

The town incorporated in 1904, and since many of its 35 residents were Danes, the name changed from Modello to Dania.

In 1910, Russian immigrant Louis Brown moved to rural Dania. Brown was the first known Jewish settler in Broward County and opened Brown's Department Store on Main Street, which is now known as Federal U.S. 1.

Thanks to settlers such as Frost and Brown, Dania continued to thrive, soon growing to more than 1,200 residents, and nearly 30,000 today. It was a small yet resilient community that weathered fires and hurricanes that at times devastated the town.

Dania Beach is home to several historic properties and sites—the Bank of Dania, the Poinciana Hotel, the Dania Library & Women's Club, and several private residences once occupied by settlers and pioneers. Dania Beach is home to the first Florida state park named for African Americans. Von D. Mizell-Eula Johnson State Park was named for civil rights activists Dr. Mizell, the area's first black doctor and Johnson, Broward County's first NAACP president.

Madam Speaker, it is a great honor for me to represent the City of Dania Beach in our nation's capital. I thank Mayor Lori Lewellen, the Members of the City Commission, and the city's staff for their many accomplishments that have made the City of Dania Beach a wonderful place to live, work, visit and raise a family.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today in memory of Frank Berto, who passed away on December 8, 2019, at the age of 90 after a lifetime of exemplary public service to his community.

Born in 1929 in Vancouver, British Columbia, to Frank and Elsie Berto, Mr. Berto attended the University of British Columbia, graduating as a mechanical engineer. He soon started work for Standard Oil of New Jersey in Aruba where he met the love of his life, Connie. After marrying in 1956, the couple had their first daughter, Frances, and shortly thereafter moved to California where Mr. Berto obtained his Masters of Science in Mechanical Engineering at the California Institute of Technology. Mr. Berto then began working for Standard Oil of California/Chevron where he spent the next 28 years rising through the ranks to become a senior staff instrument engineer.

In 1973, Mr. Berto started writing about his love of bicycles and engineering on a part-time basis for Bicycling magazine. Mr. Berto served as the magazine's engineering and west coast editor, writing over 160 articles for 19 different magazines in the United States and overseas, including re-writing the bicycle section in the Encyclopedia Britannica. Mr. Berto's passion for biking inspired him to present papers at several international bicycle history conferences and write four books on bicycles, two of which are considered definitive on the subject. After retirement, Mr. Berto enjoyed gardening, spending time with his grandchildren, and driving around Marin County in his 1916 Model T Ford.

Mr. Berto was a well-respected community leader who will be remembered for his generous spirit and commitment to public service. He is survived by his wife Connie, their children Joseph and his wife Dianne, Ben and his wife Marija, Tom and his wife Monica, and Louise and her husband Mack, and four grandchildren: Peter, Iris, John, and Alex. OF OREGON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 3, 2020

Ms. BONAMICI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to one of my constituents, Mr. Leonard Bernhardt, who passed away just before Christmas.

Last year, I was pleased to nominate Leonard and his late wife, Georgene, for the Congressional Coalition on Adoption Institute's Angels in Adoption award. Each year, the Congressional Coalition on Adoption Institute selects individuals, families, and organizations from across the nation who have dem-

Leonard and Georgene worked tirelessly over the years with Holt International Children's Services to find homes for orphaned and abandoned children. They supported family preservation programs for children and families in Korea, Vietnam, Mongolia, Romania, India, and Uganda. Their generosity, compassion, and dedication to adoption and helping birth families made them stand out in Beaverton, Oregon—and around the globe—as an extraordinary couple, very deserving of this award.

I was honored to meet Leonard Bernhardt in November when he visited Washington, D.C. with his family to receive this award. I am saddened by his loss and so grateful for the service of Mr. Bernhardt and his family to Beaverton, the nation, and countless children and families across the world.
