

district commissioner to village trustee and eventually mayor. She has served on countless boards and commissions, but the title that I was most grateful for was that of "friend".

I have known Arlene since the days I was a congressional staffer for Congressman John Porter. Arlene was a "get things done" mayor. It is why she was tapped by both Democrats and Republicans to partner on issues. When I first took office as Congressman for the 10th Congressional District, Arlene quickly became my go-to mayor for a host of issues.

Whenever we wanted to schedule a townhall meeting in the northwest suburbs, Arlene was my first call. I remember during the health care debate we had a townhall meeting at the village building. When hundreds of citizens showed up and it was clear our room would not be large enough to hold everyone, Arlene immediately went into action and helped us have not one townhall meeting, but two back-to-back. Her resourcefulness ensured that we could communicate with twice the number of constituents on a very important issue.

While we Senators may feel as if we have a full workload between constituent and committee meetings, votes and briefings, Arlene's membership in outside organizations is enough to make even the best multitasker dizzy. She has served on more than a dozen outside boards, commissions, and committees, many focused on the importance of transportation. As a member of Metra's board of directors, she became an advocate for thousands of suburban commuters who rely on commuter rail to get to their jobs. As chair of the O'Hare Noise Compatibility Commission, she led efforts to ensure a balance between the economic development role of O'Hare International Airport and the impact on surrounding communities.

But what I will miss most is our time at the Arlington Heights Memorial Day Parade. Each year, we would honor a local veteran with a military award that was earned but never received. It was always a moving day, and while she will not be the mayor at future ceremonies, I know I will see her there for many years to come.

While I am honored to serve as Arlene's Senator, I am more proud that Arlene was my mayor. Her dedication to the village and people of Arlington Heights will not be forgotten. I wish Arlene and her husband Al and their entire family all the best as she begins the next phase of her public service. Arlington Heights and the State of Illinois were lucky to have her. Thank you, Arlene for all that you have done for us.●
