

112. Rickey Dempsey
 113. Morris McBride Jr., 18
 114. Nathaniel Marcelious-Antonio Bowers,
 23
 115. Jeremy Alan Barron
 116. Brittany Southwell, 26
 117. David Lem Sprague
 118. Zach Currie
 119. William Clayton Coleman Jr.
 120. Terry Lynn Maurer
 121. Hunter Lentz, 18
 122. Matthew McMillen, 18
 123. Jesse Lambert, 27
 124. Akive Ahmad Ty'Juan Edwards
 125. Ben Johnson, 27
 126. Jeffrey Capers
 127. Kadriedra Goodwin, 24
 128. Daniel Dadgar, 27
 129. Durrell Solomon
 130. Jonathan Kaufman, 3
 131. Deven Guilford
 132. Jason Brewer, 23
 133. James Momenie
 134. Christy Ann Wilt
 135. Sgt. Greg Hunt

GUN VIOLENCE VICTIMS FROM KENTUCKY'S 6TH
 CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

136. Margaret Elizabeth Smith
 137. Kerry D. Kenney
 138. Dustin Wayne Johnson, 24
 139. Jared Miles Moore, 22
 140. David N. Scott
 141. Devon Guest, 19
 142. Joel Pflum
 143. Mikel Willis
 144. Rachel Jean Preston
 145. Austin Murphy, 29
 146. Darrius Twyman, 19
 147. Adan Juarez Vicente
 148. Justin Lee Jenkins, 19
 149. Victor Wilson
 150. Frederick Ratliff
 151. John Drain Moffett
 152. Leo Travers, 15
 153. Nova Gallman, 2
 154. David Fletcher Jones
 155. James Augustus Blair, 27
 156. Trinity Gay, 15
 157. Maryiah Coleman, 22
 158. Joseph Trevor Dilger
 159. Judith White
 160. Robert Warner
 161. Daniel Pigg
 162. Amy Koegel
 163. Melissa Roberts
 164. Corenz White, 28
 165. Melanie Gabbard
 166. Richard Lambert
 167. Brenda Hatton
 168. Ronnie L. Kelly
 169. Damycal Tre Bolton, 18

GUN VIOLENCE VICTIMS FROM ARIZONA'S 2ND
 CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

170. Reilly Thacker, 21
 171. Jason Patty
 172. Avrum Diaz, 29
 173. Edward Dalton Decker, 27
 174. Craig Yelton
 175. Wade Lockwood
 176. Joseph Anthony Campos, 23
 177. Russell Santos
 178. Christian Garcia-Sanchez, 15
 179. Donald Stanley
 180. Charles Hutchison
 181. David Jimenez
 182. Roberto Varela
 183. Javier Quiroz, 24
 184. Mark Garity, 29
 185. Therin Castillo Jr, 15
 186. Bill Drake
 187. Margaret Hoyt
 188. Taggart Seth Fuller, Jr., 13
 189. Christopher Gentry
 190. Yolanda Eberts
 191. Jacob Edward Luna
 192. Eric Noriega
 193. William Bell

194. Jesus Isaac Rael
 195. Thomas Barnes, 28
 196. Enrique Bracamonte, 30
 197. Osee Calix
 198. Sephaul Booker, 15
 199. Arturo Vasquez Romero, 25
 200. Jordan Szymanski
 201. Haylee Parker, 5
 202. Mackenzie Parker, 8
 203. Zachary Corbut, 20
 204. Daniel Gordon
 205. Alexandria Eastman, 25
 206. Sandra Hatfield
 207. Carlos Saaverda Ramirez
 208. Herschel Watkins III, 19
 209. Anthony A. Garcia
 210. Jeremy High, 24
 211. Gary Tucker
 212. Jase David DeBaker
 213. Heather Marcucci
 214. Paul David Lauderdale
 215. Alice Phillips
 216. George Phillips
 217. Guadalupe Alvarado
 218. Michael Dunclelee
 219. Marshall Davis
 220. Osvaldo Vargas
 221. Michael Estrada

HONORING BARBARA HANKINS
 WITH CALIFORNIA'S THIRD DIS-TRICT WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

HON. JOHN GARAMENDI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Mr. GARAMENDI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Barbara Hankins as a woman of the year. She has devoted herself to the selfless service of others. She began her career as a school nurse in 1988 and began her path to becoming an important force for positive change in Colusa Unified School District. Throughout the years, Ms. Hankins has served the students and families of Colusa County with fairness and dedication, proving her willingness and ability to provide quality and exceptional service. In addition to her work as a school nurse, Ms. Hankins has served as a steadfast supporter, volunteer, and organizer for various anti-drug groups and programs. Since 1994 she has been an advisor for the Four Seasons anti-tobacco and anti-drug group where her selflessness has allowed her to connect deeply with the community youth, including non-traditional and underserved students. By implementing Red Ribbon Week campaigns throughout the school district, Ms. Hankins has led the fight against drug abuse, in large part by consistently advocating for her students to become the change they wish to see. She has consistently supported her students along their journey of self-discovery by helping them find their talents and value their self-worth. In this way, every student, mentor, and fellow volunteer who knows her can attest to her zeal for making every individual feel cared for. Even during the floods near her residence in Meridian, Ms. Hankins' first response was to work to ensure the safety, security, and comfort of those around her.

HONORING THE NEW HAMPSHIRE
 PRESERVATION ALLIANCE

HON. ANN M. KUSTER

OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Ms. KUSTER of New Hampshire. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the New Hampshire Preservation Alliance.

For years, the New Hampshire Preservation Alliance has worked to transform the future of our state by protecting our history and our culture. They have saved barns in our countryside, Main Street communities in our valleys, and preserved countless historic locations. I am so grateful for the benefits our community has reaped from the stewardship, rehabilitation, and restoration efforts of the New Hampshire Preservation Alliance.

On behalf of my constituents across New Hampshire's Second Congressional District, I want to thank the New Hampshire Preservation Alliance for all they have done to preserve the integrity of our Granite State. I look forward to our continued work together.

HONORING PAUL BOUDREAU,
 PRESIDENT, MORRIS COUNTY
 CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

HON. RODNEY P. FRELINGHUYSEN

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Paul Boudreau on the occasion of his retirement after 10 years as President of the Morris County Chamber of Commerce, located in the Borough of Florham Park, County of Morris, New Jersey.

Paul A. Boudreau is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire in Durham. After receiving his Masters Degree at the University of Maine, he ran successfully for the Maine House of Representatives in 1976 and 1978. Paul also worked for Scott Paper Company, after his two legislative terms, as Manager of Public Affairs, New England Region.

In 1983, he joined Allied Corporation (Honeywell) and moved to Detroit, Michigan as manager, government and public affairs, for company operations in six mid-western states. In 1996, he returned to Morris Township, New Jersey, as Director of State Government Relations. In this capacity, he was responsible for state and local government relations in North America. He also served for six years as Executive Director of the Honeywell Foundation and was a member of the company's Political Action Committee Board for ten years. During his career at Honeywell, he worked on business-critical issues covering twenty-five states. He retired as Vice President of State and Corporate Relations after twenty-five years with the company.

Paul joined the Chamber in the summer of 2008. He has led the effort to grow the organization from 660 members in 2008 to 840 today. Under his leadership the chamber's Economic Development Corporation is providing value added services to organizations to retain and growing jobs in Morris County. He has served in leadership roles with a number of state and local organizations including the New Jersey Business & Industry Association; the Chemical Industry Council of New Jersey; United Way of Morris County; the Community Soup Kitchen; the Morris County Airport Advisory Committee; the Somerset Hills YMCA and other organizations.

In 2012, Paul was nominated by Governor Chris Christie and confirmed by the New Jersey State Senate to serve with six other commissioners on the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC). PERC is a state administrative agency charged with administering the New Jersey Employer-Employee Relations Act. The agency deals with certain labor relations issues involving public employers, public employees, and unions that represent public employees.

Paul is a strong team player with a proven track record of successfully working with cross functional teams, and worked closely with Chamber staff, Cabinet members and general membership. His leadership has been invaluable to New Jersey and to the preservation and expansion of Picatinny Arsenal in Rockaway Township, and multiple programs that serve active duty servicemen and women, their families, and veterans.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you and our colleagues join me in congratulating Paul on the occasion of his retirement from the Morris County Chamber of Commerce.

HONORING RICHARD DAVIDIAN

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, the Pelham community of which I represent is very fortunate to have so many active and involved members working to improve the neighborhood. One of those individuals, Richard Davidian, has had an especially impactful role for students in Pelham's exceptional school system.

A long-time Pelham Civic Member and Officer, Rich, as he is better known, created and chaired one of the most successful programs in Pelham Civics' history—Help a Child, Change A Life Student Development Initiative. This revolutionary program focuses on students (K–12) from economically challenged households providing access to learning tools and skill development programs designed to move them closer to their true potential. Nothing like this had been done before, and the program rapidly grew across the entire district touching all the schools and grades.

The results were unprecedented—Elementary school students who were performing far below benchmark, were now performing at benchmark; Middle school and high school students who were failing multiple classes were now passing, and some were achieving honors, and high honor roll; Students were now attending advanced placement courses, and college courses. Rich was honored by the Board of Education with the Thomas B. Fenlon Award, which was usually given to retiring Board of Education members.

In addition, Rich chaired the Pelham Civics Good Neighbors Program for 12 years, where his exemplary diligence and attention to detail, combined with his compassion and commitment, was a tremendous source of comfort and hope. Rich is a Retired Partner of a global consulting firm where he was a recognized thought leader in marketing and sales strategy. He and his wife Sona take great pride in their three daughters, two sons-in-law and first grandchild.

Rich is honored as humanitarian, visionary, and exemplary Pelham Civic. It is no wonder then why the Civics have decided to honor Rich at their 2018 Dinner Dance. He is most deserving of the recognition. I want to congratulate Rich on this wonderful honor and thank him for all he has accomplished on behalf of Pelham and its residents.

CONGRATULATING CHARLES DAVID WOODBURN

HON. STENY H. HOYER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to congratulate Charles David Woodburn, Jr. on his retirement on November 2 after thirty-four years of distinguished service to this House.

Charles David "Dave" Woodburn, Jr. was first hired by former Clerk of the House Donn Anderson in September 1984 as a Sales Clerk in the Office Supply Store. He moved through the ranks of Special Order Clerk, Purchasing Department, to Inventory Control Specialist from 1984–2002. When the Chief Administrative Office underwent a reorganization, Dave joined the furniture organization.

Dave has always been recognized as a diligent and hard worker, with a strong work ethic. In the furniture organization he held many positions, including Supervisor and Manager for Receiving and Warehousing. Eventually, he was asked to serve as the Director of the Logistics and Distribution Department. This department was expanded to include Receiving and Warehousing, Logistics and Distribution, and Workflow Management. In addition to these duties, since 2008, Dave has played an integral role in the Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery (BCDR) team with the U.S. House of Representatives. His official title is Capability Manager, responsible for providing logistical support and furniture needs for all House emergency preparedness activities.

One notable contribution that Dave made to the House was his participation in the October 17, 2001 "Response Project" related to the anthrax incident on Capitol Hill. All Members, Committees, and Staff were able to be relocated to an alternate location, and Dave and his team were responsible for all logistical aspects of this project. He was commended for his contribution to this effort while ensuring that the business of the House went forward unhindered. Dave and his team have also been at the forefront of the Cannon Renewal Project since 2013. He received the CAO Knowledge Award, presented by Chief Administrative Officer Jay Eagan in 2007, for his extensive knowledge of the House and its operations.

Dave plans to spend his retirement years with his still very active parents, his wife of fourteen years, Marie, and his six children and ten grandchildren. He has said how much he is looking forward to returning to his hometown of Leonardtown, in Maryland's Fifth District, where he was born and raised, after a long and storied career with the House of Representatives. Just as important as the work he performed over the years, Dave passed along his extensive logistics and furniture experience to his staff and coworkers as a mentor.

On behalf of the entire House, I congratulate Dave for his many years of dedication and outstanding contributions to this institution. I wish him many wonderful years of fulfillment with family and community in his retirement.

HONORING JOHN H. DIRZIUS ON THE OCCASION OF HIS RETIREMENT

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Ms. DeLAURO. Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to rise today to join the many family, friends, and colleagues who have gathered to extend my heartfelt congratulations to my dear friend, John H. Dirzius, as he marks his retirement from the American Postal Workers Union. In his nearly fifty years of union service, John has been a strong advocate for his members. His commitment and dedication have made a difference for thousands of working families and I have no doubt his leadership will be missed.

John began his postal career in the Post Office of Seymour, Connecticut in 1970. As one might remember, the 1970's were a transformative time in our culture with a number of unique fashion and hair trends for both men and women. Just two years into his postal career, John was issued a notice of removal for having, in the opinion of the local Postmaster, "long hair." Taking issue with the "reasoning" behind the notice for removal, John sought to file a union grievance and soon learned that working in such a small office did not offer the greatest of union representation. Eventually, John filed an EEOC complaint and won his job back—and it was this incident that marked the start of his 46-year career in the postal union.

In his earliest years, John played a major role in the merging of Seymour's small Local with that of the larger Local in New Haven, creating what would be the first of many Area Locals in the newly merged American Postal Workers Union. In 1973, John was appointed as a union organizer and within a few years, the New Haven Area Local was well on its way to becoming one of the largest in the APWU. Never forgetting his early roots as a postal worker in Seymour, John steadily rose through the ranks, serving in various leadership positions within the Local and State APWU. He served for over two decades as the President of the Greater Connecticut Area Local, representing postal workers employed in more than two-hundred facilities throughout the state, before his appointment as the Northeast Regional Coordinator—a position in which he has served for the last eight years.

John's commitment to the labor movement has extended far beyond the APWU. He has been an active member of the AFL–CIO, once serving as a State Federation Vice-President, he is a past Vice-President of the Greater New Haven CT Labor Council and has volunteered as a community mediator. In addition to all of this, John has also found the time to volunteer his time with numerous civic and youth