□ 1853

So the Journal was approved.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

RECOGNIZING MAYOR SANDRA MARTIN FOR 30 YEARS OF PUBLIC SERVICE

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Mayor

Sandra Martin from Flemington, Georgia, for more than 30 years of public service. Mayor Martin is a talented public servant who has truly made Flemington, in Georgia's First Congressional District, a better place to live.

Flemington is located near Hinesville, Georgia, which is home to the Fort Stewart military base, and being the mayor here comes with unique challenges. Under her leadership, Flemington took these challenges and ran with them.

Flemington built its first-ever city hall for meetings and events. Before that time, citizens needed to search around town for a city council member to speak with.

The city also went from being an inconspicuous town on the side of the highway to advertising itself and coaxing visitors to come in and experience its hospitality.

I am proud to have a city official like Mayor Martin who is immensely dedicated to our area in the First Congressional District. Other mayors could learn from her example of good government.

THANKING MATT BRAVO

(Mr. SCALISE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. SCALISE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and thank somebody who has been a key part of my team since I got elected into House leadership. He is the floor director right now for the whip's office, Mr. Matt Bravo.

Matt Bravo has been with my team and has helped us through some critical key legislative victories, not the least of which is the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act today, helping pass the bills through the floor and helping us get our work done as we whip the bills to make sure we can move the majority's agenda.

Matt has worked for years, Mr. Speaker, not just in the whip's office for me, he has also worked for former whip and majority leader Eric Cantor. He has worked for the Energy and Commerce Committee.

Matt Bravo has dedicated more than 10 years of his life to public service in this institution with honor and integrity.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. Matt Bravo is somebody who has the full respect of not only our Members on the House Republican side, he is respected by the Democratic leadership as well and is a key part of our staff and, again, has helped us pass critical legislation. I would call him the best floor director ever.

We are going to miss him here. Jennifer and I wish him and his wife, Summer, and their soon-to-be growing family all the best in their future life.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank him for the time and the public service he has given to this House of Representatives.
