HONORING WAR HERO WALTER “BERT” MINTUS

(Mr. ROTHFUS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROTHFUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of western Pennsylvania native and war hero, Petty Officer Third Class Walter “Bert” Mintus.

Hailing from Portage, Pennsylvania, in 1942, Bert enlisted in the U.S. Navy and served as a radioman for Torpedo Squadron Fifty-One during World War II. This was the same torpedo squadron in which our 41st President, George H.W. Bush, served during the war.

On July 27, 1944, during a mission over the Pacific, his aircraft came under enemy fire from the Japanese and was shot down. Afterward, Bert and his brothers in arms on the plane were listed as missing in action and later presumed dead.

For nearly 74 years, the Mintus family was unsure of the fate that befell their beloved family member. That changed this year. Thanks to the diligent efforts of the U.S. Navy, this past June, Bert's remains were identified; and last Thursday, Bert's family finally welcomed their war hero home.

May God grant this son of western Pennsylvania eternal rest.

HONORING ALBERTA DANIELS

(Mr. PAYNE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mrs. Alberta Daniels of East Orange, New Jersey, for her lifetime of service.

Mrs. Daniels is like a mother to many of us in public life from Essex County, New Jersey. I know that she has helped me learn to be a better public servant.

Mrs. Daniels spent 25 years at RCA in Harrison, New Jersey.

In her late forties, Mrs. Daniels started a new chapter as a senior correctional officer. She spent 14 years in corrections working for the State of New Jersey and helping open the first halfway house for women in our State.

Since retiring from her distinguished life in public safety and corrections, Mrs. Daniels has been an active community servant, and Mrs. Daniels keeps a busy civic schedule as well.

Last week, I had the honor of speaking at a ceremony to rename a street in East Orange Alberta Evelyn Daniels Court. It was a well-deserved honor that she has received from her community because of her lifetime of achievement and service to that area.

Mrs. Daniels, it is well deserved, and you are well loved.

CELEBRATING DIWALI

(Mr. FITZPATRICK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FITZPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, last week, the Indian American community celebrated Diwali, the festival of lights. The holiest day of the Hindu calendar, Diwali celebrates the spiritual victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance. Today, we welcome these amazing community members right here in our Nation's Capitol.

In Bucks and Montgomery Counties, Pennsylvania, I am honored to recognize the Hindu community and members of the Indian American community who celebrated and expressed their faith. Today, I am proud to recognize the several mandirs who serve our community in innumerable ways located in Levittown, Montgomeryville, Warrington, Feasterville-Trevose, Bensalem, and Souderton.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to join the Hindu faith community in celebrating Diwali and applaud their efforts of inclusion and community betterment in Pennsylvania and across America. I look forward to working with these amazing people today and every day.

HONORING POLICE CHIEF MATT DOERING

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of retired Police Chief Matt Doering of Brunswick, Georgia, who passed away on September 4 at 56 years of age after a long battle with cancer.

Chief Doering dedicated his life to serving his community. He spent 34 years working with the Glynn County Police Department, and for 14 of those years, he served as the chief of police. From directing high-profile investigations to personally patrolling the area during hurricanes, Chief Doering was highly respected throughout Glynn County.

After being diagnosed with pancreatic cancer, he retired from the police department and began working with the Glynn County school system.

I am proud and thankful to have had someone with the character of Chief Doering serving his community in the First Congressional District of Georgia.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF MERLE NELL

(Ms. TENNEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. TENNEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor firefighters from across our community. They recently traveled to Albany to honor the life and legacy of Merle Nell, a fire police captain and former chief of the Vernon Fire Department in upstate New York. Family, friends, and fellow firefighters watched as Merle's name was inscribed in the New York State Fallen Firefighters Memorial.

Merle passed away in November 2016 while on the scene of a fire in Vernon Center, New York. His name is now etched on a wall with 2,551 other fallen firefighters from our great State who have given their lives in the line of duty.

Affectionately known as "Skippy" to his family and friends, Merle's legacy of service lives on through his sons and grandsons. Merle's sons, Scott and Mark, serve as fire chiefs in both Verona and Vernon; and his grandsons, Adam and Matthew, are active firefighters in Vernon, and Zachary is a junior firefighter in Verona.

A marine, a father, a postal worker, and a firefighter, Merle's life of service is a true inspiration to everyone in our community. His memory will live on in the hearts of our grateful community both in central New York and in New York State.

HONORING GWINNETT COUNTY POLICE OFFICER ANTWAN TONEY

(Mr. WOODALL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WOODALL. Mr. Speaker, I come to the House floor today to honor an amazing public servant in my community, public servant and a role model, a Gwinnett County police officer by the name of Antwan Toney.

Mr. Speaker, Officer Toney was a California native, but he adopted my local community at the age of 30 and knew that he could change the world from that location. He was working not just to make the world better, but to make us better as individuals—one community, one family, one officer at the time. And, Mr. Speaker, with the infectious smile you see here and a tireless work ethic and boundless energy, he was doing exactly that in my hometown.

Mr. Speaker, I wish I was here just to honor Officer Toney today, but on the afternoon of October 20, when responding to a call, Officer Toney was killed. Mr. Speaker, I am appalled and pained by the senselessness of this young man's murder.

Mr. Speaker, while our community aches over the loss of Officer Toney, we also celebrate the life that he led and the role model that he provided for all of us. Those who have been fortunate enough to know Officer Toney are forever changed for the better by that experience. Of all the places Officer Toney could have served, I am honored that he chose our home to be the place for his incredibly proud work—again, not just to make us safer, but to make us better.

Mr. Speaker, today, I pray for all of those who loved Officer Toney and those whom he loved. I pray for all of his brothers and sisters in uniform who, even in the face of this loss, wake up every single morning and agree to serve once again.

May God bless all of them, Mr. Speaker, and may we give thanks to God that He shares with each and every one of us heroes in our lives, difference makers in our lives, difference makers like Officer Antwan Toney.

ENROLLED BILLS SIGNED

Karen L. Haas, Clerk of the House, reported and found truly enrolled bills of the House of the following titles, which were thereupon signed by the Speaker:

H.R. 3359. An act to amend the Homeland Security Act of 2002 to authorize the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency of the Department of Homeland Security, and for other purposes.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. WOODALL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 5 o'clock and 27 minutes p.m.), under its previous order, the House adjourned until tomorrow, Thursday, November 15, 2018, at 10 a.m. for morning-hour debate.
