Ms. CHENEY (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be considered as read.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. NEGUSE). Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Wyoming?

There was no objection.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

HOURLY MEETING ON TOMORROW

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Massachusetts?

There was no objection.

HARMFUL MOTION TO RECOMMIT

(Ms. MCCOLLUM asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, I rise to address the Republicans' motion to recommit that was offered on the previous bill and to explain to the American people the harm that that motion would have caused.

The Trump shutdown is in its 33rd day. Critical programs that help our most vulnerable friends and neighbors, like SNAP benefits for seniors, will soon run out.

As chair of the Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies Appropriations Subcommittee, I know the difficulties this shutdown is causing for Indian Country, where basic healthcare programs could end soon.

Mr. Speaker, for our Native American brothers and sisters, this shutdown is literally a life-or-death matter, and that is why the Republican motion to recommit was so very disappointing. It strips the entire text of the bill, keeping the Federal Government closed and threatening the well-being of tens of millions of Americans.

It is callous, it is cruel, and it is wrong. And that is why I join my Democratic colleagues in rejecting the motion to recommit.

House Democrats are doing our job. We are passing legislation to reopen the government and to fund our Federal employees with the paychecks they deserve. Mr. Speaker, it is time for the Senate and the President to do the same.

COMMENDING CHANDLER POLICE CHIEF SEAN DUGGAN

(Mr. BIGGS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BIGGS. Mr. Speaker, I rise tonight to commend Chandler Police Chief Sean Duggan for recently being named the 2019 Chief of the Year by the Arizona Association of Chiefs of Police.

Chief Duggan has served Arizonan communities in law enforcement for more than 30 years, following in the footsteps of his father who was a New York City police officer. He joined the police force in 1986 when he started with the Scottsdale Police Department and also served as a member of the Arizona Department of Public Safety's gang and illegal immigration task force.

In an interview 5 years ago, after being selected as Chandler's top cop, Chief Duggan said: "Was I a kid who wanted to be chief? No. It's the greatest honor that can be bestowed on me professionally."

Mr. Speaker, I say to Chief Duggan: Your service to Chandler has been honorable. The citizens of Chandler thank you for your leadership. Throughout your career, you have dedicated yourself to protecting our liberties and ensuring that criminals are removed from the streets. The east valley is privileged to count you as a neighbor, influencer, and leader.

Congratulations on your award. You have earned it.

PFAS TASK FORCE

(Ms. DEAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DEAN. Mr. Speaker, Article I, Section 27 of the Pennsylvania Constitution reads: "The people have a right to clean air, pure water, and to the preservation of the natural, scenic, historic, and esthetic values of the environment. Pennsylvania's public natural resources are the common property of all the people."

Pure water, it doesn't get any more basic than that. But for years, constituents in my district in towns like Horsham, Willow Grove, North Hills, and Upper Dublin have worried about the quality of their water and the impact of that water on their health and their family's health. Like citizens who live near military bases across the country, their water supplies have been contaminated with a class of manmade chemicals known as PFAS.

Unfortunately, government has been slow to act. The EPA has attempted to block research showing just how dangerous these chemicals really are. Testing and cleanup have been insufficient, and, now, day 33 of the administration's shutdown, 93 percent of EPA workers are furloughed, challenging our ability to deal with this and other important issues.

But today, we in the Congress have launched a bipartisan PFAS Task Force. I invite all Members of Congress to work with us on this matter of genuine national concern.

BACKPAY FOR FEDERAL EMPLOYEES

(Mr. KEVIN HERN of Oklahoma asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KEVIN HERN of Oklahoma. Mr. Speaker, just a few minutes ago, we voted to fund Federal pay through the end of the shutdown. Republicans voted unanimously with bipartisan support from 10 Democrats. If we had just eight more Democrats, our Federal workers would be getting paychecks. Now hard-working Americans are facing a second zero-dollar paycheck.
