

district, having previously taught kindergarten, second grade, and sixth grade. She attended Florida Atlantic University while working as a resident assistant and volunteered with the YMCA. Taylor graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor's degree in psychology and received her master of education degree from the University of West Florida. She plans to become an administrator in the future.

I extend my best wishes to Taylor and look forward to hearing of her continued success in the years ahead.●

TRIBUTE TO CHASEY NIEBRUGGE

● Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, today I recognize Chasey Niebrugge, the Lee County Teacher of the Year from River Hall Elementary School in Alva, FL.

Chasey was named Teacher of the Year because she encompasses all the components of a model teacher. Described as talented, innovative, and committed to expanding learning beyond the classroom, she changed the intensive intervention/exceptional student education program at her school from a program that lacked resources and true inclusion practices to a program that is thriving. Students who were struggling are now flourishing.

Her I/ESE students are a huge part of the school's family and are included in all activities they are able to attend. She creates an engaging, differentiated, and safe classroom environment where her students are expected to do their personal best. Chasey believes that continuing her own learning outside of her classroom is extremely important and a large part of her success as a teacher.

Chasey feels that every single day is a new opportunity for a child to learn. As an educator, she believes it is her responsibility to provide the best learning experience for her students. She has always wanted to teach, believing this to be her passion and that she is meant to be with her students.

Chasey is a graduate from Estero High School and is a former basketball and softball athlete. She is the intensive intervention/exceptional student education teacher at River Hall Elementary School.

I express my sincere thanks and appreciation to Chasey and offer my best wishes on her future endeavors.●

TRIBUTE TO KENNETH NORTH

● Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, today I recognize Kenneth North, the Union County Teacher of the Year from Union County High School in Lake Butler, FL.

Kenneth is more than a teacher; he is a mentor for today's youth to be tomorrow's successful and productive citizens. He does this by providing opportunities for them through competitions, community service, social functions, and daily activities.

In many instances, he sets up practical exercises for his students to work through by coming up with solutions to problems that work best for them. According to Kenneth, this teaches students the principle of taking ownership of problems and giving the solutions that can be applied throughout life.

Kenneth is a Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps instructor with more than 23 years of life experiences around the world. He has been a JROTC instructor with Union County since 2012.

I extend my appreciation to Kenneth for his hard work and congratulate him on this achievement. I wish him continued success in the years to come.●

TRIBUTE TO JENNIFER POWELL

● Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, today I recognize Jennifer Powell, the Leon County Teacher of the Year from Lawton Chiles High School in Tallahassee, FL.

Jennifer received this important recognition because of her innovative lesson plans and tireless work on behalf of her students. Her colleagues consider her an asset to both her students and the school.

After she was named Teacher of the Year, Jennifer's students gave her a standing ovation in their classroom. Jennifer said she loves her students and notes they come to her class every day, prepared to meet any of the challenges she gives them.

Jennifer believes in hard work and thinks that being part of a team is important. Relationships are very important to Jennifer; they are her philosophy for education. If she can form relationships with the students, parents, and the school's administration, she believes anything can happen in and outside of the classroom.

Jennifer has been teaching social studies for the past 11 years. Her first 9 years were spent as a civics teacher at Deerlake Middle School and the past 2 years have been at Lawton Chiles High School. She is a three-time graduate of Florida State University with a bachelor's and master's degree in social science education/curriculum and instruction and a specialist's degree in educational leadership.

I extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to Jennifer for all her hard work and dedication she has given to her students. I wish her continued success in the years to come.●

TRIBUTE TO SARAH RAY

● Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, today I recognize Sarah Ray, the Palm Beach County Teacher of the Year from the Alexander W. Dreyfoos School of the Arts in West Palm Beach, FL.

Sarah professes that everything she does is for her students, and this award is entirely about them. Sarah wants to make sure to help all of her students continue in their educational careers.

Sarah took over the Artists Reaching to Society Club at the school after the passing of its founder. Under her direction, the club organizes an annual arts camp for elementary school students. The camp has grown to include 250 student volunteers and 125 students each summer.

A Google Certified Teacher and District Trailblazer Teacher, Sarah has successfully integrated technology into her classroom. This has helped excite her students about learning while also providing the technological ability to monitor their progress.

Sarah graduated from Dreyfoos School of the Arts in 2000 and earned her bachelor of arts degree from the University of Florida with a major in history and a minor in education. She completed masters-level coursework at Florida Atlantic University. She began teaching at Dreyfoos in 2014 and has served as the school advisory committee chair, senior class adviser, student council adviser, and schoolwide positive behavior.

I extend my best wishes to Sarah and look forward to learning of her continued successes.●

TRIBUTE TO CARLA ROSS

● Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, today I am pleased to recognize Carla Ross, the Escambia County Teacher of the Year from Booker T. Washington High School in Pensacola, FL.

Carla was recognized for bringing enthusiasm into the classroom every day. She has a different style of teaching, with her classroom being more of a hands-on experience, which her students find to be more enjoyable and have excelled in this leaning environment.

Carla is an instructor for the marketing and entrepreneurship academy at Booker T. Washington High School. She became a teacher after moving to Pensacola and has been with Escambia County schools for 35 years.

She never envisioned herself becoming a teacher, having hated school when she was in high school and college. Carla fell in love with this career after working with her students and brought her passion for the business world into the schoolhouse.

She immerses her students into the real world of work, teaching every aspect of running a business, production, advertising, sales, and distribution. This provides nonstop activity for her students to stay on task. They know their work is done under the watchful eye of someone they see as more than a teacher.

I extend my best wishes to Carla for all the hard work she has done for her students. I look forward to hearing of her continued success in the years ahead.●

TRIBUTE TO JENNIFER WINGATE

● Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, today I recognize Jennifer Wingate, the Gilchrist County Teacher of the Year from Trenton High School in Trenton, FL.

In only her second year of teaching in the public school system, Jennifer was named Teacher of the Year because she earned the respect of her students, peers, and administrators. She began her teaching with private music lessons and has directed church choirs and praise teams.

In order to engage students, Jennifer teaches the historical or emotional context of each piece of music they are learning to play. In her first year as band director, her commitment helped the Trenton High School Band receive a superior rating at the district musical assessment for the first time in more than a decade.

Jennifer's motto when teaching her students is S.U.D.A.: spirit, unity, discipline, and attitude. Each of these traits are valued by Jennifer and were adopted from her own mentor.

Jennifer graduated in 2011 from Newberry College in Newberry, SC, with a bachelor of arts degree in applied music. After relocating to Florida, she was hired as the band director and music appreciation teacher for Trenton High School. She also teaches music appreciation to nonband students.

I extend my best wishes to Jennifer for her dedication to her students and music and congratulate her on this award.●

RECOGNIZING TEAM INVICTUS

● Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, today I would like to recognize Team Invictus, the Fort Myers High School robotics team in Fort Myers, FL.

Team Invictus is comprised of Fort Myers High School students and is the first robotics team from Lee County to reach the world competition in Houston, TX. The team built a robot in 6 weeks and won the Rookie All-Star award in Orlando, FL.

The Fort Myers High School robotics program has only existed for 4 months, launching in December 2017, and is helping prepare the students for life after high school. The members of Team Invictus are honored to be a part of this experience as they continue to grow and make history in the Fort Myers community.

I extend my best wishes to Team Invictus and look forward to hearing of their continued success.●

RECOGNIZING VIERA HIGH SCHOOL'S OCEAN SCIENCE ACADEMIC TEAM

● Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, today I recognize Hannah Howe, Alyssa Hofmann, Maggie Zendeherouh, Zack Chace, and Cameron Shearer for qualifying to the National Ocean Sciences Bowl.

These exceptional students from Viera High School are advancing to the 21st Annual National Ocean Sciences Bowl being held in Boulder, CO. The team previously won the Manatee Bowl, which was hosted by the University of Miami Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science.

This year, more than 1,500 students from 231 schools in 31 States competed in 23 regional National Ocean Sciences Bowl competitions. These five students demonstrated their knowledge of the ocean and its role in Earth system science during this year's theme, "Our Ocean Shaping Weather," and proving victorious.

I extend my best wishes to Viera High School's Ocean Science Academic Team and look forward to hearing of their continued success.●
