

Africa, other places in Latin America, we have to let them in the country. That is a horrible thing.

We wouldn't like it if a 15-year-old child left the United States and wound up in Nicaragua or Honduras. We would expect them to be returned to their parents.

We are asking this body to pass a law allowing the United States to return single children to their parents and other countries. The other countries would like it.

It is very arrogant of the United States and arrogant of this body to continue the current system in which a child, unaccompanied by their parents, comes here and we have to keep them.

Right now, under the Flores settlement, we have to stop holding people after 20 days near the border, families with children. It is time that we statutorily change that and allow the holding of people for a longer period of time.

We have to do something with sanctuary cities. We have to do something so that, if people break the law and are being held in prisons and being held in jails, the Federal Government has the ability to remove these people from the country.

For whatever motivation, there are people in this country going down the path of having their city—and including people in this House encouraging cities—not ask people about immigration status and forbidding our immigration service from removing criminals from this country. That is another thing that we ought to be doing now.

□ 1915

Other things that President Trump is trying to do—but he needs a little bit of help here—we currently have illegals in low-income housing. I am not sure we need more low-income housing in this country, but a lot of people feel we do. Right now we have the rather bizarre situation in which people who are here illegally are sitting in low-income housing, while American citizens are on a waiting list, including people like homeless veterans.

I want to point out that President Trump and myself are not anti-immigrant to say this. It recently came to my attention that the number of immigrants sworn in in this country in the last year available is 830,000. Two years prior to that we were under 700,000.

So President Trump has presided over a dramatic increase in the number of people who are coming in this country legally, showing his compassion and understanding that we do need immigrants in this country.

However, it is time Congress stepped to the plate and did what was necessary to rein in out-of-control illegal immigration. So I encourage my colleagues not to forget about this crisis. I encourage the media, particularly the conservative media, not to take their eye off this ball, which will determine what the United States looks like 5 and 10 and 25 years from now.

I realize there are a lot of people who want the media to only focus on immigration, but we cannot forget what is going on in the immigration front.

I yield back the remainder of my time.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Accordingly (at 7 o'clock and 16 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess.
