LET'S TALK TAX

(Mr. MULLIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MULLIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to talk tax. Every year, Americans approach April 15 with a dread as they are reminded of just how burdensome our tax structure really is.

But there is a group of Americans that have been focused on taxes long before April 15 arises, and that is our small businesses, the backbone of our economy. While individuals prepare their taxes once a year, business owners have a different story to tell.

By the time July arrives, my companies have prepared taxes four times. With hours spent on tax preparation and regulation compliance, small businesses are missing prime opportunities to focus their energy on business expansion and job creation.

Over the past year, I have heard a recurring message from small businesses across this country: Taxes and over-regulation are killing our businesses.

At what point, Mr. Speaker, will this administration listen to the business owners of America?

The success of small businesses sets the tone for our Nation's economy, and
