S. RES. 101

Whereas the two bombings that occurred on Patriots' Day, April 15, 2013, during the running of the 117th Boston Marathon, represent a terrible tragedy and horrific act of terrorism against the United States;

Whereas the people of the United States mourn those who lost their lives or were wounded;

Whereas police officers, firefighters, members of the National Guard, emergency medical personnel, and other first responders acted heroically in responding to the attacks, preventing additional loss of life;

Whereas the full resources of the Federal Government and State and local governments are being brought to bear to investigate this attack and bring the perpetrator or perpetrators to justice;

Whereas the residents of Massachusetts are a resilient people and will recover from this tragedy; and

Whereas the people of the United States will always remember the victims of the previous acts of terrorism that have occurred in the United States and will always stand together as one people: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) condemns the senseless attack in Boston, Massachusetts, on Monday, April 15, 2013;

(2) offers sympathy and condolences to the victims' families;

(3) sends thoughts and prayers for those who are recovering from injuries;

(4) honors the heroic efforts of the medical personnel who are tirelessly providing care for the victims of this horrific act of violence;

(5) admires the courage of the first responders and the many citizen heroes who aided the injured and tended to the community;

(6) commits to providing all necessary resources to law enforcement officials who are investigating the terrorist attacks;

(7) remains committed to working together as united Americans to bring those responsible for this attack to justice; and

(8) recognizes that the city of Boston, the people of Massachusetts, and all Americans will rise up from this tragedy and stand together as patriots.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 13—COMMENDING THE BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF AMERICA FOR ITS ROLE IN IMPROVING OUTCOMES FOR MILLIONS OF YOUNG PEOPLE AND THOUSANDS OF COMMUNITIES

Mr. CASEY (for himself, Ms. COLLINS, Mr. JOHNSON of South Dakota, Mr. BAUCUS, Mr. BEGICH, Mrs. MURRAY, Mr. LEAHY, and Mr. PRYOR) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary:

S. CON. RES. 13

Whereas, in 1956, the Boys' Clubs of America celebrated its 50th anniversary and became a federally chartered incorporation;

Whereas, in 1991, the Federal charter of the Boys' Clubs of America was amended to reflect the change of the name of the organization to the Boys & Girls Clubs of America;

Whereas the Boys & Girls Clubs of America has significantly improved the quality of life for many young people and has helped to transform them into leaders and responsible citizens of the United States;

Whereas the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, through its efforts in communities throughout the United States, has a significant impact on the ability of young people to meet various challenges, including by helping them graduate from high school, gain proficiency in science, technology, engineering, and math, and develop skills for the 21st century;

Whereas evaluations of specific programs conducted by, and of the overall experience of participating in, the Boys & Girls Clubs of America demonstrate several positive outcomes linked to participation in the organization, including reduction in delinquent behaviors, increased academic achievement, increased access to and safe use of technology, broadened career goals, and improved attitudes toward school;

Whereas the Boys & Girls Clubs of America effectively leverages limited Federal investment to support Clubs in underfunded communities, while raising the majority of its funding privately;

Whereas the Boys & Girls Clubs of America serves diverse groups of young people in urban, suburban, and rural communities, as well as on military bases and Native American reservations;

Whereas the Boys & Girls Clubs of America provides stability, education, youth development, and prevention programs for children of military personnel, who frequently relocate due to station changes and deployments;

Whereas, as of February 2013, there are 3,985 chartered Clubs serving approximately 4,100,000 young people; and

Whereas, on April 28, 2012, the Boys & Girls Clubs of America signed an agreement with For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology (commonly known as “FIRST”) to bring competitive robotics programs to approximately 4,000,000 young people in the United States by 2015: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Congress—

(1) commends the Boys & Girls Clubs of America for its work serving the young people of the United States and strengthening thousands of communities;

(2) recognizes the importance of high-impact mentoring of young people in ensuring positive outcomes for young people of all backgrounds;

(3) supports mentoring of young people as a strategy to prepare young people for education, careers, and citizenship;

(4) encourages the Boys & Girls Clubs of America to continue and expand programs that expose young people to science, technology, engineering, and math; and

(5) commits to strengthening the partnership between the Boys & Girls Clubs of America and various Federal agencies and department in order to serve an even greater number of young people.
