 p.m. On Wednesday and Thursday, the House will meet at 10 a.m. for morning hour and at noon for legislative business. On Friday, the House will meet at 9 a.m. for legislative business. Last votes of the week are expected no later than 3 p.m.
