

I extend my deepest congratulations to City-wide Banks for this well-deserved honor from the West Chamber of Commerce.

HONORING THE LIFE OF
CONGRESSMAN ROBERT GARCIA

HON. JENNIFFER GONZÁLEZ-COLÓN

OF PUERTO RICO
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 14, 2017

Miss GONZÁLEZ-COLÓN of Puerto Rico. Mr. Speaker, I rise today as Puerto Rico's sole elected representative in Congress to speak about a great man who gave up his voting rights in order to live and die in the place he loved so much, my Puerto Rico.

Former Congressman Robert "Bob" Garcia devoted his life to helping our nation become more open and diverse. Before 1990, being Hispanic was not even a classification in the census. Thanks to him, from 1990 on, Hispanics are now counted. Thanks to him, we now know that there are nearly 60 million Hispanics in America, over 50 million in the 50 states and over 3.4 million in Puerto Rico and the rest of our territories.

Thanks to Bob Garcia, the early divisions between African-Americans and Hispanics began to heal. Thanks to his solidarity, our nation now devotes a federal holiday to honor the most important African-American in our nation's history, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Thanks to Bob Garcia and his fellow Congressman Jack Kemp, a Republican, their good idea of creating Enterprise Zones, where poverty is fought through job creation and not through handouts, became a reality. Today I stand for the expansion of this program.

Like hundreds of thousands of Puerto Ricans, Bob Garcia served in the United States Army, in his particular case during the Korean War as a radio operator with the Third Infantry Division. Yet, like his fellow veterans on the Island, his right to vote for the President and a full-fledged delegation in the U.S. Congress was taken away the minute he moved to Puerto Rico.

On a lighter note, every time I spoke to him, he would remind me that, since his first election to Congress in 1978, he had never voted for a Republican, that is, until he voted for me, a Republican woman, to represent him as a non-voting delegate in this House.

I am honored that for three weeks, Bob was my constituent. He and his wife Jane moved a few years ago to Puerto Rico, knowing that in so doing, they, like the other 3.4 million U.S. citizens residing on the Island, would become disenfranchised. Last November, they couldn't vote for the President, U.S. senators or voting members of Congress, but they chose me to be Puerto Rico's sole elected voice in this chamber. Bob empowered me to fight to give him back his voting rights, not through relocation to the states, but in the Puerto Rico he chose to live the last days of his long, fruitful and accomplished life.

Twelve days ago, while lying in state in the territorial Capitol building, Bob Garcia was honored by the people of Puerto Rico. Today, I join my fellow members in honoring a friend and mentor who left his mark in this body and in the history of a nation. May God bless Congressman Bob Garcia and his legacy.

SERVICE AND VOLUNTEERISM IN THE CITY OF BUFFALO

HON. BRIAN HIGGINS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 14, 2017

Mr. HIGGINS of New York. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor the managers and employees of Home Depot Store 1234, who have consistently gone out of their way to support and restore a clean and safe community in Buffalo, New York. Their service and work with community leaders is recognized today by None Like You/We Care Outreach and the City of Buffalo.

Employees from the Service Desk, Pro Desk and the Garden, Paint and Plumbing departments have been instrumental in helping to restore several houses on Southampton Street and other areas in the Eastside and Westside of the City of Buffalo. They have given paint for inside and outside house projects for over 30 years and have also been a tremendous help in providing flowers, shrubs, bushes, top soil and mulch for the past several years. These materials have gone to help community gardens, and the properties of seniors, disabled residents and families who could not otherwise afford it.

During the Christmas season, Home Depot Store 1234 has supplied None Like You/We Care Outreach and St. Luke's Mission of Mercy with fresh cut Christmas trees for families in need.

Mr. Speaker, I honor Home Depot Store 1234 and their admirable dedication to the City of Buffalo. Home Depot and its employees have made many dreams come true for the citizens of our community and certainly deserve this recognition by None Like You/We Care Outreach and the City of Buffalo.

BOOSTING RATES OF AMERICAN
VETERAN EMPLOYMENT ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. HENRY C. "HANK" JOHNSON, JR.

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 13, 2017

Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of H.R. 974, the Boosting Rates of American Veteran Employment (BRAVE) Act.

There is no question that post-9/11 veterans face a harsher economic reality than other Americans. Although in recent years the unemployment rate of post-9/11 veterans decreased since the double digit highs of 2011, the veteran unemployment rate among veterans remains higher than the national average. Those who have sacrificed most for our nation are often left behind or forgotten by businesses and employers when they return home. The transition from military to civilian life is a challenging one for many veterans, and we must address the harsh realities our veterans face when they attempt to reintegrate into the economy.

As we consider the best ways to boost veteran employment in the 115th Congress, we must concentrate our efforts on what many major veterans organizations are urging us to do. The Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America, and Veterans of Foreign Wars have all argued that the Department of Veterans Affairs, when granting contracts, should give preference to businesses that employ a high concentration of veterans on a full-time basis. This is a common-sense proposal.

Each year the Department of Veterans Affairs contracts tens of billions of taxpayer dollars on various goods and services. H.R. 974 would ensure that when awarding a contract for goods or services, the Secretary of Veterans Affairs give preference to businesses that employ full-time a high percentage of veterans. H.R. 974 would also grant the Secretary of Veterans Affairs the power to debar for five years from contracting with the Department those offerors who willfully misrepresent the veteran status of their employees. This discourages potential businesses from over-reporting the percentage of veterans that make up their workforce.

I believe that H.R. 974 would also have a ripple effect across other agencies in the government and ultimately help a countless number of veterans attain full-time employment. Today, there are an estimated 24,000 businesses that work on federal contracts and employ about 28 million workers in the process. In FY 2015, in my home state of Georgia, an estimated 50,000 workers were employed by Department of Defense contracts alone. In my opinion, H.R. 974 would spark other federal agencies to adopt similar provisions that would give preference to businesses that employ large concentrations of veterans on a full-time basis.

I ask that my colleagues support this bill.

THE RETIREMENT OF MS. KAREN
SPAR AFTER A 37-YEAR CAREER
OF SERVICE AT THE CONGRES-SIONAL RESEARCH SERVICE
(CRS)

HON. KEVIN BRADY

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 14, 2017

Mr. BRADY of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise to offer my congratulations and best wishes to Ms. Karen Spar on the occasion of her retirement from a lifetime of dedicated service at the Congressional Research Service. Since she began her career in 1980 at CRS, Karen has risen from an analyst to the head of the Children and Families Section and eventually the Division of Social Policy's first Division Research Coordinator.

In her early days as an analyst, Karen worked on major legislative initiatives of American social policy, including the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981, the Job Training Partnership Act of 1983, the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Act of 1996, and the Adoption and Safe Family Act of 1997.

As head of the Children and Families Section, she supervised work in many of these same policy areas, including income support, child care, nutrition assistance, housing, child welfare, vulnerable youth, child support enforcement, poverty, and others. Her leadership efforts shaped a disparate group of policy areas and analysts from different backgrounds. They became a coherent and highly effective research group to support Members from both sides of the aisle.

Of special importance to the Committee on Ways and Means, Karen has been a major contributor to nearly every one of the 23 editions of the Committee's Green Book, going back to its creation in 1980. She has contributed sections on child care, child welfare, and the Social Services Block Grant. For more recent editions, she managed the extensive contributions from CRS and helped shepherd it into its new electronic format, which has enabled the Committee to publish it on a more frequent and consistent basis.

On behalf of especially the many Members of the Committee on Ways and Means who benefitted from her thoughtful work over her decades of service, I say thank you and congratulations to Karen Spar on an outstanding career. She truly has made a difference, which is a testament to her hard work and dedication. I wish her nothing but the very best for all that awaits her in the future.

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 14, 2017

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to posthumously recognize and honor Philip Winn for his service and dedication to the State of Colorado. For more than forty years, Phil has had a remarkable career as a public servant to the citizens of Colorado.

Starting in 1964, Phil worked for Witkin Homes and served as their Senior Vice President until 1976. He then went on to become the Chairman of the Board of Philip D. Winn and Associates from 1976–1988. During that time, he also served as the Chairman of the Colorado Republican Party from 1979–1981. In 1981, under the Reagan Administration, Phil was appointed Assistant Secretary to the Federal Housing Commissioner of Housing and Urban Development. From 1983–1984, he was a member of the Federal National Mortgage Advisory Council. In 1988, Phil was nominated to be the Ambassador of Switzerland serving as such until 1989. He received many awards in his life including Man of the Year from the Home Builder's Association in 1971 and Citizen of the Year from the Colorado Association of Housing and Building in 1981.

One of Phil's greatest accomplishments is the work he and his wife, Elle, have put into The Bridge Project at the University of Denver's Graduate School of Social Work. Phil co-founded the Bridge Project in 1991 to provide educational opportunities and assistance in developing life skills for Denver's low-income youth. Over the past 25 years, Phil and his wife have been leaders, donors, advisors and friends to the organization and its mission. They have helped make an impact on the lives of thousands of children and youth in Denver.

I extend my deepest appreciation to Phil Winn for his service and dedication to the citizens of Colorado. His positive impacts will be felt for many years to come.

RECOGNIZING BUFFALO STATE COLLEGE VOLUNTEER AND SERVICE LEARNING CENTER

HON. BRIAN HIGGINS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 14, 2017

Mr. HIGGINS of New York. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor Buffalo State College's Volunteer and Service Learning Center and their work and civic engagement throughout the City of Buffalo. Their partnerships across the city and collaborations with the east side and west side of Buffalo are recognized today by None Like You/We Care Outreach and the City of Buffalo.

The Volunteer and Service-Learning Center was founded in 2004, and since that time 15,431 students have participated in 820 service-learning courses taught by 137 faculty members. Over 360,000 hours of service have been completed through academic service learning and 103 volunteer events have also engaged students directly with community organizations. Approximately 250 region wide community organizations have partnered to meet community need while enhancing student learning.

Service-learning is faculty driven, with faculty members seeing the academic value in establishing partnerships to support student learning and meet community driven goals. In a recent community partner survey, 100 percent of respondents reported that service-learning impacted their organization in at least one positive way including increasing the number of services offered, increasing the number of clients served, or assisting in meeting the organization's mission.

This significant commitment has also led to the college being placed on the President's Community Service Honor Roll eight times in the past ten years. The President's Honor Roll is the highest federal recognition an institution can receive for its commitment to community, service-learning, and civic engagement. For the 2015 honor roll application, Buffalo State identified more than 492,000 hours of community service activities during the 2014–15 academic year by students, faculty, and staff in the Western New York region.

One overarching goal of the new college strategic plan is to create an engaged campus community that fosters civic responsibility by increasing civic engagement and service-learning experiences, deepening commitments as an anchor institution, and expanding support for faculty and students engaged in this work. Buffalo State's President, Dr. Katherine Conway-Turner inspires the campus to engage in partnership to foster social responsibility. She, for example, hosts the annual Bengals Dare to Care: Buffalo State Community Service Day which last year saw 550 students, faculty, and staff engaged in a day of service with 22 community organizations.

Mr. Speaker, I honor Buffalo State College and their commitment to volunteerism and service-learning in the Buffalo community. It is through these important partnerships that students are given the opportunity to examine and explore their role as citizens, and to identify opportunities to become active citizens in Buffalo and beyond. There are numerous unique and innovative programs at Buffalo State that support student civic engagement and address education, social justice, refugee supports, and social responsibility across campus and therefore are most deserving of this recognition by None Like You/We Care and the City of Buffalo.

IN RECOGNITION OF MOREHOUSE COLLEGE'S 150TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. SANFORD D. BISHOP, JR.

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 14, 2017

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor and pleasure to rise today to recognize my alma mater, Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia, as it celebrates 150 years of educating, training, and empowering outstanding leaders. The year-long Sesquicentennial Celebration began in January 2017 and will include many events for students, faculty, staff, administrators, donors, families, and friends of Morehouse College. The theme of the Celebration is A House United, which highlights Morehouse's position as a unifying force around the globe and here at home.

Tracing its roots back to the Reconstruction Era after the Civil War, Morehouse College was founded in 1867 as the Augusta Theological Institute in Augusta, Georgia. The school was founded by Rev. William Jefferson White with the encouragement of Rev. Richard Coulter and Rev. Edmund Turney, and it aimed to prepare black men for ministry and teaching.

In 1879, the Augusta Theological Institute moved to the basement of Friendship Baptist
