STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. REED (for himself, Mr. WHITEHOUSE, Mr. DURBIN, Ms. KLOBUCHAR, and Mr. CARDIN):

S. 2275. A bill to provide for the adjustment of status of certain nationals of Liberia to that of lawful permanent residents and for other purposes; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, today I am introducing the Liberian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act of 2018 along with Senators WHITEHOUSE, DURBIN, KLOBUCHAR, and CARDIN.

In 1989, a seven-year civil war broke out in Liberia that would claim the lives of over 150,000 people and displace more than half of the Liberian population. A second civil war followed from 1999 to 2003. Then in 2014, Liberia's recovering health system faced the challenge of responding to the Ebola virus outbreak in West Africa. As a result of all of these tragedies, thousands of Liberians have sought refuge in the United States, living and working here under the Temporary Protected Status (TPS) and Deferred Enforced Departure (DED) systems.

The simple truth is that the United States is now home to these law-abiding and tax-paying Liberians. They fled violence, disease, and turmoil to come here. Many now have children who are American citizens, some of whom serve in the Armed Forces. They have worked hard, played by the rules, paid their dues, and submitted to rigorous background checks and vetting. And, while I and several of my colleagues have worked for years to urge the extension of legal status for this community, DED for Liberians is set to expire next March.

I have offered the Liberian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act in every Congress since 1999 because this community deserves a long-term solution after decades of uncertainty. If nothing is done, American families will be thrown into crisis and torn apart. This legislation provides legal status and a pathway to citizenship for qualifying Liberian refugees.

This legislation is a much-needed first step for a community in need, and should be part of any bipartisan and comprehensive solution for our broken immigration system. I thank Senators WHITEHOUSE, DURBIN, KLOBUCHAR, and CARDIN for cosponsoring this bill and urge my colleagues to join us to finally provide citizenship for Liberians who contribute so much to our American community.
