

Group, he was an integral part of long range homeland defense planning. He was also a member of the Current Operations Group and played a key role as the J-4 representative during crisis operations and exercises.

Colonel Wilson had the distinct honor of leading the 249th Engineer Battalion, the only Prime Power Engineer Battalion in the Army. He was responsible for contingency deployment of power production personnel, as well as power generation and distribution of equipment in support of Combat Commanders, Joint Task Forces, and Installation Commanders worldwide. His soldiers kept up an unbelievable operations tempo during Operation Iraqi Freedom and deployments to Afghanistan, Kuwait, Philippines, Kyrgyzstan, Guam, and Turkey. Support operations included major deployments in disaster relief. Colonel Wilson was also responsible for the Prime Power School, for its training program and for recruitment and retention. As a battalion commander, he was a proven professional who always accomplished the mission, took care of his soldiers, and planned, thought, and communicated as a leader.

I would like to extend my deepest thanks to Colonel Wilson for his many years of service to our Nation. I wish the absolute best to him and his family as they begin this next stage in their lives.●
