SHOWING SUPPORT FOR DEDE PHILLIPS AFTER BOBCAT ENCOUNTER

HON. DOUG COLLINS

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 21, 2018

Mr. COLLINS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to highlight the courage of Ms. DeDe Phillips of Hart County. On June 7, Ms.

Phillips faced a dangerous, rabid animal with unselfish resolve.

That day, Ms. Phillips walked into her own yard to an unusual discovery. A bobcat stood by her car for a moment before lunging at this grandmother.

Knowing that her five-year-old granddaughter was safe just inside her home, Ms. Phillips decided not to call for help. Instead, she wrestled with the bobcat until she pinned it down and suffocated it with her hands.

Only after the animal's death did Ms. Phillips learn that it was rabid and that she would have to undergo a series of rabies shots and medical care to address her broken fingers and other wounds left by the cat's claws and teeth.

Mr. Speaker, I grieve with the Phillips family for this attack, and at the same time I want to celebrate the strength and selflessness that Ms. Phillips displayed by protecting her family from any possible harm.

Northeast Georgia is full of courageous, capable people, and Ms. DeDe Phillips exemplifies their spirit. As she recovers, men and women in our region and around this country are recognizing her for the hero that she is.

INTRODUCTION OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COURTS HOME RULE ACT

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 21, 2018

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, today, I introduce the District of Columbia Courts Home Rule Act. This bill would give the Council of the District of Columbia authority over the jurisdiction and organization of the local D.C. courts. The 1973 Home Rule Act (HRA) expressly prohibits D.C. from enacting any law with respect to any provision of the D.C. Code title that relates to these matters.

Forty-five years after the passage of the HRA, matters involving the D.C. courts almost never come to Congress, so Congress knows almost nothing about the District's courts. Notwithstanding the importance of D.C.'s courts to District residents, the D.C. Council, which is the repository of knowledge and experience for the District's criminal and civil justice systems and the accountable body to our residents, is irresponsibly left on the sidelines while Congress remains the sole entity to correct flaws in the District's courts.

Under the HRA, the D.C. Council has no authority to "enact any act, resolution, or rule with respect to any provision of title 11 of the District of Columbia Code (relating to organization and jurisdiction of the District of Columbia courts)." Matters in title 11 include rules of criminal and civil procedure, court administration, the number of authorized judges, the branches of the courts, the rules of jury service and admission to the bar. The bill would strike this limitation on the D.C. Council's authority.

The District has never had authority over its local courts, even when it was responsible for paying for their operations. Under the National Capital Revitalization and Self-Government Improvement Act of 1997, the federal government assumed the costs for several state-level functions, including the courts. This bill would not affect the authority of the President to nominate, or the Senate to confirm, local judges.

This is an important step to increase home rule for the District, and I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

HONORING LIEUTENANT COLONEL SHAUN EASLEY

HON. DENNY HECK

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 21, 2018

Mr. HECK. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, Department of Defense and Intelligence Overhead Architecture Subcommittee, I rise today to congratulate United States Air Force Lieutenant Colonel (Lt. Col.) Shaun Easley for his exceptionally meritorious service while serving as a Congressional Liaison Officer at the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA) from December 2015 to June 2018.

While at NGA, Lt. Col. Easley exhibited superior leadership and became a well of institutional knowledge for the organization. Thanks to his exemplary work, the relationship between Congress and NGA is stronger than ever. He is a force-multiplier, widely known for the quality of his work by officials across the government.

Lt. Col. Easley has a knack for making the seemingly inaccessible, within reach. When I have worked with the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency, I find them to be professional and informed on parliamentary procedure, which enhances productivity between the legislative and executive branches of government. The high level of detail in the discourse between the NGA and me reflects back on Lt. Col. Easley's extensive experience and expertise, which he clearly provides to key agency stakeholders informing them on the intricacies of the legislative process.

I watched closely when the NGA Director, Robert Cardillo, testified during the agency's first open hearing in front of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in 2016. The Director's comprehensive Statement for the Record helped enrich transparency, and drive understanding of NGA's unique capabilities and mission with members of Congress and the American public. It came as no surprise to me that Shaun supported that mission, continuing the high standards set by the NGA personnel. Shaun's impact will long be appreciated by the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency and by my fellow members of Congress.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing and thanking Lieutenant Colonel Easley for his dedication and service on behalf of the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency and the United States, and to wish him continued success in his future endeavors.
