

have dedicated their lives to my office and to the constituents we serve.

Here in Washington, D.C., my chief of staff, Dave Natonski, and his team—Haley Brady, Maddie Jurden, Michael Brooks, Taylor Huhn, and Eli Woerpel—have been great. They have worked hard.

My district team holds a distinction that, up until the last few months, we have never had one staffer leave in over 8 years, all of them staying: Molly Haase, my district director, and her team: Susan Metsker, Cheyenne Worley, Heidi Cashman, and Ethan Patterson.

Of course, great thanks to my communications director, CJ Grover, who helped me write this speech and is still working to this day on many projects, and my original staffer, my original staffer back from my legislative days who is still with me, Cate Duerst.

Cate has been my scheduler multiple times. She has helped me run campaigns. We have had a lot of good times. She has been my right-hand gal making everything in this office run smoothly, and I couldn't have done this job without her and everyone on this team.

Of course, there is my first chief of staff, Travis Smith, and my long-serving legislative directors, Patrick Carroll and Joe Eanello, and others who have worked so hard along the way, Amanda Hand and Jennifer Dreiling, have helped work on campaigns and, of course, my first campaign chairman, Cord Maxwell. I have had a great group of people that have been in my corner.

My road began of humble roots and it took me all the way to the United States House.

I am a proud Kansan and I am a proud Jayhawk. Probably one of my most proud service opportunities I have ever had was to serve as Student Body President of my university at KU, and I have always been a faithful Jayhawk ever since.

I have believed in service to others, from my days back in the Kansas Legislature, where I served with great colleagues like Jason Watkins or Mike O'Neal, to my time here in the U.S. House with my friends Bob Dole and Ben Quayle and so many others who are great treasures.

I have been blessed with friendships and met so many wonderful people along the way. That is perhaps what I will miss the most: the people you serve with.

Congress gets a bad rap, but I can attest that some of the most dedicated, passionate people who love this country, both Democrats and Republicans, are some of the finest, kindest, and sincere people you will ever meet.

To my colleagues in this distinguished body, it has been an honor of a lifetime to serve with you.

And to my constituents, the voters of the Third District, thank you for trusting in me to serve you.

To my supporters, those who have helped me campaign, who made it possible for me to serve, thank you for your faith. I believe the Third District is the best district in America, and I was so proud to be a voice for you, and I am truly humbled to have had the opportunity for these 8 years.

So as I leave Congress in a few days and I cast a vote for the final time on behalf of the people of Kansas, I will do so being grateful for having served. I will leave more hopeful and more optimistic for the future of our great Nation, for God has blessed me with this moment to serve, and I am forever thankful.

May God bless this Congress, and may God always bless the United States of America.

For the last time, Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.
