

helps support and inspire children with cancer and other life-threatening illnesses.

Lisa is not afraid to take bold and creative measures to help our children. She initiated and co-wrote a Los Angeles city resolution to institute a grading system for schools, similar to the way the city grades restaurants. In Beverly Hills, she has petitioned the school board for safer and more sanitary campuses, and even hired a photographer to help her document the campus conditions she was seeking to correct.

I also admire Lisa's support for Israel and the Jewish people: she has been a Board Member of the Israel Grants Fund, a Trustee of the Jewish Community Foundation, and a Senate Club member of the American Israel Public Affairs Committee.

Finally, Lisa is a distinguished L.A. businesswoman, and a superb example of the talent that women bring to leadership positions in our local businesses. She is a co-owner of the commercial property management company Amalgamated Real Estate Services, where she manages twenty Downtown and Westside commercial buildings.

I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Lisa Korbato on her well-deserved honor from the Boy Scouts of America, and in urging her to keep up her great work to improve Los Angeles.

TRIBUTE TO EAGLE SCOUT NOAH DE KRUIF

HON. DAVID YOUNG

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2015

Mr. YOUNG of Iowa. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Noah De Kruij of Boy Scout Troop 98 in Urbandale, Iowa, for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. Noah is the son of Jim and Elizabeth De Kruij of Johnston, Iowa.

The Eagle Scout rank is the highest advancement rank in scouting. Only about four percent of Boy Scouts earn the prestigious Eagle Scout Award. The award is a performance-based achievement with high standards that have been well-maintained for more than a century.

To earn the Eagle Scout rank, a Boy Scout must pass specific tests organized by requirements and merit badges, and complete an Eagle Project to benefit the community. Noah has earned 21 merit badges as a Boy Scout. For his Eagle Scout Service Project he and his twin brother Nicholas, who is also an Eagle Scout, revitalized a local school, the Joshua Christian Academy. The project included a complete renovation of the landscaping, painting fresh lines in the parking lots, adding concrete barriers in areas of need, and making a sign to help identify the school. The staff at Joshua Christian Academy really appreciated the effort to make the school safer and more visually appealing.

Mr. Speaker, the example set by this young man demonstrates the rewards of hard work, dedication and perseverance. I am honored to represent Noah and his family in the United States Congress. I know that all of my colleagues in the United States House of Representatives will join me in congratulating him on reaching the rank of Eagle Scout and in wishing him nothing but continued success in his future education and career.

HONORING COMMAND SERGEANT
MAJOR ROOSEVELT HUGGINS,
U.S. ARMY, RETIRED

HON. JOHN R. CARTER

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2015

Mr. CARTER of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Command Sergeant Major Roosevelt Huggins, U.S. Army, Retired. It brings me great pride to highlight the life of this great American.

CSM Huggins' service to his beloved nation began July 19, 1961, where he entered the Army at Ft. Hood, Texas. Upon his promotion to Sergeant in Okinawa, Japan, CSM Huggins was shipped out to Vietnam in 1965, where he would serve two tours. On November 6, 1966 while participating in Operation "Eagle Shot Cow" his battery was overrun by a Vietnamese Battalion. For his valiant efforts in Vietnam, CSM Huggins was awarded the Bronze Star and Army Commendation Award with Valor.

After Vietnam CSM Huggins was called to lead and teach in a variety of roles. From 1975–1981 CSM Huggins was assigned to Ft. Carlson, Colorado where he attended a boxing camp. There, he learned the skills that would bring Army Boxing back to Ft. Hood Texas.

CSM Huggins retired August 1, 1991 after more than 30 years of service in the U.S. Army that spanned five countries, war-time conflicts, and multiple states that called him to learn, lead, and teach his fellow soldiers the discipline and skills necessary to defend a nation. CSM Huggins continued his proud tradition of service to his fellow man after his retirement. In 1997 CSM Huggins organized the first Back to School—Stay in School program designed to promote both youth and adult education. CSM Huggins has served as a role model for youth and adults alike.

I am proud to have such a man residing right here in Texas so dedicated to the uplifting and betterment of the community in which he lives, works, and serves. May we all remember and honor this fine example of humility and service. I join CSM Huggins' wife Charmaine, their two sons, three granddaughters, family, and friends in wishing him nothing but the best in the years ahead.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE GREATER
WILKES-BARRE ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS 100TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. MATT CARTWRIGHT

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2015

Mr. CARTWRIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Greater Wilkes-Barre Association of Realtors as they celebrate 100 years of service to the community. For the past century, the Association's members have helped families in their pursuit of the American dream of home ownership.

The Greater Wilkes-Barre Association of Realtors traces its origins with the establishment of Wilkes-Barre Real Estate Exchange in 1915. Today, with over 400 members, the organization is an affiliate of the National Association of Realtors and operates under the capable leadership of Charles Adonizio III. On January 1, 2016 the Greater Wilkes-Barre Association of Realtors plans to merge with its counterpart, the Greater Hazelton Association of Realtors. The two groups will form the Luzerne County Association of Realtors. With this consolidation, both organizations hope to provide more professional services to their members and to better serve all of Luzerne County.

It is an honor to recognize the Greater Wilkes-Barre Association of Realtors, and I applaud the organization and its members for a century of top-notch professional service to the community. I wish the Association all the best as its members continue their work for northeastern Pennsylvania through the new Luzerne County Association of Realtors.

TRIBUTE TO DONALD AND JUANITA CLOUSE

HON. DAVID YOUNG

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2015

Mr. YOUNG of Iowa. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Donald and Juanita Clouse of Griswold, Iowa, on the very special occasion of their 65th wedding anniversary. They were married on September 24, 1950 in Tingley, Iowa.

Mr. Speaker, Donald and Juanita's lifelong commitment to each other and their children, Diane, Penny, Cindy and Steve, their grandchildren, and their great-grandchildren, truly embodies our Iowa values. I commend this great couple on their 65th year together and I wish them many more. I know my colleagues in the United States House of Representatives will join me in congratulating them on this momentous occasion.

TRIBUTE TO JERRY C. PRUIETT

HON. JOHN R. CARTER

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2015

Mr. CARTER of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the career of veteran, community leader, and my longtime friend Jerry C. Pruiett, who will retire after a lifetime of work. Jerry's extraordinary commitment to community service reflects the best values of Central Texas; his strong work ethic and his friendly and inspiring attitude lifts all around him.

Jerry's military career was but a humble beginning of a life filled with love and service. A gifted athlete, Jerry turned down an opportunity to try out for the New York Mets to join the Navy. He served his country aboard two Navy aircraft carriers: the USS Coral Sea, known as the "Ageless Warrior", and the USS Enterprise, the world's first nuclear powered aircraft carrier.

After the Navy, Jerry continued life in the civil service for two more years at Kelly Air Force Base. Shortly thereafter, Jerry accepted a job with ButterKrust Bakery and shouldered the responsibility of General Sales Manager for 28 years. In 2003, Jerry went to work for K&N Management and will retire on October 24, 2015.

Over the years, Jerry found numerous ways to serve his fellow man in the Round Rock, Texas Community. In 2010 Jerry coordinated a successful golf tournament to support Nevus Outreach to help children born with skin diseases. Having seen his father diagnosed with Alzheimer's, Jerry wanted to do all he could to help those in need and would later organize a fundraiser in support of research into that debilitating disease.

When I reflect on Jerry's life of service and our friendship over the years I am reminded of the teachings of Christ when he taught, "whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." To Jerry, these are not mere words but a summons by which to live a fulfilling life. I am proud to call Jerry my friend. Round Rock is lucky to have him as a part of our growing community.

Retirement is to be celebrated and enjoyed. It is not the end of a career, but rather the beginning of a new adventure. I salute Jerry Pruiett for his hard work and dedication to his community. I wish him only the best in the years ahead.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE WOMEN'S RESOURCE CENTER, RECIPIENT OF THE LACKAWANNA PRO BONO'S ROBERT W. MUNLEY AWARD

HON. MATT CARTWRIGHT

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2015

Mr. CARTWRIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Women's Resource Center which will be awarded the 2015 Lackawanna Pro Bono's Robert W. Munley Award. Lackawanna Pro Bono is a non-profit organization established in 1997 to increase the availability of free legal representation for low-income individuals and families throughout Lackawanna County.

The Women's Resource Center is a non-profit organization located in Scranton, Pennsylvania. The Women's Resource Center is the sole provider of domestic violence and sexual assault services in Lackawanna and Susquehanna Counties. Since 1976, Women's Resource Center has provided free and confidential services that support justice, autonomy, restoration, and safety for adult and child survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking. Women's Resource Center utilizes a holistic approach, providing crisis and advocacy services, safe housing, transitional housing and civil/legal representation for survivors. Programs are designed to be flexible to meet the needs of survivors from diverse ethnic, cultural, racial, and socioeconomic backgrounds. In 2014, Women's Resource Center provided services to 1,504 survivors of domestic violence and 297 survivors of sexual assault, providing safe housing for 145 families. Civil legal representation was provided for 110 program participants with 206 case filings.

Today, under the leadership of Executive Director Peg Ruddy, the Women's Resource Center remains a dynamic force in northeastern Pennsylvania, helping over 50,000 women and children in Lackawanna and Susquehanna Counties rebuild their lives free of violence and fear since beginning operations. Of that number, 42,138 were adult and child victims of domestic violence and 9,949 victims of sexual abuse. Those reaching out for help come from all walks of life, socioeconomic backgrounds, education, ethnicities, and sexual orientation. Services are free and extended to everyone, including family members, adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse, and men in same sex relationships.

It is an honor to recognize the Women's Resource Center for the great service it has done for the community, and I extend my congratulations on being awarded the Lackawanna Pro Bono's Robert W. Munley Award. I commend the Women's Resource Center for the great efforts it puts forth to make northeastern Pennsylvania a better community.

IN RECOGNITION OF NATIONAL MEDICAL ASSISTANTS WEEK

HON. MATT CARTWRIGHT

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 21, 2015

Mr. CARTWRIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor all medical assistant professionals as we observe National Medical Assistants Week.

According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, medical assisting is one of our country's fastest growing occupations with an estimated 584,000 men and women serving nationwide. These medical professionals are central figures in the health care industry as they promote, support, and help maintain cooperative and successful relationships between patients and physicians.

In the U.S., medical assistants have traditionally held jobs almost exclusively in ambulatory care centers, urgent care facilities, and clinics, but this is now changing. Today, medical assistants work in private and public hospitals, inpatient and outpatient facilities, assisted living facilities, or in general practice and specialists' offices. Operating with a wide
