

#276, which includes Tejon Ranch, was re-established earlier this year, doubling the previous designation in square footage and improving the flow of commerce throughout California. Finally, land at Tejon Ranch has been used to honor our nation's veterans at the Bakersfield National Cemetery, which offers our heroes a dignified place of final rest amid the stunning vistas of the Tehachapi Mountains.

Tejon Ranch is also a keystone region for ecological conservation. Established on June 17, 2009, the Tejon Ranch Conservancy was the product of a collaborative effort between the Tejon Ranch Company and conservation groups to protect the one-of-a-kind natural beauty of the Tejon Ranch landscape. To meet these needs, an overwhelming majority of ranch property—an immense 240,000 acres—has been dedicated to conservation. This land is now used by visitors from around the world to explore the breathtaking natural gem of the Tehachapi Mountains and to view wildlife, such as the California Condor, in their natural environment.

Tejon Ranch is a one-of-a-kind place that has been critical to the success of Kern County. While Tejon Ranch has offered our community innumerable economic and recreational benefits, it has above all else illustrated what it means to be a good steward of the land. Tejon Ranch has left a defining mark on our county, our state, our nation, and indeed the world. There's no other place on earth like Tejon Ranch and this land and the values it represents remain a key component of Kern County's core essence. I am confident that it will continue to play this role for centuries to come.

HONORING CHRIS KING

HON. LUKE MESSER

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. MESSER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today, on behalf of the entire 6th Congressional District of Indiana, to recognize Chris King for his contribution to our state and Shelby County.

As a member of the 6th District Manufacturing Advisory Committee, Chris regularly met with my team to discuss emerging manufacturing issues that are impacting Indiana. The Shelbyville community is better off because of his extraordinary leadership and service.

On a personal note, Chris was among my earliest and most vocal supporters. He is a loyal friend and wise adviser. I want to thank him for his incredible support of my work in Congress, and wish Chris continued success in all that God has planned for him and his family.

HONORING FAMILY CAREGIVER RESOURCE CENTER

HON. J. LUIS CORREA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. CORREA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the services and contributions the Family Caregiver Resource Center (FCRC) offers to the Family Caregivers in Orange County.

The FCRC is a non-profit organization, established in 1988 to assist family caregivers who care for adults over sixty who are frail or adults age 18 and older with brain impairing conditions.

The FCRC aids through various multicultural services which include family consultation, assessment and care planning, counseling, support groups, respite assistance, and education. In fact, in 1997, the FCRC started the first Vietnamese service program in the United States to ensure that the Vietnamese community in Orange County receive the services they need in their language.

The continuous devotion to serve the Family Caregivers and their families have earned the FCRC many awards such as Community Partner of the year from National Multiple Sclerosis Society Pacific South Coast Chapter in 2016, the Innovations in Alzheimer's Disease Caregiving Legacy Award in 2014 at the National Center on Aging, and the Diverse/ Multicultural Communities Award and Legacy Award from CSUF Institute Gerontology in 2008.

While I join you all to recognize family caregivers across the country on the National Caregiver Month, it is with great pleasure that I recognize the Family Caregiver Resource Center for its contributions, dedication, and efforts to help vulnerable caregiver families in Orange County.

IN RECOGNITION OF MR. WAYNE R. REYNOLDS

HON. MARK MEADOWS

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. MEADOWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Wayne R. Reynolds of Washington, D.C. Mr. Reynolds served as Chairman of the Ford's Theatre Society Board of Trustees from 2006 to 2012. I would like to acknowledge Mr. Reynolds for his dedication to expanding the Society's educational programming and for transforming Ford's Theatre into a center for learning dedicated to the life and legacy of Abraham Lincoln.

Wayne R. Reynolds attended the University of California, Los Angeles for his undergraduate education, receiving a degree in economics in 1977 then continuing at Pepperdine Law School, where he earned his J.D. in 1981.

Mr. Reynolds serves as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the American Academy of Achievement. Through his hard work and vision, the Academy has expanded to include the Museum of the American Dream, the Achievement Television Network, and the annual International Achievement Summit. These organizations bring together leaders and scholars from diverse disciplines to share their experience with graduate students from across the globe.

The American Academy of Achievement's Salute to Excellence program has provided over 10,000 students the opportunity to develop their leadership skills. Many students who participated in the program have received scholarships through the Academy's sponsorship.

Wayne R. Reynolds is highly regarded among his peers and has received numerous awards, including the Woodrow Wilson Award for Public Service, the National Geographic Evening of Exploration Award, and the Smithsonian's National Portrait Gallery Founding Chairs Award. His dedication to promoting leadership and his devotion to President Lincoln's legacy have made him worthy of the high esteem that accompanies each of these awards. It is my distinct honor to recognize Mr. Wayne R. Reynolds' dedication to Ford's Theatre Society Board of Trustees and his commitment to creating a better future.

TRIBUTE TO MAJOR KYLE SCHULL

HON. KEN CALVERT

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. CALVERT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to Major Kyle Schull who will receive an honorable discharge from the United States Marine Corps after over eleven years of service. I had the distinct pleasure of hosting Major Schull in my office as a Defense Fellow in 2015. Major Schull's extensive military experience benefited the office tremendously and he offered a unique perspective, was always prepared, and took on any task with a smile.

Major Schull was born in 1984 and grew up with his three younger siblings, Katie, Kari and Collin, in the beautiful, albeit chilly, town of Watertown, South Dakota where his parents, Lee and Jan, still live today. In 2003, Major Schull graduated from Watertown High School.

Upon his graduation, Major Schull was accepted to the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, MD, where he earned a B.S. in Political Science. Upon his graduation from the Naval Academy, Kyle was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Following commissioning, Major Kyle Schull served at his first duty station, the Marine Air Control Squadron 4 Okinawa, Japan, from June 2008 through December 2010 as a Logistics Officer. He was then assigned to Combat Logistics Battalion 6; Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, where he served as the Future Operations Officer from January 2011 through April 2012. Major Schull was then promoted to Transportation Support Company Commander at Combat Logistics Battalion 6; Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, where he remained from April 2012 through February 2014. He was then assigned to Combat Logistics Regiment 2; Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, as the Assistant Regimental Operations Officer from March 2014 through August 2014. In 2014, Major Schull was selected for the Department of Defense Congressional Fellowship Program where he served as my Defense Fellow in support of California's 42nd Congressional District from January to December of 2015. During his time as my Defense Fellow, he met his lovely future wife, Chelsea Schull. Following his fellowship, he was assigned to be the Staff Secretary and Legislative liaison to the Deputy Commandant of the Marine Corps for Installations and Logistics from January 2016 to May of 2018. He served in an array of positions within Headquarters Marine Corps Installations and Logistics Command and currently serves as the 04xx Occ Field Sponsor and LPC-3 Section Head.

As a civilian, Major Schull enjoys traveling, helping others realize their love of traveling, and hopes to one day see the Pyramids. Kyle is also an entrepreneur at heart and will begin working for his family's company, Building Products, Inc. and Schull Construction Co., after separating from the Marine Corps. I have no doubt that he will succeed in this new phase of his life.

During his time in my office, Kyle focused his efforts on defense acquisition, defense appropriations, the intelligence community, veterans affairs, and many other policy areas. He was an invaluable resource to all my staff and I would also like to take this opportunity to thank his family for supporting him through the years; he truly is one impressive guy. On behalf of everyone in the office, I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to Major Schull for all his hard work, his dedicated service to our country and let him know that my office door is always open to him.

HONORING GREG RUST

HON. LUKE MESSER

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. MESSER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today, on behalf of the entire 6th Congressional District of Indiana, to recognize Greg Rust for his contribution to our state and Decatur County.

On a personal note, I have known Greg and his wife Judy since childhood. His family has always been kind to my family. And, Greg is a loyal friend and wise adviser. Whether he knows it or not, Greg's consistent encouragement has been an inspiration to me throughout my career.

Without a doubt, Greg was among my earliest and most vocal supporters in Decatur County. I want to thank Greg for his incredible support of my work in Congress. I wish him continued success in all that God has planned for him and his family.

TRIBUTE TO FRED D. GARRETT, SR.

HON. JAMES E. CLYBURN

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. CLYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a fellow South Carolinian and longtime friend, Fred D. Garrett, Sr.

Born in Salley, South Carolina to the late Rev. John E. Garrett and First Lady Mattie Baston Garrett, Fred Garrett grew up in his father's churches. He carried throughout his life the values of servant leadership and community engagement he learned through his childhood experiences in the church.

After graduating high school in 1943, Mr. Garrett enlisted in the United States Navy and served through the end of World War II in a segregated unit. Upon completing his military service, he returned home to South Carolina where he enrolled in South Carolina State College. He graduated in 1951 with a Bachelors in Agricultural Science with plans to modernize the state's agricultural industry.

Mr. Garrett began his career in public service working for Florence County, South Carolina as an agent for Clemson University's Agricultural Extension Program. Shortly after marrying his wife of 66 years, Mamie Williams Garrett, he moved to Greenville, South Carolina and became Clemson's Agricultural Extension Agent there.

In 1958 he was hired part-time as an employee of the then Watkins, Arnold and Sheppard Mortuary. He quickly became a part-owner/manager of the business, which changed its name to Watkins, Garrett & Woods Mortuary. Fred Garrett, Sr. became sole owner of the mortuary in 1993.

Mr. Garrett has served his community in numerous positions including his role as a lifetime member of the NAACP, membership with the Greenville County Planning Commission, a member of the Rainbow PUSH Steering Committee, board member with the Greenville Urban League/Urban League Upstate, and board member of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Garrett was also a member of the Mu Pi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. He received many awards for his service and business leadership, most recently a Business and Community Service Award from the Minority Economic Development Institute.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my colleagues to join me in honoring the life, leadership, and legacy of service of this outstanding South Carolinian.

SENATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Title IV of Senate Resolution 4, agreed to by the Senate of February 4, 1977, calls for establishment of a system for a computerized schedule of all meetings and hearings of Senate committees, subcommittees, joint committees, and committees of conference. This title requires all such committees to notify the Office of the Senate Daily Digest—designated by the Rules Committee—of the time, place and purpose of the meetings, when scheduled and any cancellations or changes in the meetings as they occur.

As an additional procedure along with the computerization of this information, the Office of the Senate Daily Digest will prepare this information for printing in the Extensions of Remarks section of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on Monday and Wednesday of each week.
