

He goes on further to say: "Do you know what is being done to help with smaller class sizes? Where are we with border control?"

"My education is important to me. I want to be successful in life. The tensions are high at my school because of the illegal immigrants. This is how racism is perpetuated, not prevented.

"I will be going to a private charter this fall; however, I am still concerned because my future wife may not be so lucky to escape this problem. My friends are not all able to switch schools.

"This is not the way it should be. Please hear me. I hope that you can offer guidance. No one knows what the answer is."

This is how it is affecting students, and I submit, it is a sad state of affairs in southern Arizona.

CONGRESS SHOULD PASS THE USMCA QUICKLY

(Mr. DESJARLAIS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DESJARLAIS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to deliver a simple message: It is time to bring the United States-Mexico-Canada trade deal to the House floor for a vote.

The USMCA is a big improvement over NAFTA, the old North American Free Trade Agreement. This deal is fairer to American workers and companies in a variety of industries. Farmers and ranchers get wider access to foreign markets, and new rules make U.S. manufacturing more competitive. The USMCA is the first trade deal to help small businesses cut through international red tape.

The President has negotiated a deal that benefits not only large employers, but also small businesses and middle-class families in Republican and Democratic districts across the country.

The USMCA is important to successful negotiations with our other trading partners. This and future trade deals will continue the strong economic and job growth that tax reforms, smart regulations, and more domestic energy production have already helped to create.

I urge Congress to pass the USMCA quickly.

RECOGNIZING JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY

(Mr. CLINE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CLINE. Madam Speaker, today I would like to recognize James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Virginia.

JMU was recently announced as having the highest postgraduation employment rates out of all of Virginia's colleges and universities. This is an outstanding accomplishment for one of the Commonwealth of Virginia's largest colleges.

Institutions like JMU educate students and prepare them for opportunities that they might not have had without a college degree. Graduates of 4-year colleges have completed the work and are now tasked with the responsibility of finding employment. Fortunately, for recent graduates, demand for talent is high and unemployment is at a record low.

Congratulations to JMU on this monumental achievement.

Go Dukes.
