

HONORING THE VILLAGE OF COPENHAGEN ON ITS 150TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. ELISE M. STEFANIK

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 23, 2019

Ms. STEFANIK. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the Village of Copenhagen on its 150th Anniversary. I am proud to represent a district that is so steeped in history and I want to congratulate every resident of Copenhagen on this occasion.

The Village of Copenhagen grew around the Munger's Mills on the banks of the Deer River starting in 1801. The Village grew up within the Town of Denmark and received its name in protest of the British bombardment of Copenhagen that year; however, the Village of Copenhagen would not be incorporated until 1869. Copenhagen is home to many historically significant sites including the Pinckney Corners Cemetery, founded in 1810, where the bodies of veterans from the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812 are located.

On behalf of New York's 21st Congressional District, I want to congratulate Mayor Clarke and every resident of Copenhagen on this historic occasion. As we look back on and celebrate the decades and centuries behind us, I encourage everyone to also look forward to our bright future ahead.

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 23, 2019

Mr. PANETTA. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the life and legacy of a beloved member of our community on the central coast of California, Mr. Randy Randazzo. Mr. Randazzo made a career out of service and fostered an environment of collectiveness and compassion in his tight-knit community of Carmel Valley, California. His presence in the community cannot be replaced, and his contributions will live on for generations to come.

Randy Randazzo's served not only his community in Carmel Valley, but also his country. He served on the fleet that facilitated the Japanese surrender, signaling the close of World War II. Upon returning to Carmel Valley, Mr. Randazzo's turned to his community. He and his wife, Charlene, owned and operated the local market in Carmel Valley Village, a centric cornerstone for the community. Randy was also active in the Kiwanis, where he worked to empower youth to change the world by investing in their futures.

Among his many achievements, Mr. Randazzo was awarded the Carmel Valley's Good Egg Award for Citizen of the Year twice for his unfailingly generous reputation in the community. Many called Mr. Randazzo the unofficial mayor of Carmel Valley, a tribute to his invaluable and irreplaceable leadership.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in honoring Mr. Randy Randazzo's distinguished career, outstanding citizenship, and immense contributions to both Carmel Valley and the United States of America.

REMEMBERING GEORGE MITROVICH

HON. JOSEPH P. KENNEDY III

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 23, 2019

Mr. KENNEDY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of a dear friend, inspiring public servant and brilliant writer, George Mitrovich.

A native, proud San Diegan, his fingerprints can be found across the city he loved dearly. Even when careers and callings drew him across the country to the East Coast, George's heart never strayed from home.

And one of those jobs that pulled him away was the presidential campaign of my grandfather, Robert F. Kennedy. He was a devoted member of the press team, and his friendship with my family never waned. As the years turned into decades, George was always there. His enthusiasm as infectious as ever as he rattled through stories of politics and baseball, and the pity he felt for anyone silly enough to live anywhere but San Diego.

In the years that followed, George worked for politicians on both sides of the aisle and became a trusted advisor and close friend for countless Members of Congress and Senators.

After his work in Washington came to an end, he returned home to found The City Club of San Diego in 1975 to leverage his greatest skill, building relationships and creating connections.

Over nearly five decades, George brought presidents, senators, authors, athletes, journalists and friends to The City Club to tell stories, confront challenges and strengthen friendships.

But through it all, his greatest love never strayed far from his heart or mind, baseball.

It was that love that helped him as he shepherded Petco Park into San Diego.

And in the months before his passing, he was known to travel with his 2018 Red Sox World Series ring and share it with anyone he came across.

George was a man whose spotlight exposed the greatest traits of every person he met. He will be dearly missed.

As we mourn his loss, my thoughts and prayers are with his wife, La Verle, and his children, Carolyn, Mark and Tim.

IN RECOGNITION OF CLARENCE "BUD" ENNIS FOR HIS EXEMPLARY SERVICE

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 23, 2019

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Clarence "Bud" Ennis, the chairman of the Trenton Recreation Commission who retired in July 2019. His service is worthy of commendation.

A key member of various sports teams during his high school years, Mr. Ennis has always shown a passion for recreation within his community. After graduating from Trenton High School in 1944, he answered the call to serve his country during World War II, training in San Diego and then joining the Marines in the Pacific. When Mr. Ennis returned to Michigan, he attended Central Michigan University and was a member of the university's baseball team. He married his wife Pat in 1949, and together they have three children.

Clarence "Bud" Ennis has served in countless roles in the Trenton community over the years. He founded the Trenton Hockey Association and coached in that role for 10 years. He was appointed to the Trenton Recreation Commission in 1969 and was named chairman in 1994. He continued to serve in that role until his retirement in July 2019. He was inducted into the Trenton Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. In 2013, the field at Slocum Park, on which Mr. Ennis played baseball in high school was dedicated to him and named "Ennis Field." Clarence "Bud" Ennis is a vocal advocate for parks and recreation in the Trenton community, and his lifetime of involvement is a testament to that dedication.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the 48 years of service of Clarence "Bud" Ennis to the Trenton, Michigan community and to his country. His leadership, knowledge, wisdom, and passion will be truly missed on the Trenton Recreation Commission.

HONORING REGAN SMITH

HON. ANGIE CRAIG

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 23, 2019

Ms. CRAIG. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Regan Smith, a rising senior from Lakeville North who just won the World Championship in the 200 meter backstroke set a new world record for this race. Regan's time—2 minutes, 3.35 seconds—shaved over half a second off the previous record.

Regan is the youngest member of the US team. This is only her second year competing at the World Championships, and she's already making waves. Right after winning the 200 meter backstroke, she went on to set yet another world record and win gold in the women's 400-meter relay.

It's an honor to represent a district with such talented athletes competing on the world stage. Seeing Regan and her team at the World Championships has been a joy to watch over the past few weeks. Congratulations to Regan and the entire women's national team. I'm excited to see what they continue to accomplish.

IN COMMEMORATION OF FRANK
FAT'S 80TH ANNIVERSARYHON. DORIS O. MATSUI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 23, 2019

Ms. MATSUI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the late Frank Fat and the 80th anniversary of Frank Fat's Restaurant. As the staff and loyal patrons gather to celebrate this wonderful achievement, I ask all of my colleagues to join me in honoring the Fat family for their profoundly positive contributions to the Sacramento community.

Frank Fat immigrated to the United States in 1919 at the age of 16. In the 1930's Frank would get his lucky break while managing his uncle's Hong Kong Lum restaurant. A customer asked Frank to play a bet on a Keno game in the basement gambling hall. A 50-cent ticket would end up winning the patron $900, but the official had left before the game even began. Frank held onto the winnings for two months before the customer returned. That thankful customer rewarded Frank for his honesty by giving him a business loan—a loan which would materialize into his down payment on a rundown speakeasy that would become the iconic Frank Fat's restaurant.

Frank and his wife, Mary, first opened their humble restaurant on August 31, 1939. When asked his philosophy, Frank stated, "You give people good food, a nice place to eat and make them happy. Pretty simple, really," words that continue to define the restaurant's success. His restaurant at 806 L Street in Sacramento—where it still stands today—quickly became a favorite location for legislators and locals alike. It is said more legislative decisions were made here than in any office at the Capitol, including the legendary "Napkin deal" of 1987 that introduced landmark tort reform.

After Frank's passing in 1992, the Fat family ensured that his legacy lived on by continuing the tradition of serving iconic food and ensured that the restaurant remained an important pillar in our community. Under the continued leadership of the Fat family, the restaurant remains a destination for good food. Frank Fat's has remained an iconic institution, receiving accolades such as the America's Classic James Beard award and most recently, a 2019 Michelin Bib Gourmand. The Fat family not only continues the culinary legacy created by Frank, they remain dedicated in honoring the community they serve by giving back to the region and remain strong advocates for the API community.

Madam Speaker, I hereby commemorate and honor the late Frank Fat, the restaurant that bears his name, its staff, and the entire Fat Family for their dedication to the culinary arts and the people of Sacramento for more than 80 years. I ask all my colleagues to join me in wishing them continued success and thanking them for their service to the Sacramento region.
