Watson, a citizen of Austin, TX, relative to urging Congress to propose, for ratification by special conventions held within the individual states, an amendment to the United States Constitution which would clarify that a declaration of martial law, or a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, does not prevent presidential and congressional elections from proceeding as scheduled and does not perpetuate a term-limited or defeated presidential or congressional incumbent in office beyond the expiration of the term to which that incumbent was last elected; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.
