“(B) be the equivalent of a nonresident insurance producer license for purposes of authorizing the insurance producer to engage in the activities described in subparagraph (A) in any State where the member pays the licensing fee; and

“(C) be the equivalent of a nonresident insurance producer license for the purpose of subjecting an insurance producer to all laws, regulations, provisions or other action of any State concerning revocation, suspension, or other enforcement action related to the ability of a member to engage in any activity within the scope of authority granted under this subsection and to all State laws, regulations, provisions, and actions preserved under paragraph (5).

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Texas (Mr. NEUGEBAUER) and the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. DAVID SCOTT) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. NEUGEBAUER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and submit extraneous materials for the RECORD on H.R. 1155, as amended, currently under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

Mr. NEUGEBAUER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Thank you for the opportunity to speak on this important piece of insurance regulatory reform legislation today.

The most serious regulatory challenges facing insurance agents and brokers are redundant, costly, and sometimes contradictory requirements that arise when they seek licenses on a multistate basis. It has become clear that the main cause of these problems is the failure of many States to issue licenses on a truly reciprocal basis.

On average, multistate agents sell insurance in eight States. That means eight different applications, eight different procedures for admittance, eight separate background checks, and a multitude of inconsistent standards and duplicative processes. These requirements are not only costly and inefficient, but they hinder the ability of insurance agents and brokers to effectively address the needs of their consumers.

Congress recognized the need to reform the insurance industry's licensing system back in 1999 when it incorporated the National Association of Registered Agents and Brokers subtitle into the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act did not provide for the immediate establishment of NARAB and instead included a series of provisions to encourage States to simplify the licensing process.

Unfortunately, the original NARAB that was passed in 1999 did not work. National nonresident licensing reciprocity has not been achieved, and the burden on insurance agents and brokers and the impact this burden directly has on consumers remains. Despite the best efforts of many stakeholders at making State-level improvements, it has become clear that true licensing reciprocity can be achieved only through additional congressional action.

The bill we are considering today, H.R. 1155, the NARAB Reform Act—or as it is commonly referred, NARAB II—modifies the original NARAB provisions in Gramm-Leach-Bliley and immediately establishes NARAB as a private, nonprofit entity managed by a board composed of eight insurance regulators and five marketplace representatives. NARAB II provides for nonresident insurance agent and broker licensing while preserving the rights of States to supervise and discipline insurance agents and brokers. Overall, this legislation would benefit policyholders by increasing marketplace competition and consumer choice, and by enabling insurance producers to more quickly and responsibly serve the needs of their consumers.

I'd like to thank my colleague from Georgia (Mr. DAVID SCOTT) who introduced this piece of legislation with me earlier this year.

This bill has almost 90 bipartisan cosponsors and is supported by groups such as the Independent Insurance Agents and Brokers of America, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors, the Council of Insurance Agents and Brokers, and major insurance company trades. The legislation has passed this Chamber by voice vote twice before, and the Senate Banking Committee unanimously approved an identical companion legislation.

I ask that my colleagues support this practical and needed insurance regulatory reform by voting for the NARAB Reform Act.

With that, I reserve the balance of my time.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

Washington, DC, September 9, 2013.

Hon. JEB HENSARLING,

Chairman, Committee on Financial Services, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN HENSARLING, I am writing concerning H.R. 1155, the “National Association of Registered Agents and Brokers Reform Act,” which was referred to your Committee.

As you know, H.R. 1155, contains provisions within the Committee on the Judiciary's Rule X jurisdiction. As a result of your having consulted with the Committee and in order to expedite the House's consideration of H.R. 1155, the Committee on the Judiciary will not assert its jurisdictional claim over this bill by seeking a sequential referral. However, this is conditional on our mutual understanding and agreement that doing so will in no way diminish or alter the jurisdiction of the Committee on the Judiciary with respect to the appointment of conferees or to any future jurisdictional claim over the subject matters contained in the bill or similar legislation.

I would appreciate your response to this letter confirming this understanding, and would request that you include a copy of this letter and your response in the Congressional Record during the floor consideration of this bill. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

BOB GOODLATTE
Chairman.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SERVICES,

Washington, DC, September 9, 2013.

Hon. BOB GOODLATTE,

Chairman, Committee on the Judiciary, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN GOODLATTE: Thank you for your letter of even date herewith regarding

H.R. 1155, the National Association of Registered Agents and Brokers Reform Act.

I am most appreciative of your decision not to assert jurisdiction over H.R. 1155 so that it may be considered under suspension of the Rules this week on the House floor. I acknowledge that although you are waiving formal consideration of the bill, the Committee on the Judiciary is in no way waiving its Rule X jurisdiction over any subject matter contained in the bill. In addition, if a conference is necessary on this legislation, I will support any request that your committee be represented therein.

Finally, I shall be pleased to include your letter and this letter in the Congressional Record during floor consideration of H.R. 1155.

Sincerely,

JEB HENSARLING,
Chairman.

Mr. DAVID SCOTT of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

First of all, Mr. Speaker, I want to just say I join many people across this Nation and around the world who are prayerful and who are hopeful that this breakthrough—this window of opportunity that we have dealing with the Syrian situation—works.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I can't tell you what a great joy this is for me. I have worked on this bill for the past 6 years. We have been dealing with many areas to fix our financial system to make it work. We have a very complex and complicated financial system. There is no industry that has the challenges that are being faced today as the insurance industry.

And the economy, its demands are rapidly changing because of advances in technology, mobility, the narrowing and making the world much smaller.

Essentially, what we have here is a long overdue fix to help these small business owners, because that's what our insurance agents are. H.R. 1155, the National Association of Registered Agents and Brokers Reform Act, or what we affectionately call NARAB, as my distinguished colleague from Texas (Mr. NEUGEBAUER) has just stated, is very dear to us.

Many of us in the Financial Services Committee have spent years toiling on this issue. So have many in the Senate. As my colleague, Mr. NEUGEBAUER has said, we passed one House in 1999, but look what has happened. We've had terrorist strikes. We've had all kinds of things that have happened. We've had an economy almost on the verge of depression. Standing there in the middle of this storm dealing with the wants and the needs of the American people in all the areas—property damage, health, car insurance, you name it—has been our agents.

I want to just briefly take you through exactly what we are proposing here. H.R. 1155, first of all, creates a streamlined agent and broker licensing system. That's very important. That strengthens the competitive insurance market while maintaining those ever important consumer protection items.

It strengthens the business, it strengthens the competitive insurance market—it doesn't weaken it—and at the same time strengthens and protects our consumers.

NARAB will allow agents and brokers to more efficiently operate on a multistate basis. Now, that's so important. Business is no longer conducted around the corner or down the street or just in the next town; it is all over the country. And our insurance agents and brokers need the flexibility and the smoothness in our system to be able to negotiate in the best interest of not just the insurance industry but, most importantly, for the benefit of consumers who move from State to State to city to city.

Next, NARAB would allow our agents and brokers to also address the increasing concern and greater importance of our technological and mobile-connected world. As we know, we are all connected.

Next, our NARAB Reform Act will be a one-stop licensing compliance mechanism for insurance agents and brokers operating out of their home States. Each will have a home State. But NARAB will work as a one-place clearinghouse to satisfy that, while at the same time preserving the longstanding authority of States to supervise and discipline the insurance producers.

Nothing is being taken from State control in this bill. As a matter of fact, it strengthens State controls. That is why all of the State insurance commissioners support this legislation.

Through a nonprofit board for insurance agents and brokers to obtain approval to operate on a multistate basis, the NARAB Reform Act deals only with marketplace entry and will not impact the day-to-day State regulation of insurance agencies. We sat down, we brought the State insurance agencies in and the commissioners to work with us so that we could have a joint understanding on this bill.

NARAB will be governed by a board dominated by State regulators—again, dominated by State regulators—and would establish standards for the membership that exceed the existing requirements of any State. Again, exceeds the requirements of any State. A prospective NARAB member will be required to be fully licensed in his or her home State and satisfy rigorous membership criteria. An approved NARAB member could utilize the association to obtain the regulatory approval necessary to operate in any other selected jurisdiction.

This is a crucial piece of legislation, an excellently drafted piece of legislation. For those of us who are concerned about small government, it is very important to note that NARAB would not—would not—be a part of a report to any Federal agency and would not have any kind of Federal regulatory power. We are out of the business. Once we pass this bill, it is in the hands, where it belongs, of the State and local level.

The legislation is supported by nearly the entire insurance industry, including all the major agents and brokers associations, as well as the major insurers associations. Additionally, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, NAIC, which represents all State insurance commissioners, has formally—formally—endorsed this version of the legislation.

The State-based reform benefits our consumers first, and that is at the head of the line of our concerns. It benefits our consumers through increased competition among agents and brokers and leads to greater consumer choice at lower prices. That is what the consumer is looking for.

This bill also will assist in an important sector of our economy—small businesses—by streamlining non-resident licensing regulation. The House has twice recognized the need for this commonsense reform by passing nearly this identical legislation, as I said before, subsequent to suspension rules.

Once again, we ask for your support.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. NEUGEBAUER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. GARRETT), the chairman of our Capital Markets Subcommittee.

Mr. GARRETT. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Texas for his leadership on this legislation today.

I rise in support of H.R. 1155, which is the National Association of Registered Agents and Brokers Reform Act.

This bill is, as we like to say, a commonsense step that will create a clearinghouse, if you will, for insurance agents and brokers alike to obtain approval to operate on a multistate basis.

Under current law, an insurance agent who has clients in more than one State has to obtain licenses in each and every one of those States. The regulatory process, as you can imagine, varies from State to State. Obtaining and maintaining a license is both time-consuming and very expensive.

Having to complete this process over and over and over again basically compounds the difficulty and often proves daunting, quite honestly, to smaller agents who are just trying to do their job and to serve their clients and meet their needs.

What we have here is the NARAB clearinghouse. This would allow the agents to complete the process only twice—once in their home State and then once again for NARAB. Then they would be eligible to sell basically in all the States.

Here is an important point: NARAB is supported by all the stakeholders, including, as the gentleman just said, by the State insurance regulators. It does so because it brings much-needed efficiency to a multistate licensing process.

While doing this, the legislation would also preserve—and to me this is very important—State-based insurance regulation and also consumer protections.

Finally, this legislation would not—as was just pointed out—create a brand new Federal insurance regulator in its place. By law, NARAB would not be a regulator or a part of any Federal agency. It would have no regulatory authority.

With 56—56—different approaches to life insurance, this bipartisan bill would reduce needless red tape and complexity that is out there, and it would help insurance agents better serve their clients.

I urge this House to adopt this legislation today.

Mr. DAVID SCOTT of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. NEUGEBAUER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. FINCHER).

Mr. FINCHER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today as a cosponsor in support of H.R. 1155, the National Association of Registered Agents and Brokers Reform Act of 2013.

As mentioned, this important legislation strikes the appropriate balance between easing the licensing requirements for insurance agents and preserving State authority to supervise and discipline insurance producers for their actions.

Through this legislation, I hope all consumers, especially the citizens of Tennessee, will benefit from a more competitive insurance market. NARAB is supported by all insurance industry stakeholders, including State insurance regulators, regional and national insurance companies, and trade associations.

H.R. 1155 is seen as the most effective, efficient way to enable insurance agents and brokers to be licensed on a multistate basis while retaining State regulatory authority.

While today's legislation speaks to insurance agents and brokers, similar issues exist for claims adjusters. To address these issues when consumers present a claim, I have introduced the CLAIM Act, H.R. 2156, to streamline the licensing requirements for insurance adjusters operating outside their home States.

My bill would preserve State authority to supervise and discipline adjusters for their actions, while streamlining State licensing regulations.

As we join together today to support H.R. 1155, I call upon my colleagues to similarly support and enact the CLAIM Act to ensure consumers receive the same excellent service when they need their insurance.

I thank the gentleman from Texas (Mr. NEUGEBAUER) for his hard work on this very well-thought-out legislation. I hope it will help the citizens of this country receive excellent insurance products and services.

Mr. DAVID SCOTT of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. NEUGEBAUER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Florida (Mr. RADEL).

Mr. RADEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this bill introduced by my colleague Representative NEUGEBAUER.

This bill reduces costs for homeowners and renters not only in my home State of Florida, but for everyone throughout the entire country.

Today, insurance brokers and agents face hurdles when they try to work across State lines. What this bill does is make it easier and less expensive for them to get licensed in multiple States. The best part about this is ultimately it saves you, the consumer, money.

This legislation streamlines the Federal role in real estate licensing while allowing States to continue setting standards for the work that best fits their States because, after all, we know what's best for our States and our communities.

Lowering costs for insurance agents and brokers means more options and lower prices for consumers. I am glad to support this bipartisan legislation.

I encourage all of my colleagues to vote for the NARAB Reform Act.

Mr. DAVID SCOTT of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. NEUGEBAUER. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. DAVID SCOTT of Georgia. If the gentleman has no more speakers, I will close and then yield back the balance of my time.

I just want to say what a distinguished pleasure it has been to work with the gentleman from Texas, my good friend on both the Financial Services Committee and the Ag Committee. We do a lot of great work together. It is a great pleasure.

I commend this bill to the full House of Representatives and hope we have a unanimous vote.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

□ 1245

Mr. NEUGEBAUER. I yield myself the balance of my time.

I also want to thank the gentleman from Georgia. He has worked tirelessly on this issue.

Mr. Speaker, what I think is nice about this issue is that it's bipartisan. It's a good piece of legislation in that it doesn't expand government, and it doesn't cost the taxpayers any money. Ultimately, I think it's going to bring better choices for consumers and, I hope, for our small business people across the country. For example, in my congressional district, it is closer to three or four other States than it is to some of the cities that are within my State, for example, from Walipp to within a hundred miles of Colorado and within 100 miles of Oklahoma and Colorado and these other States. Basically, we have a lot of insurance agencies and agents who now will have the ability to do business in multiple States in a less cumbersome way, so I encourage all of my colleagues to support this bill.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Texas (Mr. NEUGEBAUER) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1155, as amended.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. NEUGEBAUER. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.
