□ 1720

Ms. DUCKWORTH changed her vote from “no” to “aye.”

So the amendment was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Stated for:

Mrs. DAVIS of California. Mr. Chair, on roll-call No. 130, had I been present, I would have voted “aye.”

The Acting CHAIR. The question is on the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended.

The amendment was agreed to.

The Acting CHAIR. Under the rule, the Committee rises.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. SIMPSON) having assumed the chair, Mr. WEBSTER of Florida, Acting Chair of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 3189) to prohibit the conditioning of any permit, lease, or other use agreement on the transfer, relinquishment, or other impairment of any water right to the United States by the Secretaries of the Interior and Agriculture, and, pursuant to House Resolution 511, he reported the bill back to the House with an amendment adopted in the Committee of the Whole.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the rule, the previous question is ordered.

Is a separate vote demanded on any amendment to the amendment reported from the Committee of the Whole?

If not, the question is on the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended.

The amendment was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mrs. KIRKPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentlewoman opposed to the bill?

Mrs. KIRKPATRICK. I am opposed in its current form.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mrs. Kirkpatrick moves to recommit the bill H.R. 3189 to the Committee on Natural Resources with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith, with the following amendment:

Page 3, line 7, strike “The Secretary” and insert the following: “Unless necessary to—
“(1) protect Tribal treaty rights;
“(2) preserve recreational fishing;
“(3) mitigate drought conditions in an area covered by an emergency drought declaration; or
“(4) facilitate fire suppression;
the Secretary”.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentlewoman from Arizona is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mrs. KIRKPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, this is the final amendment to the bill. It will not kill the bill nor send it back to committee. If it is adopted, this bill will immediately proceed to final passage.

Water is a critical issue in Arizona and especially in my district. Water can be, also, a divisive issue. In Congress, we need to provide leadership and work together on long-term solutions that protect our water sources, communities, tribes, and local economies.

In particular, I believe this bill needs language added to strengthen the rights of our tribal governments. Arizona’s District 1 is over 90 percent public lands. It contains several important waterways, national forests, and recreation areas, and it has 12 Native American tribes.

In my previous term, I introduced the White Mountain Apache Tribe Water Quantification Act, which was signed into law. It was a historic agreement that created jobs, protected tribal water rights, and established reliable water sources for many of Arizona’s communities.

As this legislation moves forward, I want to ensure that we protect the following priorities: our tribal communities, our fishing and sportsmen, our drought mitigation efforts, and our ability to fight wildfires. And we need to manage water rights and land-use permits in a balanced way. We can do this in a way that respects tribes, preserves recreation, and protects our communities from droughts and wildfires that have already caused so much devastation in Western States. In my view, these issues should be our priorities.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. HASTINGS of Washington. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. HASTINGS of Washington. Mr. Speaker, the underlying bill does one thing and one thing only: it stops the Federal Government from extorting water rights from private citizens and businesses without just compensation. That is what the underlying bill does.

But, Mr. Speaker, I have to tell you that there seems to be a common thread here over the last several weeks—maybe even a year—on the differences of governance between the two parties, between this side of the aisle and that side of the aisle.

The reason why this is important as it relates to water law is simply because water law has always been the province of the States. There have been Federal courts that have said that over and over and over. Yet, when we come to the floor here, we hear constantly from the other side that there should be conditions on certain rights. This falls into that category.

The debate we had on the floor earlier was that there is acknowledgment that the Federal Government was taking water rights as a condition for permits. Their answer from that side of the aisle was, well, let’s let the process go; our side was, let’s respect the law. Big difference.

So now we have this motion to recommit, and if you look at the motion to recommit, it conditions, again, State water law. I think the best way that we should approach these debates is to say that we trust the people and we trust the Federal system, and the Federal system as it relates to water law is that States' water law is premier. This motion to recommit is another attempt—another attempt—to qualify that, to give the Federal Government more authority.

I urge my colleagues to say “no” to the motion to recommit and pass the underlying bill to protect states' rights and water law.

With that, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mrs. KIRKPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 9 of rule XX, the Chair will reduce to 5 minutes the minimum time for any electronic vote on the question of passage.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 183, noes 227, not voting 21, as follows:

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 132, had I been present, I would have voted “no.”

RAISING A QUESTION OF THE PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, pursuant to rule IX, I rise in regard to a question of the privileges of the House.

The form of the resolution is as follows:

Whereas on March 5, 2014, during a hearing before the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, Committee Chairman DARRELL E. ISSA gave a statement and then posed ten questions to former Internal Revenue Service official Lois Lerner, who stated that she was invoking her Fifth Amendment right not to testify;

Whereas the committee's ranking member, Representative ELIJAH E. CUMMINGS, clearly sought recognition to take his turn for questions under committee and House rules;

Whereas Chairman ISSA then unilaterally adjourned the hearing and refused to allow him to make any statement or ask any questions;

Whereas Ranking Member CUMMINGS protested immediately, stating: “Mr. Chairman, you cannot run a committee like this. You just cannot—”

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend.

The Chair is going to ask, in the name of decorum of the House, that Members not display their electronic devices. It is a violation of the House rules. Regular order would be putting the iPads down. The House will not proceed until there is decorum in the House.

The gentleman will suspend. Proceedings will not resume until there is decorum in the House.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, where is it specifically in the rule stated that Members cannot display their iPads? What rule is it?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the precedents of the House, Members are not allowed to stage an exhibition. The Chair has ruled based on the precedents of the House.

The Chair asks that Members not display their iPhones and iPads.

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, may I proceed?

Mr. Speaker, the Members have removed their iPads. May I proceed?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. When decorum has been restored, the gentleman may proceed.

Only a Member under recognition for debate can display an exhibit.

Mr. KILDEE. For the purposes of display, this is what the Members have been holding.

May I proceed?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. KILDEE. Whereas Ranking Member CUMMINGS protested immediately, stating: “Mr. Chairman, you cannot run a committee like this. You just cannot do this. This is, we are better than that as a country, we are better than that as a committee.”;

Whereas Chairman ISSA then returned and allowed Ranking Member CUMMINGS to begin his statement, but when it became clear that Chairman ISSA did not want to hear what Ranking Member CUMMINGS was saying, turned off Ranking Member CUMMINGS' microphone, ordered Republican staff to “close it down,” and repeatedly signaled to end the hearing with his hand across his neck;

Whereas Ranking Member CUMMINGS objected again, stating: “You cannot have a one-sided investigation. There is absolutely something wrong with that.”;

Whereas Chairman ISSA made a statement of his own and posed questions during the hearing, but refused to allow other members of the committee, and in particular, the ranking member, who had sought recognition, to make statements under the 5-minute rule in violation of House rule XI;

Whereas Chairman ISSA instructed the microphones be turned off and adjourned the hearing without a vote or a unanimous consent agreement in violation of rule XVI because he did not want to permit Ranking Member CUMMINGS to speak;

Whereas Chairman ISSA's abusive behavior on March 5 is part of a continuing pattern in which he has routinely excluded members of the committee from investigative meetings, has turned off Members' microphones while they were questioning a witness, attempted to prevent witnesses from answering questions, and has provided information to the press before sharing it with committee members;

Whereas on July 18, 2003, former Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, Bill Thomas, asked the United States Capitol Police to remove minority members of the committee from the library where they were having a discussion about a pending committee
