TRUMP SHUTDOWN IMPACT ON SNAP RECIPIENTS

(Ms. KAPTUR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, by now, you have seen the images of furloughed public servants lined up at food banks across our beloved country. This is a sight seen in communities everywhere, including throughout northern Ohio.

I rise today to call attention to the misery the Trump shutdown is creating for millions of hardworking Americans who now have to rely on food assistance to get by: working people who have to be degraded in this way.

Federal workers, who rely on SNAP food assistance through the U.S. Department of Agriculture, face daily uncertainty from the Trump shutdown. The early distribution of benefits received last week represents the February SNAP allocation, a sum that they will be asked to stretch to a date not yet determined.

Mr. Speaker, this is unacceptable. President Trump should immediately act to protect SNAP benefits, reopen the Federal Government, and bring Federal workers back to work with paychecks they have earned.

If you are a furloughed Federal worker and face hunger issues, please do not hesitate to reach out to your local food bank. You can locate your local food bank through “Feeding America” to plan for the uncertain.

200TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

(Mr. WENSTRUP asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WENSTRUP. Mr. Speaker, I rise to acknowledge the 200th anniversary of the founding of the University of Cincinnati, my alma mater.

University of Cincinnati began as the two original chartered colleges by the State of Ohio. In January of 1819, the two merged into the esteemed university we know today.

Cincinnati is recognized as a Carnegie Research 1 university, with over 300,000 alumni across the Nation, and is the home to top programs in both the liberal arts and the sciences.

In 1969, Cincinnati was the first college to implement a co-op program, setting the stage for universities around the country, enhancing workforce development across America.

It is incredible to see how far this fine institution has come: from two small colleges so long ago, to the home of the Nation’s first teaching hospital, to the fourth oldest continuously operating law school, to its glory today.

I know the University of Cincinnati will continue to inspire those who are lucky enough to call her home.

HONORING THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

(Mr. RUTHERFORD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. RUTHERFORD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and honor the Knights of Columbus, a fraternal Catholic organization dedicated to charitable action.

Some of my colleagues have recently made disparaging comments about the mission of the Knights of Columbus, and I want to be clear: As a member of that proud organization, I am very proud of their humanitarian mission.

In 2017 alone, the Knights of Columbus raised $185 million in charitable contributions and contributed 75 million hours of service worldwide.

The Knights of Columbus stand firmly for protecting life in all its forms, most especially the unborn. They recently donated their one thousandth ultrasound machine to women’s pregnancy centers in the U.S. and around the world.

Studies have shown that women who view these ultrasounds of their unborn child are much more likely to carry that child to term.
