IN RECOGNITION OF THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ANN ARBOR FARMERS MARKET

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 16, 2019

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 100th anniversary of the Ann Arbor Farmers Market. It is my honor and privilege to recognize its century of dedication and service to the Ann Arbor community.

Since 1919, the Ann Arbor Farmers Market has striven to connect local businesses with members of the Ann Arbor community. Every week, the market invites vendors to sell fresh produce, flowers, artisanal products, baked goods, crafts, and a host of other Michigan goods. All products are sold exclusively by the people who grow or make them, allowing producers and community members to establish meaningful and lasting relationships with one another. People in the Ann Arbor area are invited to stroll the farmers market year-round to experience all it has to offer.

Over the course of 100 years, the Ann Arbor Farmers Market has significantly transformed. From humble beginnings on 4th Avenue in Ann Arbor in 1919, the farmers market has since grown to become a pillar of our community. Today, the farmers market creates a space for over 100 vendors and countless community members to gather. In addition, the farmers market hosts an array of additional special events for all of Ann Arbor to enjoy. Throughout the year, members of our community look forward to the food truck rallies, live music opportunities, cooking demonstrations, and holiday gatherings that the farmers market offers. The Ann Arbor Farmers Market truly fosters an inclusive, lively, and enjoyable environment where all feel welcome, and I cannot thank it enough for its century of exceptional service to our community.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me today in honoring the 100th anniversary of the Ann Arbor Farmers Market. We are grateful for its impactful contributions to our community and wish it many more years of continued success.

NATIVE AMERICAN LANGUAGE VITALIZATION ACT

HON. GREGORIO KILILI CAMACHO SABLAN

OF THE NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 16, 2019

Mr. SABLAN. Madam Speaker, today, I introduce the Native American Language Vitalization Act, which would help preserve the indigenous languages of the United States through grants to postsecondary institutions to support Native American language education programs and the pipeline of language instructors.

Native American languages are part of our nation’s cultural heritage and are as diverse as the rich cultures of American Indians, Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians and the Native peoples of the Pacific U.S. territories. Over the course of our nation’s history, Native Americans have faced discrimination and government policies that restricted or banned the use of their indigenous languages. These policies have contributed to the decline in speakers of Native American languages. Without action, many of these languages, from Chamorro to Refaluwasch to Cherokee, are at risk of disappearing. Congress recognized this urgency in passing the Esther Martinez Act in 2006 to strengthen Native American language immersion programs. However, we must do more at the postsecondary level so that future generations have the programs and quality instructors necessary to not only preserve but increase the use of their ancestral languages.

The Native American Language Vitalization Act invests in indigenous language education by creating a dedicated grant program under the Higher Education Act to provide the resources Native-serving colleges and universities need to develop or strengthen their indigenous language programs. Schools can use the grant to provide in-service training for language teachers, develop curriculum, professional development of faculty, and create innovative programs, including language immersion. Eligible institutions can also partner with other organizations to reach students in early childhood education programs through grade 12.

I thank Representatives SCHRIER, GABBARD and CASE for cosponsoring the bill. I urge my colleagues to support this legislation to help preserve the indigenous languages of the United States for future generations.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE GRAND ILLUMINATION CELEBRATION

HON. WILLIAM R. KEATING

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 16, 2019

Mr. KEATING. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of the 150th anniversary of the Grand Illumination celebration in Oak Bluffs, Massachusetts.

Each year, since 1869, friends, family, and visitors to the island have gathered in the Oak Bluffs Campgrounds to share in this wonderful tradition. What started as an annual ceremony welcome the Governor of Massachusetts to Martha’s Vineyard has become the vibrant and beloved celebration that we know today. Led by the Martha’s Vineyard Camp Meeting Association, those who live in the beautiful Victorian cottages lining the campground, decorate their houses with scores of colorful lanterns. Many of the lanterns have been passed down from friends and families for generations, with some in use for over 100 years.

As the Grand Illumination evening settles in, thousands of people come to the Oak Bluffs Campgrounds to observe the quiet beauty of the dancing lights before them. Neighbors and strangers alike share a serene and spiritual moment of reflection and contemplation as the Grand Illumination ignites the dark night. For 150 years, the people of Oak Bluffs have set an example of togetherness and community for others around the country, setting aside any differences in a show of unity—especially in challenging times when our nation has been in need of unity.

Madam Speaker, on this milestone 150th anniversary of the Grand Illumination, I am proud to honor the Martha’s Vineyard Camp Meeting Association and the people of Oak Bluffs for their dedication to unity and tradition in the community. I ask that my colleagues join me in thanking those who have organized the event, the Martha’s Vineyard Camp Meeting Association and all those who have helped to make it happen. I wish them all the best in the many years to come.
