BUDGETARY EFFECTS

SEC. 401. Effective on the date of enactment of this Act, the balances on the PAYGO scorecards established pursuant to paragraphs (4) and (5) of section 4(d) of the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010 (2 U.S.C. 933(d)) shall be zero.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 5, the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. LOWEY) and the gentlewoman from Texas (Ms. GRANGER) each will control 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from New York.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

As this new Congress begins our work for the American people, I thank my colleagues for the honor of electing me chairwoman of the Appropriations Committee.

I would also like to congratulate my colleague and friend, KAY GRANGER, on becoming ranking member. I look forward to working with her and all of the Members of our committee and this House in the 116th Congress.

For the first time in our Nation's history, however, we convene this new Congress during a Federal Government shutdown. Now in its 13th day, the Trump shutdown has disrupted life for more than 800,000 Federal employees and their families, including nearly 400,000 people serving our country without pay.

The shutdown has undermined public safety, halted consumer protection programs, and made it harder for the government to serve farmers, home buyers, and small business owners.

The devastating impact on international security and assistance initiatives includes halting counterdrug, anticrime, and border security efforts, preventing the obligation of funding for antiterrorism assistance, cutting off foreign military financing, and stopping all new activities related to global health, such as antimalaria and HIV-AIDS treatments, as well as maternal mortality care.

As Representatives, funding the Federal Government is one of our most important duties. When Congress allows a President to dictate ridiculous demands and lets petty partisanship prevent the timely passage of appropriation bills, we abdicate that responsibility.

Our new Democratic majority was elected to end the chaos and govern responsibly. This legislative package to end the Trump shutdown and fully reopen government consists of two parts, separating the disagreement between President Trump and Congress over border security from funding the rest of the Federal Government.

The first part, the one we are considering now, provides full-year funding for six of the seven fiscal year 2019 appropriation bills that have not yet been completed.

The text is virtually identical to bipartisan legislation that has already passed the Senate Appropriations Committee, nearly unanimously, and in four cases, passed the full Senate on a 92-6 vote.

These bills are not perfect, but they make key investments in bipartisan priorities, do not include any poison-pill riders, and increase funding for important programs by $53 billion more than President Trump's budget request.

The second part of our legislative package, which will be presented shortly by our distinguished Homeland Security Appropriations Subcommittee chairwoman, LUCILLE ROYBAL-ALLARD, includes a continuing resolution, funding the Department of Homeland Security at current levels through February 8.

It would allow the Department to reopen without providing any new funding for President Trump's wasteful border wall.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to pass both bills, and I urge the Senate to act responsibly and take up these bills without delay. It is up to Senate Republicans whether to vote for their own bills and reopen the government, or block them and continue the Trump shutdown.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, today I rise in opposition to H.R. 21. After months of good-faith negotiations to resolve the differences between the House, the Senate, and the White House, the new Democrat leadership has chosen to introduce this package that fails to secure our border.

The President has said that he will not sign it. The Senate has said they will not consider it. This plan not only ignores one of the main responsibilities of the Congress, which is to protect the American people, it ignores the will of this Chamber by eliminating House Members' involvement in the appropriations process.

All Members of the House, both Democrats and Republicans, have priorities and concerns that are not addressed in this bill. Our constituents are not well-served by us simply rubber-stamping a Senate product that has no chance of becoming a law.

By accepting this bill, we are throwing away important House priorities, such as resources to help Federal law enforcement better investigate and prosecute groups such as: terrorists, drug traffickers, human traffickers, violent criminals, and criminal aliens.

It also ignores more than $300 million in funding for embassy security at a time when security threats overseas remain high, and countless facilities are in need of important upgrades.

The bill also strips vital protections for the rural poor that House Members on both sides of the aisle have been fighting to secure for years.

These are just a few examples, Madam Speaker. All of us in this Chamber were elected to represent the best interests of our constituents. This bill does not meet those standards.

If my colleagues on the other side of the aisle truly care about the needs of their constituents, Federal employees, and keeping the government operating, they shouldn't be wasting time on bills that will not be enacted.

Instead, we should come together to find a solution that represents the will of both the House and the Senate. It is time to end the political gamesmanship and get together on a bill that will reopen the government and fund border security.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote "no" on this bill before us today, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from New York (Mr. SERRANO), the chairman-designate of the Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Subcommittee.

Mr. SERRANO. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. LOWEY) and congratulate her on her chairmanship. I also congratulate Ms. GRANGER on her ranking membership.

As a top Democrat on the Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Subcommittee, I would like to discuss what is happening right now at the Department of Justice, the Department of Commerce, NASA, and the other agencies under my subcommittee's jurisdiction as a result of the Trump shutdown.

More than 95,000 employees at the Department of Justice, including the FBI, DEA, ATF, Federal Bureau of Prisons, and United States Marshals Service are currently working without pay.

More than 96 percent of NASA employees are now not working, imperiling scientific achievement. More than 86 percent of the Department of Commerce is furloughed without pay, including employees at key economic development agencies, like the Economic Development Administration, and the Minority Business Development Agency.

Law enforcement training programs have been stopped. The Department of Justice civil litigation efforts against bad actors are severely limited. Payments to crime victims are not occurring.

These are real-life consequences to the President's temper tantrum. This is basic governance that the Republican Party seems to be incapable of doing. Instead of working on a compromise, they sent everybody home for the holidays.

Democrats are doing the work that the President and his party couldn't. We need the government reopened; these bills provide a clear path in that regard. And in that direction, the Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Subcommittee portion of this bill provides important investments to the Census Bureau, the Justice Department, NASA, and the National Science Foundation, among others.

It also rejects some of the President's worst and most partisan policy proposals, including efforts to undermine climate research, eliminate economic development programs, and eliminate the Legal Services Corporation.

It also gives the Senate no excuses. The Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Subcommittee's portion of this bill was approved by the Senate Appropriations Committee by a bipartisan vote of 30-1. It would be great to get it approved by the Senate. If Majority Leader MCCONNELL were to bring it up for a vote, it would pass, we feel, very easily.

We are all elected in order to solve the pressing problems of our Nation.

Right now, the President doesn't seem interested in doing the same. But with this package, we are asking Senate Republicans: Will you join us in helping the American people?

Lastly, so much of this is tied up against the wall. Many people discuss the actual, physical structure of the wall. I speak about something else. This country, of all countries in the world, should never build a wall. This country that has a statue in New York Harbor saying "Bring me your tired, your poor" should not be building a wall to keep some other people out. It is just not who we are. It is not who we should become.

I think that the President should realize that this is a losing battle, because he is not going to get the money he wants to build that wall.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Alabama (Mr. ADERHOLT).

Mr. ADERHOLT. Madam Speaker, I rise to oppose the fiscal year 2019 appropriations package that is before us tonight, as I believe it fails to reflect the priorities of elected Members of this body here in the House of Representatives.

The House agriculture appropriations bill, which I chaired as the Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Subcommittee chairman, was bipartisan. I worked with my colleague, the Democratic ranking member, my good friend from Georgia, SANFORD BISHOP, on the bill.

But, unfortunately, the bill in front of us tonight is basically, as some would say, a nothing burger. It is largely missing any substance. Let me give you some examples of what I am talking about.

The House bill that we negotiated contained $125 million more than the Senate bill for a broadband pilot program. That is a program that is widely popular among rural America.

The House bill provides $149 million more for the Food and Drug Administration.

The House bill protected our children by excluding chicken from China in our children's school meals.

The House bill reflected my work with Representative CLYBURN of South Carolina to secure set-aside funds for persistent poverty, as it continues in rural areas.

But tonight's package does not include these priorities. Also, they don't protect the border, which is one of the most basic duties of the Federal Government. Certainly, one of the basic duties that the President must make sure that he does is to protect our Nation against foreign enemies.

Among the illegal immigrants who make their way across the southern border are gang members. There are human traffickers; there are child smugglers; and there are drug dealers. By stopping their entry at the border, it prevents them from committing crimes in the United States.

Instead of catering to voters who don't even want to have a border, I believe the House Democrats should vote "no" on this bill, and the Democrat majority should negotiate an end to the government shutdown and simply provide the funding requested by the President of the United States.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to vote "no" on this appropriations bill tonight, and I insist on a bill that includes the House priorities.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, before I yield to my friend, the gentleman from North Carolina, I would like to address a comment that my friend, Mr. ADERHOLT, made. The bill that passed through the gentleman's committee also included language that would make it easier than it is today for youngsters to use e-cigarettes. Perhaps when we get back to it, we could address that.

Madam Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. PRICE), who is the chairman-designate of the Transportation, Housing and Urban Development, and Related Agencies Subcommittee.

Mr. PRICE of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of the legislation to reopen the government and end this third Trump shutdown.

For the last 2 weeks, President Trump has held America hostage to fulfill his demagogic campaign promise to build a border wall, a wall that has come to symbolize extreme and inhumane immigration policies that are simply tearing our communities apart.

This is more than just a political fight. The Trump shutdown has closed Federal agencies and suspended essential programs that millions of Americans rely upon. It has created uncertainty for families, businesses, and communities in each of our districts.

To those Federal employees affected by this unnecessary shutdown, know this: the President and his privileged cronies may not care about how you and your families pay your bills, but this new Democratic majority certainly does care.

As the incoming chairman of the Transportation, Housing and Urban Development, and Related Agencies Subcommittee, I know this uncertainty has severe consequences.

Already, vital funding for States and municipalities to upgrade transit, rail, and aviation facilities is being put on hold.

The National Transportation Safety Board has ceased major accident investigations.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration is no longer investigating or reviewing information about motor vehicle manufacturing defects that could put lives at risk.

Disaster recovery programs at FEMA and other agencies have been slowed due to the lapse in funding. Survivors of these disasters in North Carolina and other States are still recovering from devastating hurricanes, wildfires, and typhoons, and they simply cannot afford this delay and this uncertainty.

New hiring and training for air traffic controllers has ceased, exacerbating an ongoing staffing shortage.

If the shutdown continues much longer, housing assistance for millions of low-income families, veterans, seniors, and the disabled will be jeopardized.

The list, Madam Speaker, goes on and on.

President Trump and the Republicans may have gotten us into this mess, but Democrats are ready to clean it up on day one, namely, right this minute. The funding package before us consists of appropriations bills that previously passed the Senate on a bipartisan basis. It reflects key Democratic and Republican priorities and rejects partisan policy riders.

In a few minutes, separate legislation will provide short-term funding for the Department of Homeland Security. That will give us more time to negotiate and find a solution on border security and immigration policy.

My colleagues on the other side of the aisle have been quoted calling this a stunt or a nonstarter. Madam Speaker, how is legislation that passed the Senate with 92 votes a stunt? How can bills the Trump administration itself praised in its official Statement of Administrative Policy just a few months ago be a nonstarter?

Enough is enough. President Trump may see this as a reality show game of chicken, but this shutdown is for real, and it is doing real damage. Let's do the right thing for the American people. Let's reopen the government without further delay.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this bipartisan, commonsense legislation to finally end the Trump shutdown.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Alabama (Mr. ROGERS).

Mr. ROGERS of Alabama. Madam Speaker, I thank the ranking member for yielding.

Madam Speaker, tonight, there will be a smoke-and-mirrors vote on this House floor. Democrats want to kick the can down the road and put American security on the back burner while they gear up their obstructionist agenda.

It used to be that Members of Congress could put partisanship aside at least on national security issues. I know this firsthand as a member of both the Armed Services Committee and the Homeland Security Committee, where we have done this on a regular basis.

But, today, the Democrats and the Speaker refuse to even negotiate funding a deal to deal with a critical national security issue. Unfortunately, it looks like we are in for a Democrat agenda influenced by the far left echo chamber that promotes open borders and illegal immigration.

Not too long ago, then-Senator Barack Obama spoke in support of securing the southern border and the need to deter illegal immigration. The bill he supported authorized the construction of a physical barrier along the southern border that would prevent illegal entry into the United States. It passed the Senate with 80 votes that included Senator Barack Obama, Senator Biden, Senator Clinton, and Senator SCHUMER.

What changed? Since when did securing our border become controversial? The election of Donald Trump.

Democrats seem willing to ignore security vulnerabilities along our border on their quest to win back the White House in 2020. Their plan is to block President Trump's priorities, even those they used to support, and then act like Republicans are the reason they can't get things done.

Today's funding bill stands no chance in the Senate or with President Trump. I challenge my Democrat colleagues to get something good done for the American people rather than engaging in the political grandstanding that this bill signifies.

I hope Speaker PELOSI won't let the activist left hold American security hostage. Securing our border is not only the right thing to do, but it is what the American people sent us here to do.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentlewoman from Minnesota (Ms. MCCOLLUM), who is the chair-designate of the Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies Subcommittee.

Ms. MCCOLLUM. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of this bill to reopen the government. As the Trump shutdown ends its 13th day, we are seeing the damage it is inflicting on our country.

Our national parks, America's crown jewels, are under threat from vandalism and unmanaged visitation. The Interior Department is charged with preserving our public lands for all Americans to enjoy. But the current lack of supervision in our parks is damaging, and the very resources that the government is supposed to protect are at risk.

Just this past weekend, it was reported that Yosemite National Park became overwhelmed by garbage and other human waste piling up along the roads. Leaving these parks accessible without adequate National Park Service staffing puts the public at risk.

On Christmas Eve at Big Bend National Park, a man broke his leg while hiking. Because of the shutdown, emergency services were not available. Thankfully, Good Samaritans found the man and carried him down the trail. Luckily, they met one of the few park rangers deemed essential who was continuing to work without pay during the shutdown. The ranger carried the man on his back for 2 hours to safety.

Now, this story had a positive ending, but it could have been tragic. This is just one story.

The shutdown is creating uncertainty for our families, businesses, and communities. More than 800,000 Federal employees aren't getting paid. Vital services are being disrupted. Some small businesses with government contracts are being forced to consider laying off their employees. The ripple effect from this shutdown is damaging our economy.

Then there is the vital work of the Environmental Protection Agency. It has furloughed more than 13,000 employees, halting inspections at drinking water systems and hazardous waste management and chemical facilities. This is just unacceptable to America's public health. It leaves our American people in jeopardy.

The Trump shutdown is particularly threatening to the health and safety of our Native American brothers and sisters. Once again, we have failed to meet our commitments to Tribal nations as the delay in government funding continues. Everyday, basic services like health clinics, schools, and food assistance for our seniors are being put at risk for nearly 1.9 million Americans throughout Indian Country.

Federally employed first responders are putting their lives on the line without pay. It is unconscionable to put people's lives at risk.

We must reopen this government. Responsibly funding the government is one of Congress' most important duties. The Republicans failed to meet this obligation, and they have allowed President Trump to peddle chaos. Democrats are ready to end the Trump shutdown.

This bill is nearly identical to the legislation that has already received overwhelming bipartisan support in the Senate. It reflects the priorities of the American people by rejecting President Trump's proposed budget cuts and program eliminations, including the poison pill riders.

The second bill we will consider today, the homeland security bill, will create space for negotiation on immigration policy and border security, something Democrats do support strongly.

After the House passes these bills, the Senate will have a choice: pass the bills they previously voted for and end the shutdown, or reject them and leave the government closed.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. GRAVES).

Mr. GRAVES of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman from Texas for yielding.

Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill that is before us tonight. Unfortunately, this 116th Congress has begun under the cloud of a government shutdown. The prosperity and security of our Nation has taken a backseat to the new Democrat majority's political agenda.

While President Trump has asked for modest and reasonable funding to secure our border, Democrats have blocked this deal, one that would have fully funded the government several weeks ago, even before Christmas. The President's request was normal, and it was necessary. But what is really not necessary is the level of the anti-Trump hysteria that has come from the left.

The first order of business in this new Congress should be to secure the border and, yes, to open the government. The President is willing to strike a deal, but he just needs a few Democrats to join him at the table and put our country before the new Democrat majority's politics.

Sadly, the bill on the floor today does nothing to secure our border, nor does it strengthen our Nation's security. The bill before us is nothing more than just a political stunt.

If you still don't believe me, I will just point out this bill does not include any of the bipartisan product that my committee put together last year with the help of Congressman MIKE QUIGLEY on the Financial Services and General Government Appropriations Subcommittee, which included more than 100 pages of bipartisan product that we worked on together. None of these reforms were included. It also included the Fund for America's Kids and Grandkids, which is a revolutionary idea to save money for future generations.

But just hours ago, in her acceptance speech, the Speaker referred to the children of this great country and securing their futures. So why doesn't this bill, the one that is before us tonight, include anything for America's kids and grandkids?

Furthermore, this bill is nothing more than a Senate bill. The Speaker of the House is supposed to fight for the House position and not just be a floor leader for the Senate majority.

I urge my friends on the other side of the aisle to put politics aside. Let's come to the table. Let's get this done. Working together, we can secure the border; we can protect the citizens of this country; and yes, we can reopen this government. The American people are counting on us. This is what they elected us to do here today.

Madam Speaker, I urge a "no" vote on this bill.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, before I yield to my next speaker, I just want to say to the gentleman from Georgia that I strongly believe we have a responsibility to keep the government open, so it is really unfortunate that the President has taken a strong position in closing the government down. I hope we can continue our discussions and open the government for the American people.

Madam Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. BISHOP), the chairman-designate of the Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Subcommittee.

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding.

Madam Speaker, we are now in the 13th day of a partial government shutdown. Vital government services that the public relies on have slowed or stopped altogether. Specifically, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has stopped issuing loans for rural development and grants for housing and community facilities. New grant payments for agriculture research cannot be made. Across the Nation, Farm Service Agency county offices closed on December 28. Furthermore, farmers applying for relief from retaliatory tariffs are in limbo, waiting for the shutdown to end.

The bill before us today is a serious effort to end this needless shutdown and get the government back to work for the American people.

The agriculture section is virtually identical to legislation that the Senate passed last August by a vote of 92-6. This impressive, bipartisan vote is the result of the Senate agreeing to work constructively to develop their bills. This bill is not perfect—no bill ever is—but, again, this is a serious bill that will get the government working again for the American people.

Not only are we in the middle of a needless shutdown, but we are already 4 months into fiscal year 2019. Federal agencies and departments deserve certainty and stability. As we begin a new Congress, I hope we can renew our commitment to responsibly fund the government.

This bill provides $3.8 billion for rural development. These much-needed resources will help communities that face broadband, housing, water and wastewater, and healthcare challenges. The legislation provides an additional $425 million for rural broadband expansion, continuing our commitment to bridge the digital divide.

It responsibly funds the McGovern-Dole and Food for Peace programs that provide essential food to help keep children in school and help feed hungry people abroad.

It provides $2.7 billion in agricultural research, which is an increase of $114 million above the FY 2018 enacted level.

It funds the Farm Service Agency at $1.6 billion, and it funds the Natural Resources Conservation Service at $879.1 million.

The bill provides $73.2 billion in mandatory funding for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, which will soon begin to run out of funding if action is not taken soon. Last year, SNAP helped more than 42 million people, and it is widely considered an efficient and successful safety net that offers desperately needed support to those in need.

Finally, the Food and Drug Administration is funded at $2.97 billion, and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission is funded at the requested level of $281.5 million.

Farmers, ranchers, and producers go to work every morning. So should their government. I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from North Carolina (Ms. FOXX).

Ms. FOXX of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, I thank my colleague from Texas for yielding.

Madam Speaker, I rise today in opposition to H.R. 21, the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2019. This bill would allow taxpayers to fund abortions in foreign countries.

H.R. 21 would repeal President Donald Trump's Protecting Life and Global Health Assistance Policy. This important policy, formally known as the Mexico City policy, protects American taxpayers and prohibits U.S. international assistance from going to foreign NGOs that promote or perform abortions.

It is critical that America's foreign policy reflect the values of the American people. A 2017 Marist Poll clearly revealed that an overwhelming majority of Americans oppose using their hard-earned tax dollars to support abortions in other countries. American taxpayers should not be expected to pay for something they so strongly oppose.

The Protecting Life and Global Health Assistance Policy is not anti-global health nor is it anti-family planning. It does not reduce funding available for international health assistance and leaves the choice up to the individual NGOs of whether or not they wish to be eligible for Federal grant money.

Abortion should never be considered a necessary part of economic growth, and organizations that believe it is should not be the type of organizations that the United States partners with.

Abortion is wrong. We do not allow taxpayer money to be spent on abortions within the United States, and we certainly should not fund it in other countries.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to oppose this bill.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. QUIGLEY), the distinguished chairman-designate of the Financial Services and General Government Subcommittee.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Madam Speaker, I am reminding myself, after listening to my colleagues, of how we really got here.

Yes, this is a Senate bill. The Senate had a bicameral, bipartisan approach to this. They were told they could go home for a reason. Apparently, the President saw something he didn't like on TV.

So here we are. And what do we have to show for it?

More than 800,000 Federal employees are left wondering when their next paycheck is going to arrive, forced to choose between paying their mortgage or their child's daycare; financial markets and businesses are rattled by a President who is willing to throw the economy into chaos over his own pride; and American families are deprived of vital government services they rely on.

As the chairman-designate of the Financial Services and General Government Subcommittee on Appropriations, I have seen firsthand how this shutdown is impacting communities around the country. For example, the doors to the Small Business Administration are shut. This means a complete halt to the processing of Federal loan assistance applications for small businesses, which typically amount to $1 billion per month.

We have more than 300 million small businesses in our communities, thousands of which apply every month for Federal loan assistance, and we are failing them. We talk about supporting job creation and ensuring small businesses can grow, but when a business owner cannot get a loan approved, that is a broken promise.

At the IRS, tens of thousands of employees who are supposed to be ready to answer taxpayers' questions and to process tax returns are, instead, furloughed, leaving the phones to continue ringing unanswered as we move into the 2018 filing season.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, the agency responsible for policing Wall Street, has furloughed 94 percent of its staff. It is now preparing to scale back law enforcement and litigation efforts, putting at risk the safety and stability of our markets.

These are just three agencies. The list goes on.

The bill that is before us today to fund the agencies covered by the Financial Services and General Government Appropriations bill is not the bill I would have written myself. I am disappointed that, after securing funding last year to help States better defend their election systems, we were unable to lock down additional money for next year.

The overwhelming demand for assistance is clearly there, as every single State and eligible territory requested funding. However, even though the President and many of my Republican colleagues refuse to do what is needed to defend our election systems from foreign interference, we must do what is right and what is responsible. That is why I am still going to support this bill. Ultimately, it will do the foundational job the American people expect us to do.

This bill provides resources for our core government operations to resume and function properly, whether it is the Federal Communications Commission, the National Archives, the Federal judiciary, or Federal drug control offices.

It is time—13 days past time—to end the ego trips and nonsense and get back to work.

I believe we should always strive for bipartisanship when we can. That is exactly what the Senate did when they overwhelmingly passed the bills we are voting on tonight.

While I would never ask my colleagues, whether Democrat or Republican, to cave on their core convictions, that is exactly what the President and House Republicans are asking us to do by wasting over $5 billion on an ineffective border wall that has come to serve one purpose alone: to symbolize hate, exclusion, and irrational fear.

This is clearly not how you negotiate a deal in good faith, and it is never appropriate to hold paychecks and vital government services hostage as a dealmaking tactic. Stop covering for the President as he doubles down on his reckless mistake. Pass these Senate-supported bills, and provide American families, businesses, and communities with the certainty they deserve.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. HARRIS).

Mr. HARRIS. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman from Texas for yielding.

Madam Speaker, we are less than 8 hours into this new Congress. We heard a promise from the Speaker today about transparency, openness, and, maybe, regular order; yet we have a bill in front of us, one of the most major bills we would consider the entire year, that has not gone through the committee process. In fact, it was drawn up behind closed doors, with no debate. We have dozens of new Members, none of whom are allowed input into this product because it didn't come through the committee process.

What if some of these changes are made?

We had a bill that had come through the process, but there were changes made. The gentlewoman from North Carolina talked about one of them: the fact that many, many Americans—the majority of Americans—feel we already spend too much on foreign aid.

This bill says we are now going to change our policy from the last few years, and we are now going to spend money to fund abortion programs in foreign countries for the purpose of family planning—not for medical purposes, but for the purposes of family planning. The vast majority of Americans would disagree and say, with a $22 trillion debt, we probably shouldn't be spending money overseas funding abortions for family planning.

We may have gotten a chance to debate this in committee, but we didn't. Less than 8 hours into the session, we have a major bill on the floor and no debate.

But it goes further than that. It restores funding to the United Nations Population Fund. In committee, we should have had a debate about the United Nations Population Fund and how, in fact, it funds China's coercive forced sterilization and forced abortion policy.

Is that what the United States is about: sending money overseas for forced sterilization and forced abortion?

That discussion belongs in committee. It doesn't belong, again, added to a bill under the dark of night, with no discussion.

It goes further. It increases funding for international family planning and encourages targeting areas of the world "where population growth threatens biodiversity and endangered species."

It doesn't mention anything about human life or the value of human life here. It talks about every other species in the environment as if they are more important than human life, a very interesting approach to take, but an approach that probably should have been discussed in committee first.

Finally, as a physician, it removes the protective language that says that the District of Columbia should not, in fact, promote Jack Kevorkian-style, physician-assisted suicide; because, Madam Speaker, if you can't trust your figures to make each and every judgment in your best interest, not the interest of an HMO that can save money or an insurance company that can save money or the organization that physician works for that can save money if that person agrees to take a suicide-producing drug prescribed by that physician, if we go down that slippery slope, I don't want to know where we end.

Madam Speaker, this bill should have come through the committee process. It should have gone through debate.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, before I yield to my next speaker, I would like to remind the gentleman from Maryland that this bill was supported by MITCH MCCONNELL and LINDSEY GRAHAM, among other Senators; therefore, he might want to take up his issues with them.

Madam Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. CLYBURN), the majority whip.

Mr. CLYBURN. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding me this time and thank her so much for her service to this great Nation.

Madam Speaker, I rise in strong support of this bill to reopen the government. For the past 2 weeks, vital public services have been left undone and honorable public servants have been left unpaid. We must end the shameless shutdown.

The Democratic majority has a disagreement with the President on whether a wall is the best way to secure our southern border and whether it would be a productive step toward fixing our broken immigration system.

We will continue to debate the issue, as we should, but there is absolutely no reason why the Federal Government should not be serving the American people while we debate this issue.

There is absolutely no reason why national parks shouldn't be maintained. There is absolutely no reason why museums should be closed. There is no reason why public officer training should cease. There is absolutely no reason why our economy should grow by $2 billion less every week, as economists have estimated. There is absolutely no reason why homeowners and small business owners shouldn't be able to receive loans in a timely manner.

The American people voted for a divided government, but they did not vote for a defunct government. Over the next 2 years, we must not let our disagreements stop us from moving forward on issues where we do agree.

Madam Speaker, I have been spending a lot of time in recent weeks re-reading a great book, "Democracy in America," written by Alexis de Tocqueville; and although many historians disagree as to whether or not de Tocqueville ever really said it, the fact of the matter is, he is credited with having said that the reason America is a great Nation is because the American people are good people. And he concluded that if the American people ever ceased to be good, America would cease to be great.

The fact of the matter is, this shutting down the government, not paying public servants, and not giving vital services to people and communities who need them is demonstrative of the fact that Americans are losing their goodness.

Let's not do that. It will cause the greatness of this Nation to be brought into danger.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Washington (Mr. NEWHOUSE).

Mr. NEWHOUSE. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman, my friend from Texas, for yielding.

Madam Speaker, I rise on this first day of the 116th Congress with, frankly, a great deal of disappointment in my friends across the aisle. In the very first act of their new majority, Democrats have passed a set of rules to allow the debt limit to be raised automatically, to remove protections that prevent tax hikes on the American people, and to weaken the requirement that offsets be provided when Federal spending is increased.

It is clear my colleagues have chosen to focus more on tax-and-spend priorities rather than fiscal responsibility and accountability.

As a part of this same first act, my friends across the aisle are now circumventing regular order and bringing new spending legislation straight to the floor for a vote, with no opportunity for debate or ability to offer amendments.

As someone who has served on both the Committee on Rules and the Committee on Appropriations, I have heard firsthand, repeatedly, my colleagues across the aisle shout the importance of going through regular order and allowing debate and amendments on these bills.

With this move today, the very first act in their majority, the Democrats are cutting the Rules Committee and the Appropriations Committee completely out of the process.

The legislation before us never had a hearing, was never marked up, never came to the Rules Committee for a vote. Most disappointingly, Democrats have negated the bills crafted carefully by the Appropriations Committee over the past year and thrown out legislative provisions that were negotiated and agreed upon by both sides of the aisle.

Madam Speaker, I look forward to the opportunity to work to find common ground with my colleagues in the majority, but today I am sincerely disappointed in these first moves of the 116th Congress.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from Missouri (Mrs. HARTZLER).

Mrs. HARTZLER. Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.R. 21, the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2019, for many reasons but, importantly, because the underlying legislation strips away essential protections for young mothers and unborn babies, disregarding the value of their lives.

Today's minibus eliminates a crucial pro-life foreign policy that is in place today known as the Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance program. President Ronald Reagan instituted this policy to provide healthcare for women in foreign countries while ensuring that U.S. taxpayer dollars would not be used to fuel the national abortion industry.

U.S. foreign assistance should be life affirming. The Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance policy draws a clear line between abortion and global healthcare.

Foreign nongovernmental organizations should be eligible for U.S. Federal funding as long as they do not perform or actively promote abortion as a method of birth control. Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance affirms the inherent worth and dignity of women and children around the world, and it is tragic that today's bill nullifies these pro-life protections.

So, because of that, I urge my colleagues to join me in voting against H.R. 21.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I continue to reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Colorado (Mr. LAMBORN).

Mr. LAMBORN. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman from Texas for her leadership.

Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.R. 21, which repeals the Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance policy. This is a commonsense policy that simply guarantees that U.S. taxpayer dollars do not promote or perform abortions overseas.

Organizations such as International Planned Parenthood and Marie Stopes International are responsible for millions of abortions overseas every year, and they do not deserve support from American taxpayers.

Taxpayer dollars are better spent on the health of children and mothers and on malaria and HIV prevention and treatment rather than on snuffing out the lives of unborn children.

It is amazing that, on their first day of taking power, House Democrats are pushing an extreme position far to the left. American taxpayers simply don't want to fund abortions with their hard-earned dollars, and it is even more amazing that this exercise is being performed on a bill that will not be brought up in the Senate and will not be signed by the President. It is a bill that is going nowhere.

Madam Speaker, I strongly oppose the repeal of this life-affirming provision, and I urge my colleagues to vote “no” on H.R. 21.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I just want to make something perfectly clear.

The United States does not and cannot fund abortions. Let me say that again. The United States does not and cannot fund abortions, period.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. JOHNSON).

Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana. Madam Speaker, I rise to share a deep concern that I and many of my colleagues share about H.R. 21.

If what our colleague said is true, then we should just take this provision out of the bill. To revise or rescind the Mexico City policy would do precisely the opposite of what the gentlewoman just said at the podium.

In 1984, President Ronald Reagan made a strong international stance for life. He announced that the United States would carry on the tradition of protecting the innocent, not only at home but around the globe. With this promise, the United States would no longer allow taxpayer dollars to be sent overseas to promote abortion as a method for family planning. That is what this policy does.

We are thankful for the countless lives that have been saved because of President Reagan’s willingness to embrace the innocent, and I remain thankful to President Trump for carrying on this proud legacy.

Unfortunately, Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance is now at risk. In the legislation before us today, the new Democratic leadership has moved to overturn this important policy that was just articulated.

Let us say this clearly. The United States should never underwrite abortions. Taxpayers deserve better, children deserve better, and families deserve better. We must continue to be the shining light on the hill to protect the innocent and assist women and children in their time of need.

What a shame it would be if the very first action in the 116th Congress is to send foreign aid to fund abortions overseas.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I continue to reserve the balance of my time.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. BANKS).

Mr. BANKS. Madam Speaker, I too rise in strong opposition to the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2019, H.R. 21.

I am appalled that the very first initiative by this Democratic majority is to push for taxpayer-funded subsidies to international organizations that promote and perform abortions.

Madam Speaker, this bill would repeal President Trump’s Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance policy, or the expanded Mexico City policy, which prohibits global health funding from going to foreign NGOs that perform or promote abortion.

Madam Speaker, the expanded Mexico City policy does not change the amount of money available for global health and family planning programs. In fact, all qualified international family planning organizations are eligible for U.S. grant money if they agree to set conditions upon acceptance.

The choice has been up to the NGO; either agree not to perform or promote abortions or forego funding from the United States.

A 6-month review of the policy by the State Department found that, out of 733 prime partners eligible for U.S. grant money, only 4 of them declined to the conditions set by the expanded Mexico City policy.

Madam Speaker, a vote in support of this minibuss is a vote to abandon the principle that U.S. foreign assistance should be life affirming; it should support the health of both women and unborn children.

Abortion is not healthcare. Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote “no” on this bill and uphold the Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance policy.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote “no” on the bill before us today, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

It is long past time to end the Trump shutdown. As our first legislative act of the year, we should isolate the political dispute over border security and reopen the government.

There is simply no reason the Senate should not pass the package, given that they wrote the six full-year bills and passed a CR through February.

Madam Speaker, I urge Members to vote “yes,” and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. All time for debate has expired.

Pursuant to House Resolution 5, the previous question is ordered on the bill.

The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentlewoman opposed to the bill?

Ms. GRANGER. I am in its current form.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Ms. Granger moves to recommit the bill H.R. 21 to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith, with the following amendment:

Page 1021, strike line 15 and all that follows through page 1023, line 19 (and redesignate subsequent sections accordingly).

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentlewoman from Texas is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, this is the final amendment to the bill, which will not kill the bill or send it back to committee. If adopted, the bill will immediately proceed to final passage, as amended.

This motion to recommit strikes the section of the Department of State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs Appropriations Act that reverses the President’s Protecting Life and Global Health Assistance Policy, formerly known as the Mexico City Policy. This policy is important to protect life and must be maintained.

The bill also mandates that funds be made available for UNFPA, and this motion to recommit strikes that requirement. The administration has determined that this United Nations agency has violated certain provisions of law. No fund should go to UNFPA. We must support this motion to recommit and amend the bill before us to ensure that pro-life policies are maintained.

Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. SMITH).

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, if reopening the government is the goal, if ending the shutdown is the goal, why does this appropriations package contain a brand-new poison pill rider, section 7071, that overturns a major, comprehensive, current-day pro-life policy?

Let’s be clear. The Protecting Life and Global Health Assistance Policy is eviscerated by this bill. The Protecting Life Policy, Madam Speaker, is a significant reiteration and expansion of President Ronald Reagan’s Mexico City policy, which was first announced back in 1984, and that policy was and is designed to ensure that U.S. taxpayer money is not funneled to foreign nongovernmental organizations that perform or promote abortion as a method of family planning.

The policy done by Trump 2 years ago establishes pro-child safeguards that are benign and humane conditions. It is about protection of these innocent children who might otherwise die from chemical poisoning or by dismemberment.

For years, pro-abortion organizations have used U.S. taxpayer funds to weaken, undermine, or reverse pro-life laws in other nations and destroy precious lives of these children.

The Speaker earlier today admonished us to protect God’s creation. These unborn children are God’s creation. They cry out for our protection. U.S. foreign policy and the foreign entities that we fund with billions of dollars of tax money, grant money—this is grant money—should consistently affirm, care for, and tangibly assist women and children, including the unborn child.

Let's not forget, no one is expendable or a throwaway. Every human life has imminent value. Birth is merely an event, not the beginning of the life of a child. Taxpayers should not be forced to fund the organizations that are promoting abortion overseas.

This allows us—and it doesn't reduce global humanitarian aid, global health aid by so much as a dollar. It just is who we give it to does matter, and if they have an agenda of taking the lives of these precious children, we would give it to someone else, and we do so on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

I thank my good friend for yielding, and I hope that everyone will support the Granger motion to recommit.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of this motion, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentlewoman from New York is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, responsibly funding the Federal Government is one of the most important duties of Congress. The previous majority failed to do so, and they failed to do the most basic task of keeping the lights on. Here on day one of the 116th Congress, we Democrats are here to reopen Federal agencies shuttered by the Trump shutdown.

This legislation, which has already garnered strong bipartisan support in the Senate, will ensure that the Federal Government is open and working for the American people.

The House package includes the identical provisions relating to international family planning that were included in the State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs bill that was reported unanimously by the Senate Appropriations Committee 6 months ago, including "aye" votes by Senators MCCONNELL and GRAHAM. The bill continues the longstanding prohibition on the use of U.S. funds for abortion.

The President's executive order goes beyond existing U.S. law and forces the United States to withhold critical family planning assistance from non-governmental organizations with expertise, capacity, and proven track records on supporting women's health around the globe.

The Mexico City policy, or the global gag rule, is a harmful policy that hurts women and families around the world. The President's expanded policy prevents women from around the world from gaining access to essential information and healthcare services.

We are already on the 13th day of the Trump shutdown. We need to pass these bills without further delay. For that reason, Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to reject this motion to recommit and vote "no."

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

Ms. GRANGER. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question will be postponed.

FURTHER CONTINUING APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2019

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD. Madam Speaker, pursuant to House Resolution 5, I call up the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 1) making further continuing appropriations for the Department of Homeland Security for fiscal year 2019, and for other purposes, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the title of the joint resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 5, the joint resolution is considered read.

The text of the joint resolution is as follows:

SEC. 3. (a) If a State (or another Federal grantee) used State funds (or the grantee's non-Federal funds) to continue carrying out a Federal program or furloughed State employees (or the grantee's employees) whose compensation is advanced or reimbursed in whole or in part by the Federal Government—

(1) such furloughed employees shall be compensated at their standard rate of compensation for such period;

(2) the State (or such other grantee) shall be reimbursed for expenses that would have been paid by the Federal Government during such period had appropriations been available, including the cost of compensating such furloughed employees, together with interest thereon calculated under section 6503(d) of title 31, United States Code; and

(3) the State (or such other grantee) may use funds available to the State (or the grantee) under such Federal program to reimburse such State (or the grantee), together with interest thereon calculated under section 6503(d) of title 31, United States Code.

(b) For purposes of this section, the term "State" and the term "grantee", including United States territories and possessions, shall have the meaning given such terms under the applicable Federal program under subsection (a). In addition, "to continue carrying out a Federal program" means the continued performance by a State or other Federal grantee, during the period of a lapse in appropriations, of a Federal program that the State or such other grantee had been carrying out prior to the period of the lapse in appropriations.

(c) The authority under this section applies with respect to the period of a lapse in appropriations beginning on or about December 22, 2018, and ending on the date of enactment of this joint resolution with respect to the Department of Homeland Security which, but for such lapse in appropriations, would have paid, or made reimbursement relating to, any of the expenses referred to in this section with respect to the program involved. Payments and reimbursements under this authority shall be made only to the extent and in amounts provided in advance in appropriations Acts.
