

sports; it was all about giving back. He said it himself: "I was raised in Detroit. I came from zero. This community helped make me. It's nice to give something back."

He loved Detroit and worked to revitalize the city while maintaining its cultural history. His company, Olympia Entertainment, purchased the Fox Theater and restored it in 1988. He built Comerica Park, home to the Tigers. His recent $40 million donation to the Wayne State University School of Business will help build their state-of-the-art facility on Woodward Avenue, next to the new home of the Red Wings and the Pistons, Little Caesars Arena.

Detroit is better off because of the work that he did. And the people of Detroit are better off because of his work. From his philanthropic organization that has given to those in need and the program he started through Little Caesars that helps honorably discharged veterans get employed, Mike Ilitch gave people a chance to succeed and to thrive.

Mike will be sorely missed by all of us. His legacy is shared by his loving wife of over 61 years, Marian, and his seven children, but it is also shared by everyone in Michigan and all of those who love Detroit. Thank you.●
