□ 1046

Mr. PALAZZO changed his vote from “nay” to “yea.”

So the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated against:

Mrs. NAPOLITANO. Mr. Speaker, on Thursday, June 25th, 2015, I was absent during roll-call vote No. 386. Had I been present, I would have voted “no” on agreeing to the resolution, H. Res. 338, Providing for consideration of a Motion to Concur in the Senate Amendment to H.R. 1295, the Trade Preferences Extension Act of 2015.

HONORING TIM HARROUN

(Mr. BOEHNER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BOEHNER. My colleagues, the people’s House is only as good as its people, and I would like to take a moment to recognize a very well-respected member of our staff.

Tim Harroun, the manager of the Republican cloakroom, is retiring after 41 years of service.

It is actually more than that when you factor in that Tim started here as a page on September 5, 1972, under Republican leader Gerald R. Ford; but his first full-time job was in the post office. Then he moved to the cloakroom, where he has been a steady presence ever since.

Now, you all know Tim is a good guy and, frankly, quite a character, and he wears the worst ties of anybody here.

But, Tim, God has blessed you with great success because you are the kind of guy who works hard and gives back. So, on behalf of the whole House, I want to thank you for your long and distinguished service, and I wish you and your wife all the best.

HONORING TIM HARROUN

(Mr. HOYER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, as someone who has not served here as long as Tim—but for a pretty long time—I have gotten to know him very well when I have wandered across that side of the aisle. He always receives me with a very gracious attitude and is always very, very helpful. He has been a wonderful fellow worker on the floor of this House with all of us on this side of the aisle as well.

I certainly join our Speaker in thanking him for the service that he has given to this House and to this country, and I wish him the very best in the future.
