She has demonstrated a strong work ethic, which has made her an invaluable asset to our office. The quality of her work is reflected in her great efforts over the last several months.

I want to thank Emily for the dedication she has shown while working for me and my staff. It was a pleasure to have her as part of our team. I know she will have continued success with all of her future endeavors. I wish her all my best on her next journey.●

TRIBUTE TO JENIELLE STOUT

● Mr. BARRASSO. Mr. President, I would like to take the opportunity to express my appreciation to Jenielle Stout for her hard work as an intern in the Republican Policy Committee. I recognize her efforts and contributions to my office, as well as to the State of Wyoming.

Jenielle is a native of Casper and a graduate of Natrona County High School. She is currently a sophomore at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs, where she is majoring in mechanical engineering. She has demonstrated a strong work ethic, which has made her an invaluable asset to our office. The quality of her work is reflected in her great efforts over the last several months.

I want to thank Jenielle for the dedication she has shown while working for me and my staff. It was a pleasure to have her as part of our team. I know she will have continued success with all of her future endeavors. I wish her all my best on her next journey.●

TRIBUTE TO DR. TERRY TODD AND DR. MARK DEHART

● Mr. CRAPO. Mr. President, along with my colleague Senator JIM RISCH, I wish to honor Dr. Terry Todd and Dr. Mark DeHart, researchers at the Idaho National Laboratory, INL. The American Nuclear Society, ANS, recently recognized both as Fellows, which is the highest honor ANS bestows on an individual. These two world-class researchers are being recognized for their outstanding leadership, professional accomplishments, and service to the profession.

Dr. Terry Todd is the INL Fuel Cycle Science & Technology Director and an INL Laboratory Fellow. Terry's primary focus is directing research and development of advanced technologies for spent nuclear fuel recycling and other chemical separation applications. Dr. Todd holds bachelor's and master's degrees in chemical engineering from Montana State University and a Ph.D. in radiochemical engineering from Khlopin Radium Institute in St. Petersburg, Russia. Terry has 33 years of experience in chemical separation technologies involving spent nuclear fuel and radioactive waste, holds 23 U.S. patents and 6 Russian patents, and has published more than 180 journal articles, reports, and conference proceedings.

Dr. Mark DeHart is a distinguished R&D nuclear engineer in the INL's Reactor Physics Analysis and Design Department, and he also serves as deputy director for Reactor Physics Modeling and Simulation. Mark is the principal investigator and research director for development and validation of a modeling and simulation capability for the Transient Reactor Test Facility, TREAT, under the U.S. Department of Energy Nuclear Energy Advanced Modeling and Simulation program, NEAMS. Dr. DeHart came to the INL in 2010 from Oak Ridge National Laboratory, and he has extensive experience in reactor physics, criticality safety, depletion and spent fuel characterization, cross-section processing, and computer code verification and validation. Mark holds bachelor's, master's, and Ph.D. degrees in nuclear engineering from Texas A&M University and is the current chair of the Idaho Section of the ANS. Dr. DeHart has more than 100 publications in journals, conference proceedings, and national laboratory reports related to computational methods and other fields.

Congratulating Dr. Terry Todd and Dr. Mark DeHart for receiving this prestigious recognition is a great honor and a reminder of the many talented Idahoans working at the INL. The men and women who do exceptional research, development, and testing at the Idaho National Laboratory are greatly deserving of recognition. Thank you, Terry and Mark, for your hard work, and congratulations on your many accomplishments.●

TRIBUTE TO JOHN L. MARTIN

● Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, today I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to John L. Martin for the excellent job he has done as director of San Francisco International Airport. After more than 30 years of public service, Mr. Martin will be retiring this summer.

John has served as airport director since November 1995 and has been with the airport since 1981. He was the founding president of the California Airports Council, a statewide consortium of 30 commercial airports that was formed in December 2009, and serves on the executive committee of the Bay Area Council, as well as the board of directors of San Francisco Travel. John also served as a past member of the board of directors and vice president of the Airports Council International-Pacific Region and was a former board member of ACI-North America.

During his tenure at SFO, the airport has undergone a truly impressive series of expansions and improvements. John oversaw one of the largest public works projects in the country at the time: the $2.4 billion SFO Master Plan, which included the construction of the new international terminal, a BART station linking the airport to the Bay Area, and the AirTrain light-rail system connecting all terminals.

Other more recent SFO accomplishments include a new terminal 2—the first and only LEED Gold terminal in the United States—and the completion of a new Federal Aviation Administration Air Traffic Control tower that was completely designed and built by airport staff.

Under his leadership, the airport is currently undertaking a $4.3 billion 10-year capital improvement plan, including a new four-star on-airport hotel, the redevelopment of terminal 1 and terminal 3, as well as an extension of the AirTrain system to the long-term parking garage. By the time the capital project is complete in 2023, it is anticipated that it will have created more than 36,000 jobs over the 10-year period.

John exemplifies excellence in public service. Under his guidance, San Francisco International Airport has truly flourished. I thank him for his tireless efforts on behalf of the city and county of San Francisco and the Bay Area region.

Again, I congratulate John Martin on a job well done and wish him a long and healthy retirement.●

TRIBUTE TO TRENTON ALENIK

● Mr. HELLER. Mr. President, today I wish to congratulate an extremely talented athlete and dedicated mentor, Trenton Alenik, who has gone above and beyond in his endeavors to help Nevada's youth. Recently, Mr. Alenik was recognized for his work by the U.S. Tennis Association with the Sandy Tueller Service Award. It gives me great pleasure to recognize him for this much-deserved accolade.

Mr. Alenik first became interested in the Marty Hennessy Inspiring Children Foundation as a teenager when he began volunteering for the organization to earn his tennis scholarship. During this time, he became increasingly involved with the foundation by organizing events and trips and mentoring children. After a successful collegiate tennis career at Villanova University, he returned to Las Vegas to once again be involved with the foundation. Since that time, Mr. Alenik has climbed the ladder and now leads the organization as executive director. In this role, he spearheads development of various educational programs, leadership programs, and organizes trips to help provide students the opportunity for higher education. I am grateful to have someone of such dedication working on behalf of Nevada's youth. The great State of Nevada is fortunate to have Mr. Alenik leading the way at this important foundation.

The Marty Hennessy Inspiring Children Foundation was initially created to motivate children through mentoring, education, tennis, and helping support those children who lacked the finances and resources to participate in sports tournaments. The foundation now aids nearly 500 students and has grown to help support students in their ambitions to attend a college or university. The organization provides numerous programs to students, including SAT preparatory classes, tutoring, career-focused programs, athletic programs, and leadership programs. Those working at this organization, including Mr. Alenik, stand as role models in helping our community. Mr. Alenik should be commended for the time and effort he has put forth to accomplish the mission of this fine organization.

Today I ask my colleagues and all Nevadans to join me in congratulating Mr. Alenik on receiving this prestigious award and in thanking him for all of his hard work. I am honored to call him a fellow Nevadan, and I wish him the best of luck as he continues in his endeavors with the Marty Hennessy Inspiring Children Foundation.●

TRIBUTE TO MARI KAY BICKETT

● Mr. HELLER. Mr. President, today I wish to congratulate Mari Kay Bickett on her retirement after serving as chief executive officer of the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, NCJFCJ, for over 5 years. It gives me great pleasure to recognize her years of hard work and commitment to making this organization the best it can be.

Prior to her work with the NCJFCJ, Ms. Bickett served as academic director for the National Judicial College in Reno, in addition to practicing law in northern Nevada. She also served as a judge pro tem in the Reno Municipal Courts, on the Continuing Legal Education Committee of the State Bar of Nevada, and as president of the Northern Nevada Women Lawyers Association. She later served as the chief executive officer of the Texas Center for the Judiciary, which specializes in judicial education and training for trial and appellate judges.

Ms. Bickett joined the NCJFCJ as chief executive officer in April 2011 to help families throughout Nevada and across the Nation. The council's mission is to support judges throughout the United States who are working to improve the outcomes for children, families, and victims of domestic violence. The NCJFCJ works to do this by providing education, technical assistance, and research to courts. Annually, the council aids nearly 300,000 professionals in the juvenile and family justice system. Under Ms. Bickett's leadership, NCJFCJ secured 23 grant awards, a record-setting total for the council, which provided more than $11.3 million in funding and created an economic impact of $16 million in the great State of Nevada.

Ms. Bickett also served as a liaison on the Federal level, working with policymakers to help push legislation for survivors of child sex trafficking, domestic abuse, maltreatment, and neglect. She truly served as a staunch supporter of those in need, and her dedication with the NCJFCJ will be sorely missed. I am thankful to have had her working on behalf of Nevadans for over half a decade.

I ask my colleagues and all Nevadans to join me in thanking Ms. Bickett for her dedication to helping children and families throughout Nevada and across the Nation. She exemplifies the highest standards of leadership and service and should be proud of her long and meaningful career. I am proud to call her a fellow Nevadan and wish her well in all of her future endeavors.●

TRIBUTE TO MICHAEL REESE

● Mr. VITTER. Mr. President, today I wish to honor Michael Reese, chairman of Fort Polk Progress, who received the 2016 National Community Leadership Award from the Association of Defense Communities.

Originally from Leesville, LA, Reese attended Leesville High School and later graduated at the University of Louisiana at Monroe. In 2006, he was one of the founders of Fort Polk Progress, a regional organization that supports Fort Polk and the Joint Readiness Training Center. With his roots in the Fort Polk area, Reese set out to ensure that military families would be heard in decisions taking place at the fort. Through his hard work over the years, Michael has fought to support the needs of the base, while also addressing the needs of the community. In recent years, he worked with national leaders to obtain a new elementary school for Fort Polk that will serve more than 800 students and will open later in this year. Also, Michael helped ensure quality healthcare remains available on base with his work to help save the hospital from being downgraded to a clinic.

Michael Reese's dedication to military families and his public service are seen in the day-to-day work he performs for his community. In addition to serving as the CEO of American Moving and Storage, Inc., he serves as a member of the Leesville Lions Club, the Association of Defense Communities, Association of the United States Army, Vernon Chamber of Commerce, Central Louisiana Chamber of Commerce, Beauregard Chamber of Commerce, and Southwest Louisiana Economic Development Alliance. In addition, he serves on the board of directors of Merchants and Farmers Bank, the board of trustees of the Rapides Foundation, and the board of the Central Louisiana Economic Development Alliance, and he is a charter member of the Louisiana Military Affairs Council.

With his unique leadership skills, he continues to keep quality of life issues a top priority on base, including his continued work to ensure that our local military men and women and their families get the quality health care they deserve. Michael Reese has clearly earned the honor of the National Community Leadership Award from the Association of Defense Communities, and I thank him for his dedicated service to Fort Polk, its military and civilian employees, and to the State of Louisiana.●
