

it right have prevailed. If that were not true," Betty said, "I would still be a slave like my great-grandmother."

Betty's colleagues, fans, and friends deeply admire her activism, her leadership, and her dedication to social justice and to America. Her positivity, sense of self, and commitment to doing what is right and preserving and honoring our past continue to inspire us all.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in congratulating and celebrating this wonderful American's dedicated service and in wishing her a speedy recovery and good health. Her strong spirit and perseverance are an inspiration to us all.

BLOOD CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. CARTER) for 5 minutes.

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Blood Cancer Awareness Month this past September.

Including leukemia, non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, Hodgkin's lymphoma, and more, around 14,000 Americans are diagnosed with blood cancer types each month.

Although a staggering statistic, doctors and researchers across the globe have made significant advances since the 1960s. For some blood cancers, survival rates have more than quadrupled.

As with any illness, early detection is important; so I encourage everyone to see their doctor, get a check-up, and discuss whether they have had any symptoms that could be related to blood cancer.

Mr. Speaker, if you have had bone pain, frequent nose bleeds, or tiny red spots on your skin, I especially encourage you to see a doctor.

I will continue supporting researchers to make further advances in eradicating these diseases.

NATIONAL DISABILITY EMPLOYMENT AWARENESS MONTH

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize October 2019 as National Disability Employment Awareness Month.

Workplaces that welcome the talents of all people, including people with disabilities, are a critical part of our efforts to build an inclusive community and a strong economy.

In the First Congressional District of Georgia, I want to especially recognize Goodwill Southeast Georgia, which is working to raise awareness about disability employment issues and celebrate the many and varied contributions of people with disabilities.

Activities they are working on this month reinforce the value and talent that people with disabilities add to our workplaces and communities while affirming Goodwill Southeast Georgia's commitment to an inclusive community.

I encourage employers, schools, and other community organizations around the country to observe this month with programs and activities, and to advance the important message that people with disabilities are capable of surpassing any obstacle.

CONGRATULATIONS TO SCOTT ISAACKS

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Mr. Scott Isaacks for receiving the inaugural South Carolina Hospital Association Drive to Zero Harm Leadership Award.

As director and CEO of the Ralph H. Johnson VA Medical Center in Charleston, South Carolina, Mr. Isaacks oversees 3,100 employees, who are some of the best that the VA has to offer.

The first award of its kind in South Carolina, Mr. Isaacks and his VA medical center are being recognized for their exceptional work in creating a culture of high reliability and eliminating harm from all facets of care.

This high-quality care is particularly important to the First Congressional District of Georgia because of the large number of veterans using the VA medical center there in Charleston. Our veterans are our Nation's heroes, and they deserve the best when they return home, which is why I am so proud to see Mr. Isaacks working hard to achieve this goal.

Mr. Speaker, I thank Mr. Isaacks for his service to our veterans and congratulations on his award.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF JAMES W. BOYKIN

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to remember the life of Mr. James W. Boykin, who passed away at the age of 80 on October 3.

In Jesup, Georgia, nearly everything and everyone seems to have been impacted by Mr. Boykin.

During his term serving as Wayne County commissioner, he was a staunch supporter of projects to boost recreation activities, and now there is even a community lake named in his honor.

He took over his father's construction company in 1975 and worked to grow the business for over 25 years, being largely responsible for its size and success today. But whether in business, government, church, or simply playing sports, Mr. Boykin was always well-respected and continuously mentoring all who knew him.

Through all of his passion to improve his community and the lives of others, he never let his four battles with cancer ever impact his attitude or dedication.

I am proud to have had someone like Mr. James Boykin in the First Congressional District of Georgia. His family and friends will be in my thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time.

STRENGTHEN OUR COUNTRY'S DEMOCRACY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Washington (Mr. LARSEN) for 5 minutes.

Mr. LARSEN of Washington. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak on strengthening America's elections and the democratic process.

The task we face is very simple: Congress should secure elections from foreign interference and break down barriers that prevent Americans from accessing the ballot. And the SHIELD Act, which Congress will vote on this week, protects elections from foreign meddling by increasing oversight of campaign contacts and online political advertising.

U.S. citizens have a right to be fully informed of their ballot box choices without concerns of foreign interference. The 2016 election taught us in the United States many lessons as foreign governments sought to influence the outcome of our election.

The SHIELD Act builds on lessons learned from the 2016 election by creating an obligation to report contacts between campaigns and foreign nationals.

Additionally, the SHIELD Act presents modern-day solutions for the problems of manipulative online political advertisements by ensuring the same standards applied to other political ads will extend to these new advertisements.

Mr. Speaker, the House will vote on the SHIELD Act this week, and I urge Members of the House to vote for the SHIELD Act to strengthen our country's democracy.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess until noon today.

Accordingly (at 10 o'clock and 33 minutes a.m.), the House stood in recess.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. RUIZ) at noon.

PRAYER

Reverend Dr. Marilyn Monroe Harris, First Baptist Church of Teaneck, Teaneck, New Jersey, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, our God, how excellent is Your name in all the Earth. We thank You for this day, and we pray for those who gather in these hallowed Halls and serve the United States of America. We pray that You sustain their physical bodies and wrap Your arms around their loved ones.

On this day, we ask that Your holy presence become manifest. Guide all with wisdom and discernment to implement just and sound policy. Engulf all with compassion for humanity and creation. Infuse our hearts with Your love. For it is Your love, O Lord, that is transformational. It is Your love that seeks the greater good. It is Your love that heals.

Let us face this day knowing that You are with us, and may all that is done in this place on this day bring You, and You alone, glory and honor. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. MURPHY) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. MURPHY of North Carolina led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

WELCOMING REVEREND DR. MARILYN MONROE HARRIS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. GOTTHEIMER) is recognized for 1 minute.

There was no objection.

Mr. GOTTHEIMER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to welcome my dear friend and a true leader, Reverend Dr. Marilyn Monroe Harris, and thank her for delivering today's invocation.

Dr. Harris is the fifth pastor and the first female pastor of the First Baptist Church of Teaneck, Teaneck, New Jersey, and she is a beacon of leadership for north Jersey and our Nation.

She is joined today by her niece, Amma, and fellow pastors, colleagues, and friends from the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention.

Pastor Harris is a lifelong civil servant; the founder of the Christian Women's Alliance, allowing clergymen to grow together; a founder of the Foundation Building Christian Institute; and a recipient of New Jersey's NAACP Award for Pastoral Leadership and Excellence.

She has preached across the globe, from Spain to South Africa. Reverend Harris also supports our first responders back home, serving as the first female African American chaplain of the Teaneck Fire Department, and she currently serves as the first female president of the United Missionary Baptist Convention of New Jersey.

Dr. Harris brings integrity and excellence to everything she does. With so much in our country dividing us, Reverend Harris' words can bring us together so that we can better serve our great country, the greatest country in the world.

I thank Reverend Harris for praying with us today.

May God continue to bless the United States of America.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Miss Kaitlyn Roberts, one of his secretaries.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain up to 15 further requests for 1-minute speeches on each side of the aisle.

HONORING AND LAYING TO REST 81 SOUTH VIETNAMESE SOLDIERS

(Mr. LOWENTHAL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LOWENTHAL. Mr. Speaker, in late 1965, a C-123 transport was shot down over Vietnam. The flight's four American crewmen were identified and their remains returned home.

The 81 South Vietnamese soldiers also on board were never identified, their remains never properly interred. The current Vietnamese Government has twice refused to allow the soldiers' remains to return home.

This Saturday, October 26, the remains of these 81 soldiers will be finally laid to rest in the Little Saigon community of Orange County, California, in my district.

I thank Senator Jim Webb, the Lost Soldiers Foundation, the Republic of Vietnam Airborne Division's national and local chapters, and everyone involved in making it possible to finally honor and properly inter these 81 soldiers.

HOLD VOTE ON IMPEACHMENT OR MOVE ON

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, efforts to impeach the President began in January 2017 with The Washington Post reporting: "The effort to impeach President Donald John Trump is already underway." This was just minutes after the President was sworn into office.

Now, 4 weeks into the Speaker's unprecedented impeachment inquiry, we learn of hidden transcripts, closed-door meetings, complete disregard for transparency and process, and the House has not even been afforded the opportunity to go on record with a vote to open an inquiry.

If this were serious, House Democrats would bring a vote to the floor to open a formal impeachment inquiry, but they won't do that. This is a political stunt beneath the dignity of this institution.

Perhaps more egregious, this stunt has consumed valuable time that we could have used to pass meaningful legislation for all Americans: lowering prescription drugs prices, securing the border, repairing our infrastructure, and moving the USMCA trade agreement forward.

Hold a vote or move on. The American people deserve better.

HONORING DR. ALVIN POUSSAINT

(Mr. RUIZ asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RUIZ. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the career of renown psychiatrist, a former associate dean of student affairs at Harvard Medical School, a lifelong public servant, and my mentor and friend, Dr. Alvin Poussaint.

Dr. Poussaint's career has been one of passion and service. During the civil rights movement, Dr. Poussaint marched from Selma to Montgomery with Martin Luther King, Jr., organizing Freedom Clinics with the Freedom Riders.

Over his accomplished career, Dr. Poussaint and his experience, insight, and intellect have been requested by the FBI, the White House, and the Department of Health and Human Services.

One of the biggest blessings of my life is that our paths crossed when I was a student at Harvard Medical School. Dr. Poussaint believed in me and supported me in my studies and my student advocacies.

Dr. Poussaint embraced me and my approach to learning. He encouraged me and guided my passion and energy, and he defended me from those who wanted me to think that I didn't belong there.

Dr. Alvin Poussaint is one of the reasons I am standing up here today as a physician and Congressman standing up for health and social justice.

I wish him well in his retirement and celebrate his decades of professional accomplishments and contributions to our society.

IN MEMORY OF FIRST LIEUTENANT FRANK MONROE "SKIP" MURPHY

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Madam Speaker, this month, a bronze statue was dedicated at Johnson Hagood Stadium at The Citadel in Charleston, South Carolina, in memory of Lieutenant Joe Missar and Lieutenant Skip Murphy, who died for freedom in Vietnam.

First Lieutenant Frank M. "Skip" Murphy was from Florham Park, New Jersey, graduating from The Citadel in 1965, achieving the dean's list, and
