THANK YOU TO GENERAL
CHARLES F. "CHUCK" WALD

HON. MICHAEL T. McCAUL

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 9, 2018

Mr. McCAUL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the retirement of General Charles F. "Chuck" Wald (USAF, Ret.) from Deloitte Services, LP. Having served in the United States Air Force for 35 years as a command pilot with more than 3,600 flying hours and 430 combat hours, rising to the ranks of four-star general, and then going to advise top Department of Defense officials, he is a true patriot.

General Wald earned his commission in the United States Air Force (USAF) through the Air Force ROTC program in 1971 at North Dakota State University. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in pre-law from North Dakota State University, and earned his Master's Degree in International Relations from Troy University. He has completed coursework at Harvard University and the National War College. He has also been awarded an Honorary Doctor of Laws degree from North Dakota State University.

General Wald served combat time as an O-2A forward air controller in Vietnam and as an F-16 pilot flying over Bosnia, in addition to serving as a T-37 instructor pilot and F-15 flight commander. During his tenure in the USAF he also served as the Chief of the U.S. Air Force Combat Terrorism Center, Support Group Commander, Operations Group Commander, and Special Assistant to the Chief of Staff for the Quadrennial Defense Review. He was the Director of Strategic Planning and Policy at Headquarters U.S. Air Force, served on the Joint Staff as the Vice Director for Strategic Plans and Policy, and was the U.S. Air Force Deputy Chief of Staff for the Air and Space Operations at the Pentagon. His tenure in the USAF was matched by top leadership positions that catapulted him to success within the organization.

In September 2001, as the Supporting Commander, General Wald led the development of the coalition air campaign in Operation Enduring Freedom, including the idea of embedding tactical air control parties in ground special operations forces which resulted in the elimination of Taliban forces in Afghanistan. This was a critical mission for U.S. national security following the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001.

In his last position with the USAF, General Wald served as Deputy Commander of U.S. European Command (USEUCOM) from 2002 until his retirement in July 2006. In this position, he was responsible for U.S. forces operating across 91 countries in Europe, Africa, Russia, parts of Asia, the Middle East, and most of the Atlantic Ocean. This position was of paramount responsibility and General Wald demonstrated his expertise and passion for ensuring U.S. interests abroad by implementing the European Command Strategic Plan that included energy assurance and sustainment for the EUCOM Area of Responsibility (AOR).

General Wald currently serves as the Vice Chairman and Senior Advisor for Government and Public Services Practice at Deloitte Services, LP. In this role, he is responsible for providing senior leadership in strategy and relationships with the U.S. Department of Defense. Given his long-time commitment to the USAF, he is a subject matter specialist in weapons procurement and deployment, counterterrorism, and international energy security policy.

General Wald has been honored with numerous military awards and decorations, including the Defense Distinguished Service Medal, Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal, Defense Superior Service Medal, and several others. His distinguished career reflects his commitment to a life of service to our great nation and the American people.

Mr. Speaker, I invite my colleagues to join me in thanking General Wald for his life-long service, sacrifice, and commitment to our nation, and wish him the very best of luck as he sets forth on the next chapter of his life.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE
STEVE WORTHLEY

HON. KEVIN MCCARTHY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 9, 2018

Mr. MCCARTHY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today, along with my colleague, DEVIN NUNES, to recognize Tulare County Supervisor Steve Worthley. This year, Steve is retiring from his position on the Tulare County Board of Supervisors, where he currently serves as chairman, following two decades of service to his community.

Born and raised in Tulare County, Steve graduated from Dinuba Union High School in 1971 as valedictorian, earned a degree in history from Occidental College, and got his law degree at the University of the Pacific. He started practicing law in 1978 and opened his own firm, where he still practices law, in 1981.

Steve was elected to the Tulare County Board of Supervisors in 1998, and represents the communities across the northern part of Tulare County, including Dinuba, Cutler Orosi, Woodlake, Ivanhoe, Goshen, and Visalia. These cities are part of a keystone region of California's Central Valley, an area famous for its rich legacy of leadership in our nation's agricultural industry.

Recognizing the importance that life-giving water plays in our community, Steve has been a tireless advocate for the Temperance Flat Reservoir project, which will improve water supplies and availability for local farmers and Central Valley and Tulare County communities. In fact, he serves as the President of the San Joaquin Valley Water Infrastructure Board, which is dedicated to developing funding sources for the Temperance Flat Reservoir project. Steve also understands that the Sequoia National Forest and the Giant Sequoias are critical to the local economy, bringing tourists from all over the country and world to see these natural wonders. As a Tulare County Supervisor, he has helped lead the fight to ensure our National Forests are healthy and managed in a fashion that can reduce the threat of catastrophic fires, which can threaten the Giant Sequoias, release pollution into the air we breathe, and damage the Sequoia National Forest's critical watershed. Steve is also a former chairman and member of the Governing Board of the San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District, where he has been a consistent voice for commonsense reforms to the myriad of Federal air pollution regulations, all the while continuing to clean up the air we breathe.

Outside of his official duties with Tulare County, Steve is locally known for his membership and leadership as a past president of the Dinuba Elementary School Board, as well as for his active role in Dinuba's Rotary Club and at his church, Dinuba Christian Church.

Steve retires leaving a lasting positive mark on our community, and we will forever be grateful for his advice, insights, and counsel over the years to advance the interests of Tulare County. He will be remembered fondly in Tulare County for his tireless dedication to his constituents and his advocacy on the issues that impacted them the most. As Steve begins this new chapter of his life, we wish him, his wife, Vicki Lyn, and his four children all the best.

RECOGNIZING 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF AURORA INTERFAITH COM-MUNITY SERVICES

HON. MIKE COFFMAN

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 9, 2018

Mr. COFFMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 50th anniversary of Aurora Interfaith Community Services, a non-profit agency that has created a remarkable legacy. The Aurora Interfaith Community Services has provided compassion and care to those in need within the Aurora community since its inception in 1968.

In 1968, Aurora's first community service agency was created then by a group of women and several church organizations. These pioneers recognized the needs of the less fortunate members of our community, and they created this remarkable organization to address those needs. Back then, Aurora Interfaith Community Services initiated the collection of food, clothing, and other supplies for distribution. The Aurora Interfaith Community Services still provides these services today.

I would also like to recognize the executive director, Judith M. Barrow, Ph.D., and the volunteers and staff of the Aurora Interfaith Community Service. I congratulate them and their predecessors for all they have done for Aurora over the past 50 years and I look forward to seeing how Aurora Interfaith Community Services will continue to serve those in need for the next 50 years.

It is an honor to recognize all for their dedicated service to our entire community in Aurora, Colorado.

CELEBRATING THE 2018 AG BUSINESS OF THE YEAR: AGRIAN, INC.

HON. JIM COSTA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 9, 2018

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise alongside my colleague, DAVID VALADAO, to commemorate Agrian, Inc. as the Fresno Chamber of Commerce's 2018 Baker Peterson Franklin Ag Business of the Year. Agrian, Inc. has devoted itself to providing innovative and creative solutions to some of farming's most pertinent issues, and thus is a fitting recipient of this award.

Since its founding in Clovis, California in 2004, Agrian, Inc. has striven to provide consistent documentation for growers, agronomists, crop advisors, retailers and food processors. Utilizing their software, Agrian provides compliance, agronomy, precision farming, sustainability and analytic tools to local farmers in the Central Valley.

Because of the leadership of cofounder and CEO Nishan Majarian and President Richard Machado, Agrian has become the first agriculture software company to operate cloud-based software, creating a paradigm shift in the industry and significantly increasing documentation efficiencies. Additionally, Agrian, Inc. has expanded internationally to Armenia and Nepal. Due to this expansion, its software has documented over one billion acres and has over 200,000 users. If that wasn't impressive enough, Agrian has built the largest crop protection label database in the world with 11,000 manufacturer-reviewed labels.

In recent years, Agrian has continued to demonstrate its independent leadership while recognizing the value of establishing meaningful partnerships. They have been a steadfast supplier of local organizations such as the Central California Food Bank, Marjoree Mason Center, Philip Patino School of Entrepreneurship, the Planet Foundation and City of Clovis community policing. Agrian is also committed to preparing future leaders of agriculture. Agrian has an internship program with Fresno

State, which offers students the opportunity to gain firsthand knowledge in the industry.

Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I ask my colleagues to join me and Mr. VALADAO in honoring Agrian, Inc. as the Fresno Chamber of Commerce's 2018 Baker Peterson Franklin Ag Business of the Year. Congratulations to the entire Agrian team for receiving this special award. I ask that you join me in wishing them continued success.

HONORING GARY HEITZLER

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 9, 2018

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, Saint Joseph's Medical Center located in my district hosted its annual Ball on November 3 and chose an outstanding slate of honorees for the event. One of those wonderful honorees is Doctor Gary Heitzler, a very active member on the Hospital's Medical Board.

A D.D.S., Dr. Heitzler is a product of the New York City public school system and received a scholarship and graduated from CUNY at Queens College. While at dental school, he was very active in community outreach programs and assisted in providing education and much needed dental care to many underserved communities on Long Island. He received the American Dental Association's Children's Dentistry and Service Award upon graduating from dental school. Wanting to continue his efforts in providing education and dental care to the underserved, Dr. Heitzler decided to complete a two-year Pediatric Dental residency at Brookdale Medical Center located in Brooklyn, New York. He received his Certificate in Pediatric Dentistry in 1994 and opened his own practice that same year in Westchester County.

As his private practice grew, Dr. Heitzler realized that he still was not reaching the pediatric population that most needed quality pediatric dental care. He reached out to Saint Joseph's Medical Center as the hospital had the reputation of providing quality healthcare to the community and never turning any patient away who needed help. In February 2001, Saint Joseph's Medical Center and Dr. Heitzler opened the hospital's first ever Pediatric Dental Center. The practice grew very rapidly as this much-needed service was welcomed by the community. Now, in 2018, Dentistry For Children at Saint Joseph's Medical Center has over 17,000 active patients, ten dental chairs, a staff of over twenty and countless happy parents and children.

In addition to the hospital-based practice, Dr. Heitzler maintains two other pediatric dental practices located in Hastings-on-Hudson, NY and Peekskill, NY. Outside of work, he resides in Briarcliff Manor with his wife Melissa, and their three children; Jenna, Spencer and Jackson.

I want to take the opportunity to congratulate Dr. Heitzler on this auspicious occasion and, on behalf of New York's 16th Congressional District, thank him for all the fine work he has done to improve the lives of people in the community.

CONGRATULATING MR. MICHAEL CARRIGAN ON BEING RECOGNIZED AS A ROVING AMBASSADOR FOR PEACE BY THE WORLD PEACE PRIZE AWARDING COUNCIL

HON. DANIEL LIPINSKI

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 9, 2018

Mr. LIPINSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Mr. Michael Carrigan, President of the Illinois AFL-CIO, for being recognized as a Roving Ambassador for Peace by the World Peace Prize Awarding Council. Mr. Carrigan joins an impressive list of leaders who have been honored by the Council, including Ronald Reagan, Mahatma Gandhi, and Yitzhak Rabin. When he is formally commended on November 8, Mr. Carrigan will be the first Illinois resident to receive this honor.

Throughout his career, Mr. Carrigan has worked tirelessly on behalf of working families and all Illinoisans. His understanding of state and local politics, and a strong grasp of labor issues, helped him rise through the ranks as an official with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. As Mr. Carrigan's responsibilities grew, his good reputation spread, and in 2007 he was unanimously elected by the Illinois AFL-CIO executive board to be the organization's president. The broad base of support for Mr. Carrigan's leadership demonstrates his credentials as an effective leader and his ability to work collaboratively and build coalitions. Earlier in his career Mr. Carrigan also served our community as an elected official, through his 13 years on the Decatur City Council and as mayor.

Speaking about Mr. Carrigan's accomplishments, Fr. Sean McManus, Chief Judge of the World Peace Prize Awarding Council, notes the relationship between peace and the labor movement. I share this sentiment, as I believe that standing up for better conditions for all workers helps to lift up societies across the world. Mr. Carrigan's record of service for Illinois workers is an exemplary model for those who wish to dedicate themselves to this cause. I am pleased to have known Mike throughout my tenure in Congress and call him a friend. I've witnessed his hard work and focus on the needs of all working families firsthand.

I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Mr. Michael Carrigan on this outstanding accomplishment and on his record of leadership that led to this recognition. Illinois workers are fortunate to be represented by such a leader, and I wish Mr. Carrigan continued success.
